(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a liquid transfer funnel, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a liquid transfer funnel showing my new design. The funnel spout discharge hose, base plate and support rod are plain and unornamented. They are shown in phantom lines to clearly define the total apparatus but not part of the funnel design.

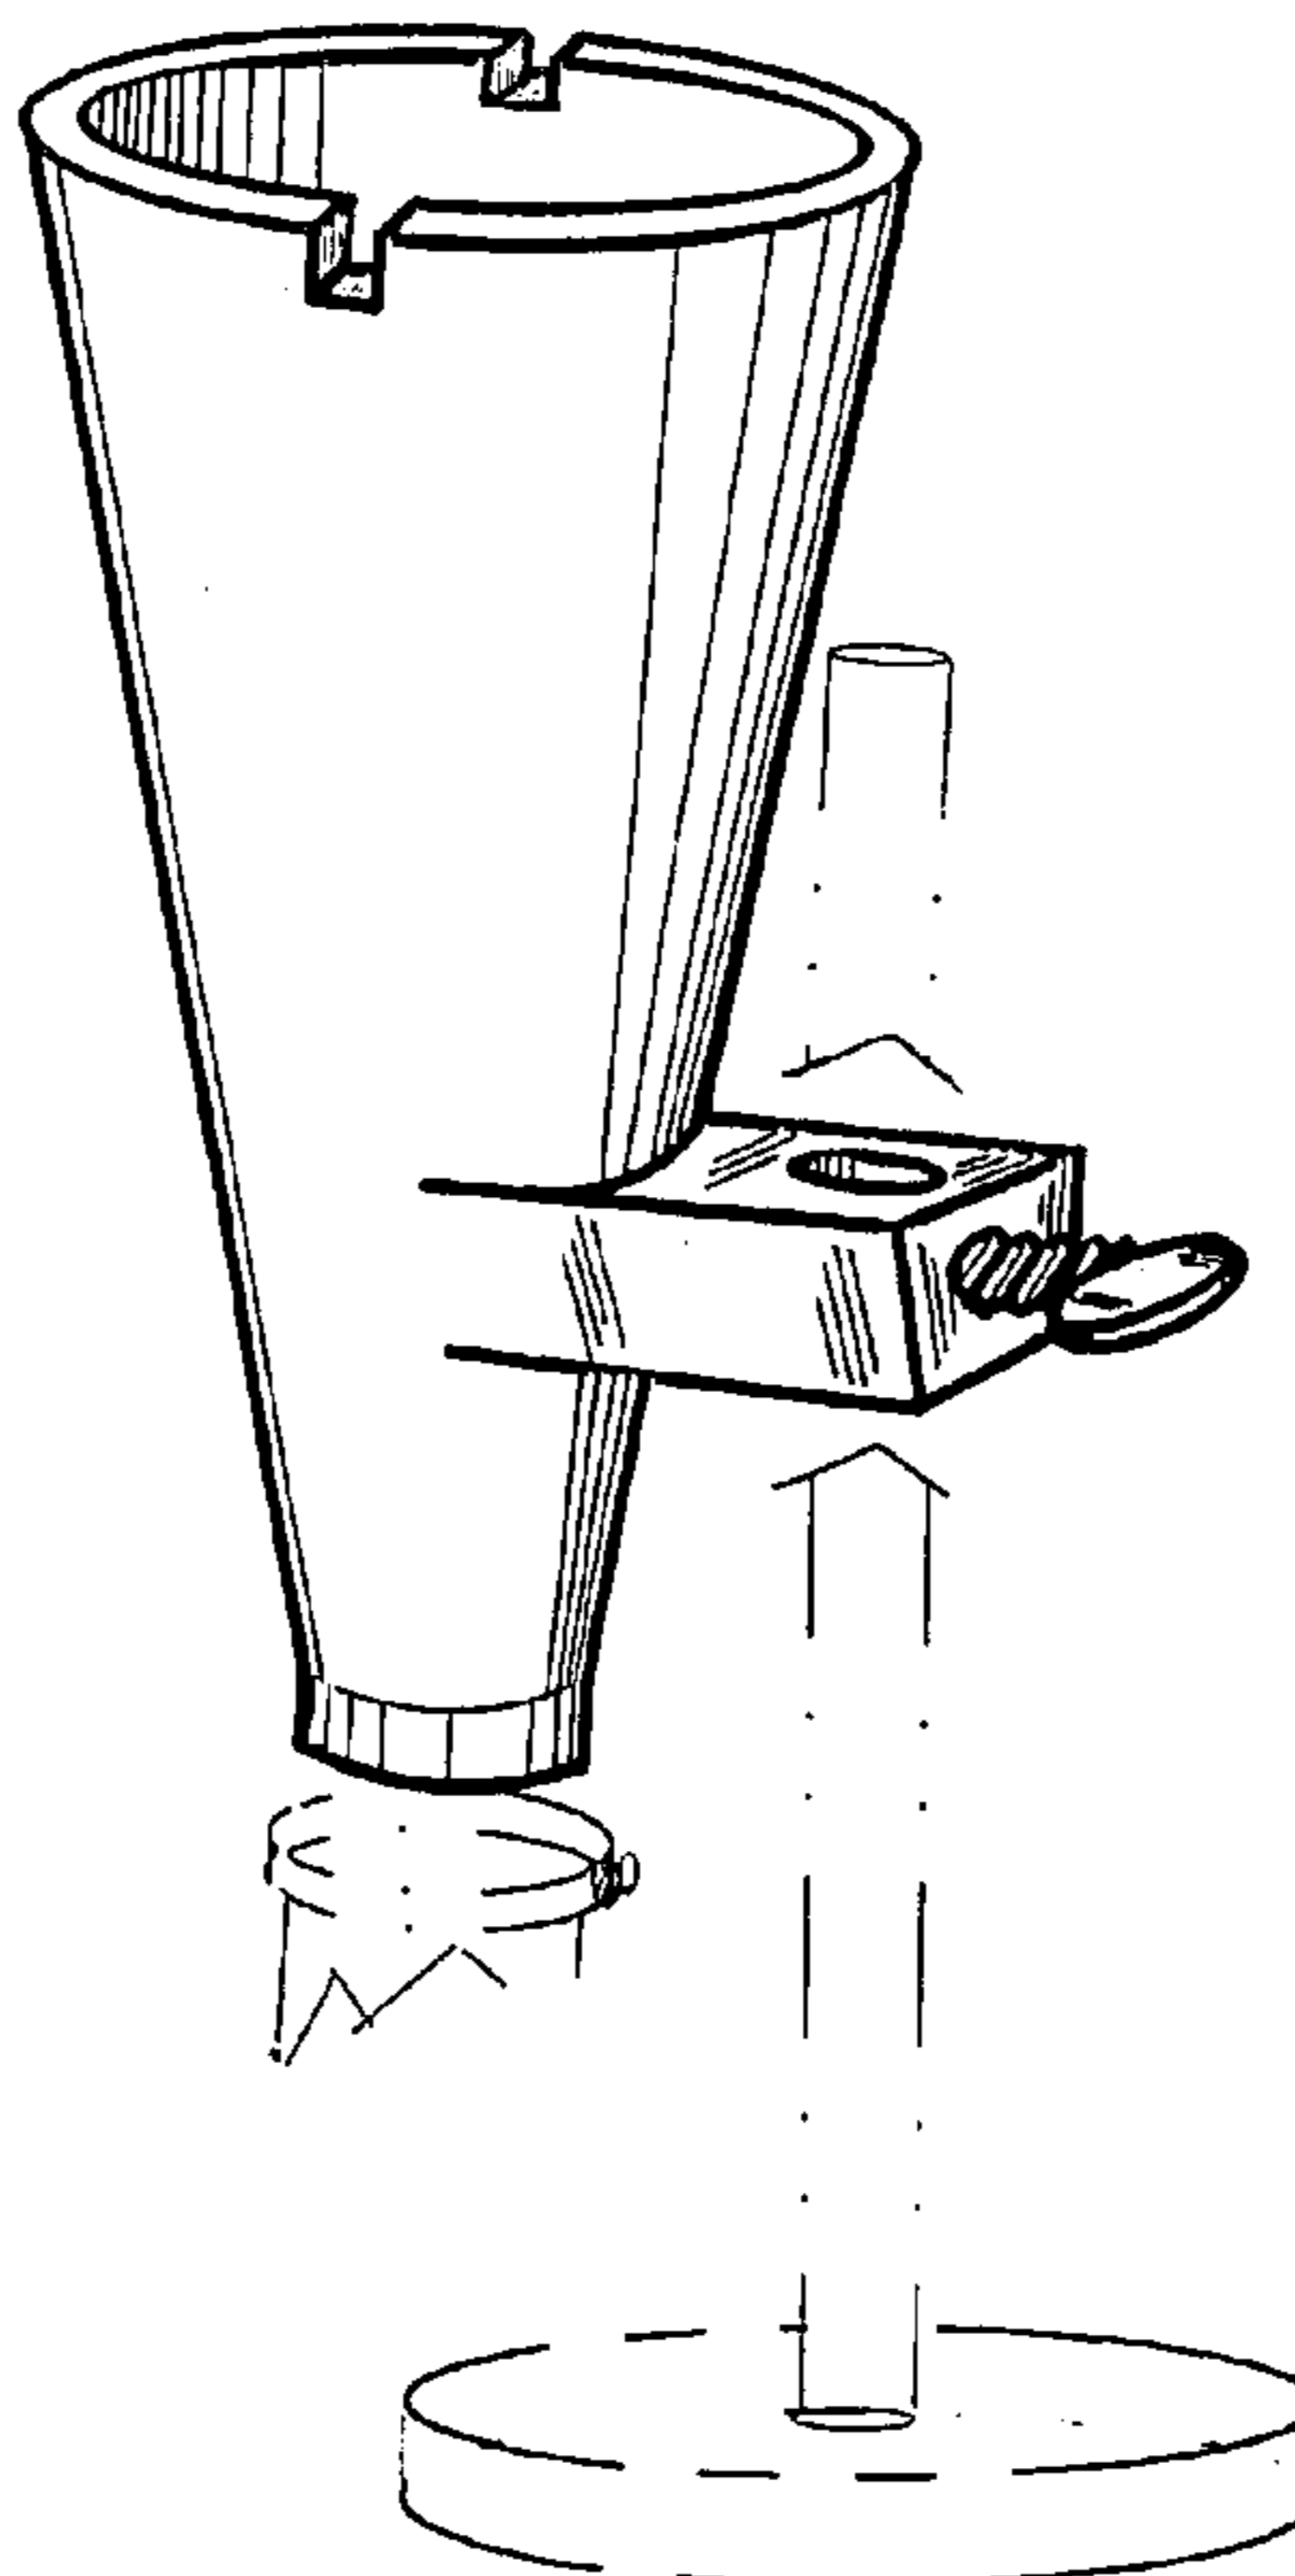

FIG. 2 is the front elevational view thereof. The rear view is plain and unornamented.

FIG. 3 is the right side elevational view thereof, the left side being a mirror image.

FIG. 4 is the bottom plan view thereof, the discharge hose, base plate and support rod are not shown; and,

FIG. 5 is the top plan view thereof, the discharge hose, base plate and support rod are not shown.
