(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a lavatory, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

In a preferred embodiment, the nature of this product is as a plumbing fixture in the form of a pedestal lavatory which is primarily useful for washing the body parts of humans.

FIG. 1 is a right, top, front perspective view of a lavatory embodying my new design;

FIG. 2 is a front elevational view thereof;

FIG. 3 is a top plan view thereof;

FIG. 4 is a right side elevational view thereof, the left side elevational view being a mirror image of the right side shown;

FIG. 5 is a rear elevational view thereof, the portions of which that are not visible when the lavatory rear abuts a solid room wall being shown for illustration only;

FIG. 6 is a bottom plan view thereof;

FIG. 7 is a right, top, front perspective view of a second embodiment;

FIG. 8 is a front elevational view thereof;

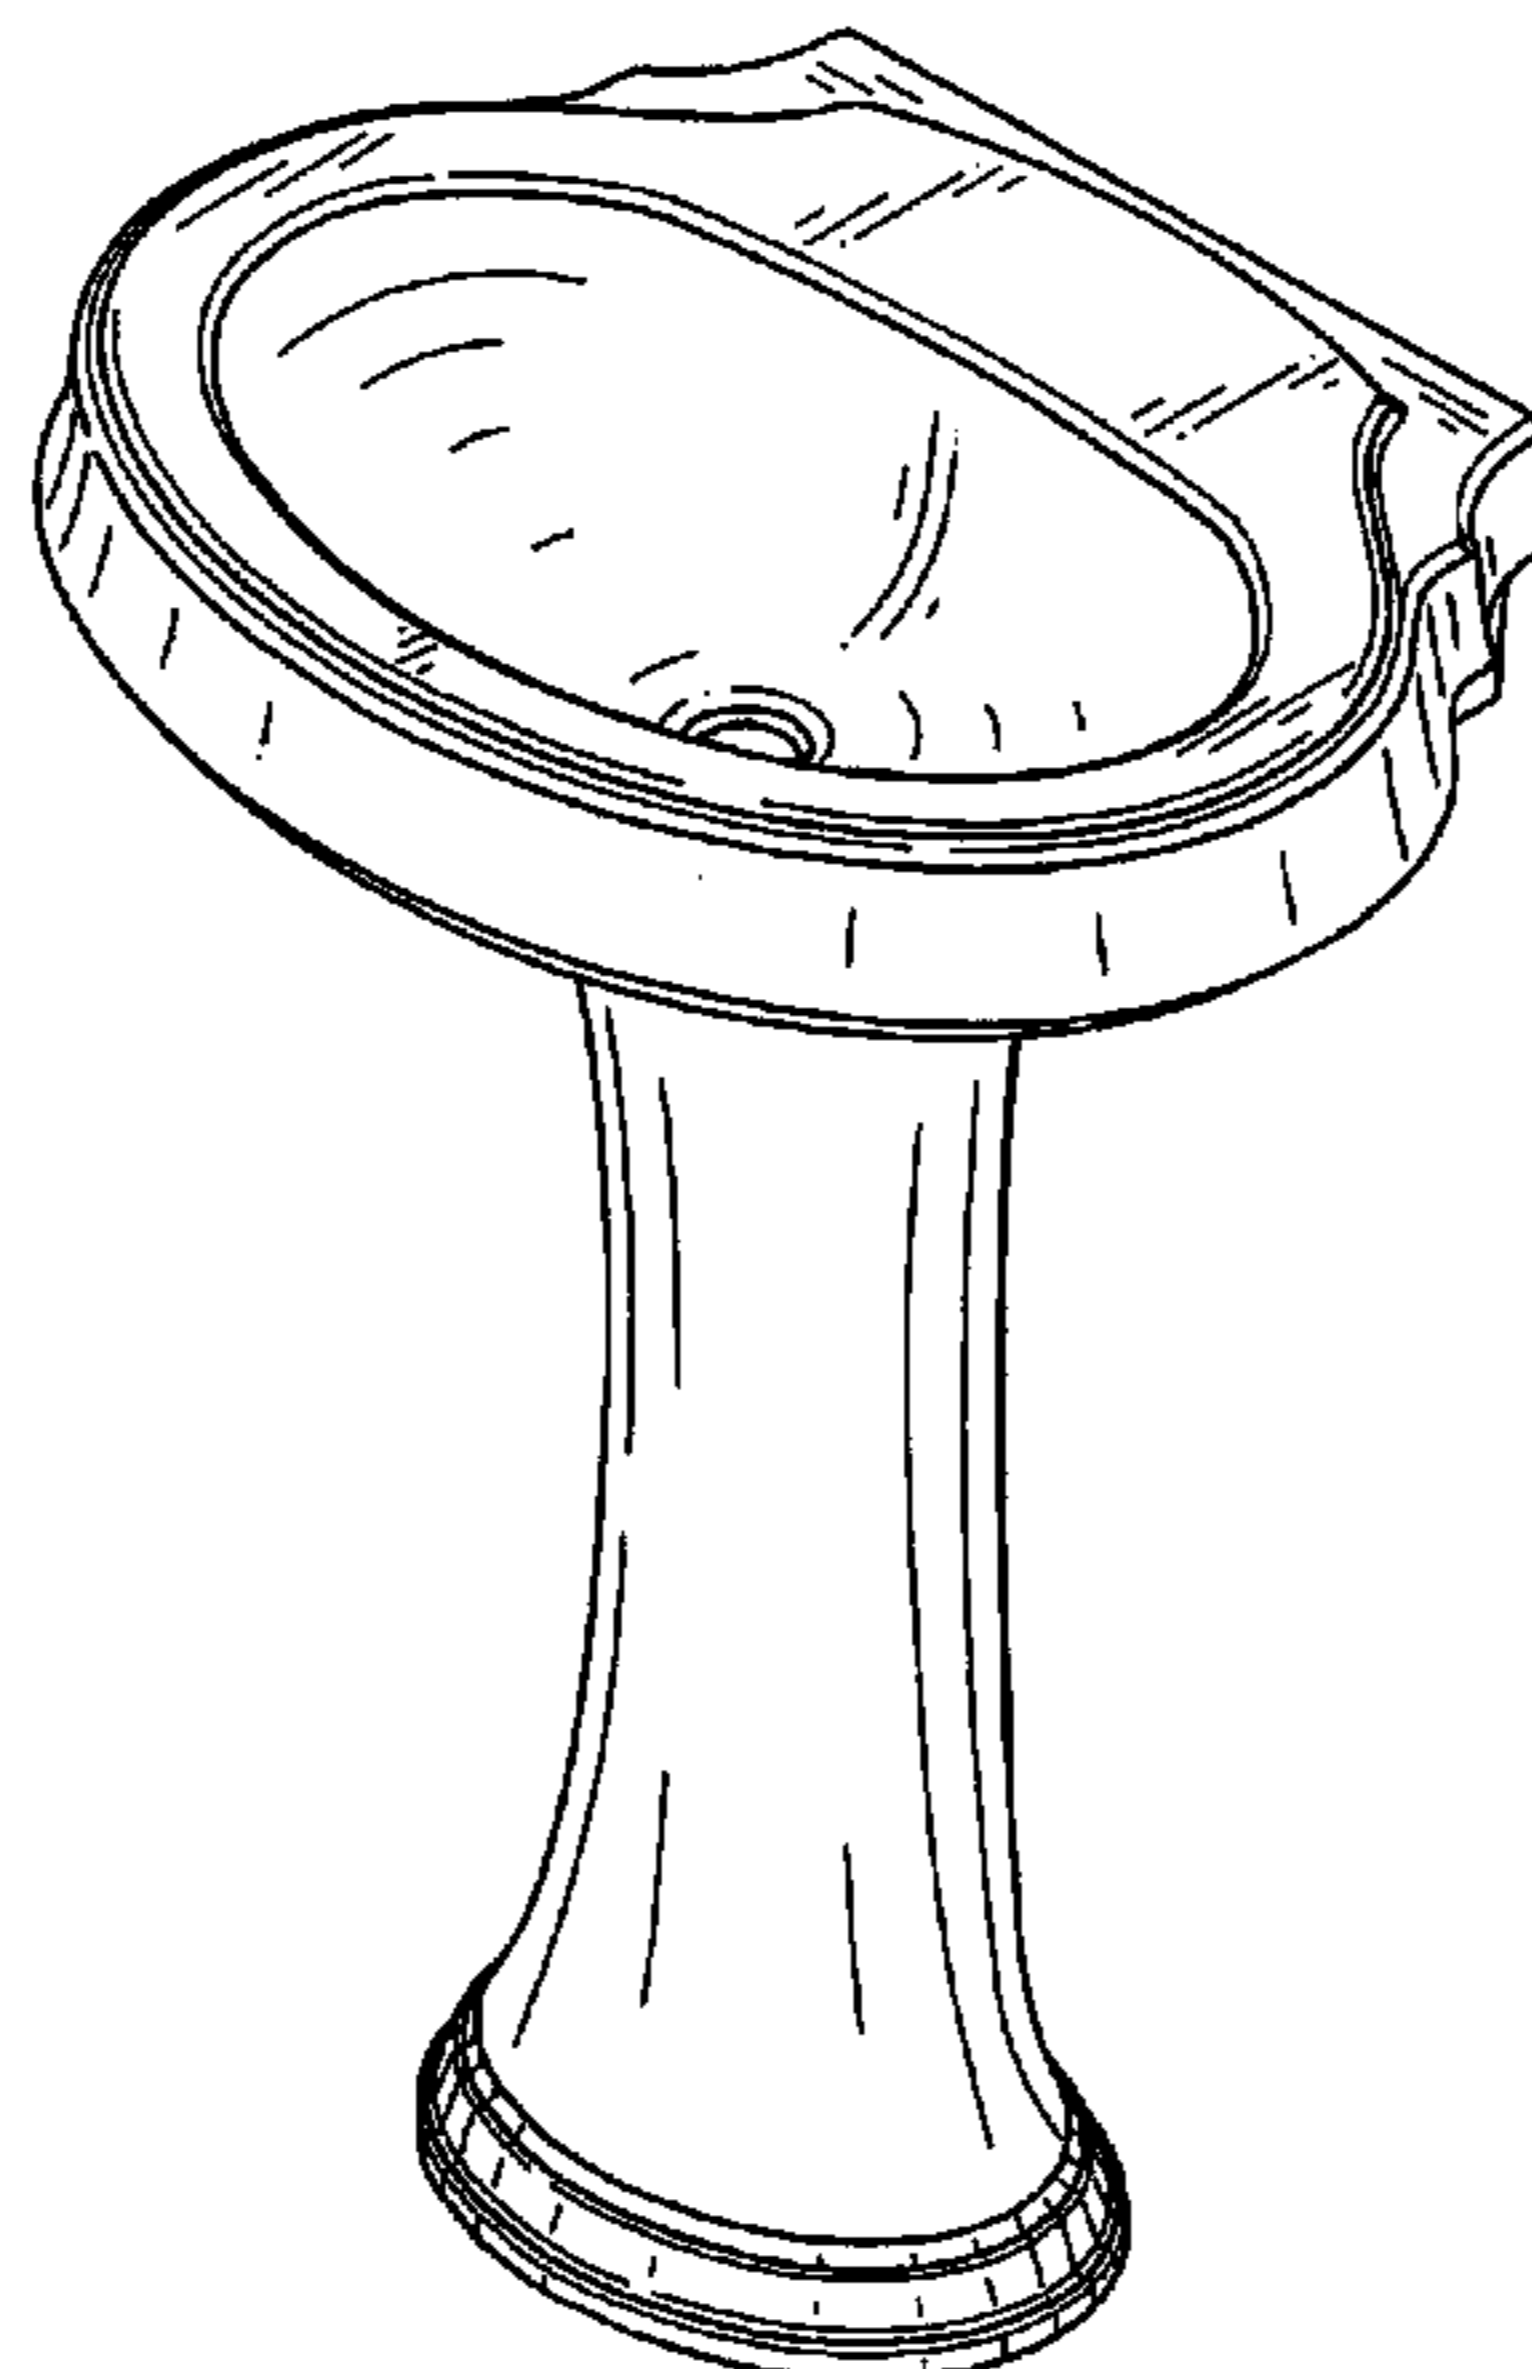

FIG. 9 is a top plan view thereof;

FIG. 11 is a rear elevational view thereof, the portions of which that are not visible when the lavatory rear abuts a solid room wall being shown for illustration only.

The broken line representation of mounting holes in FIG. 3 is for the purpose of illustration only and forms no part of the claimed design. The broken lines representations of a surrounding apron in FIGS. 7–11 is intended to represent variable height section members of the apron which may vary in height from five percent to fifty percent of the overall width of the lavatory top.
