(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a flower arrangement holder, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

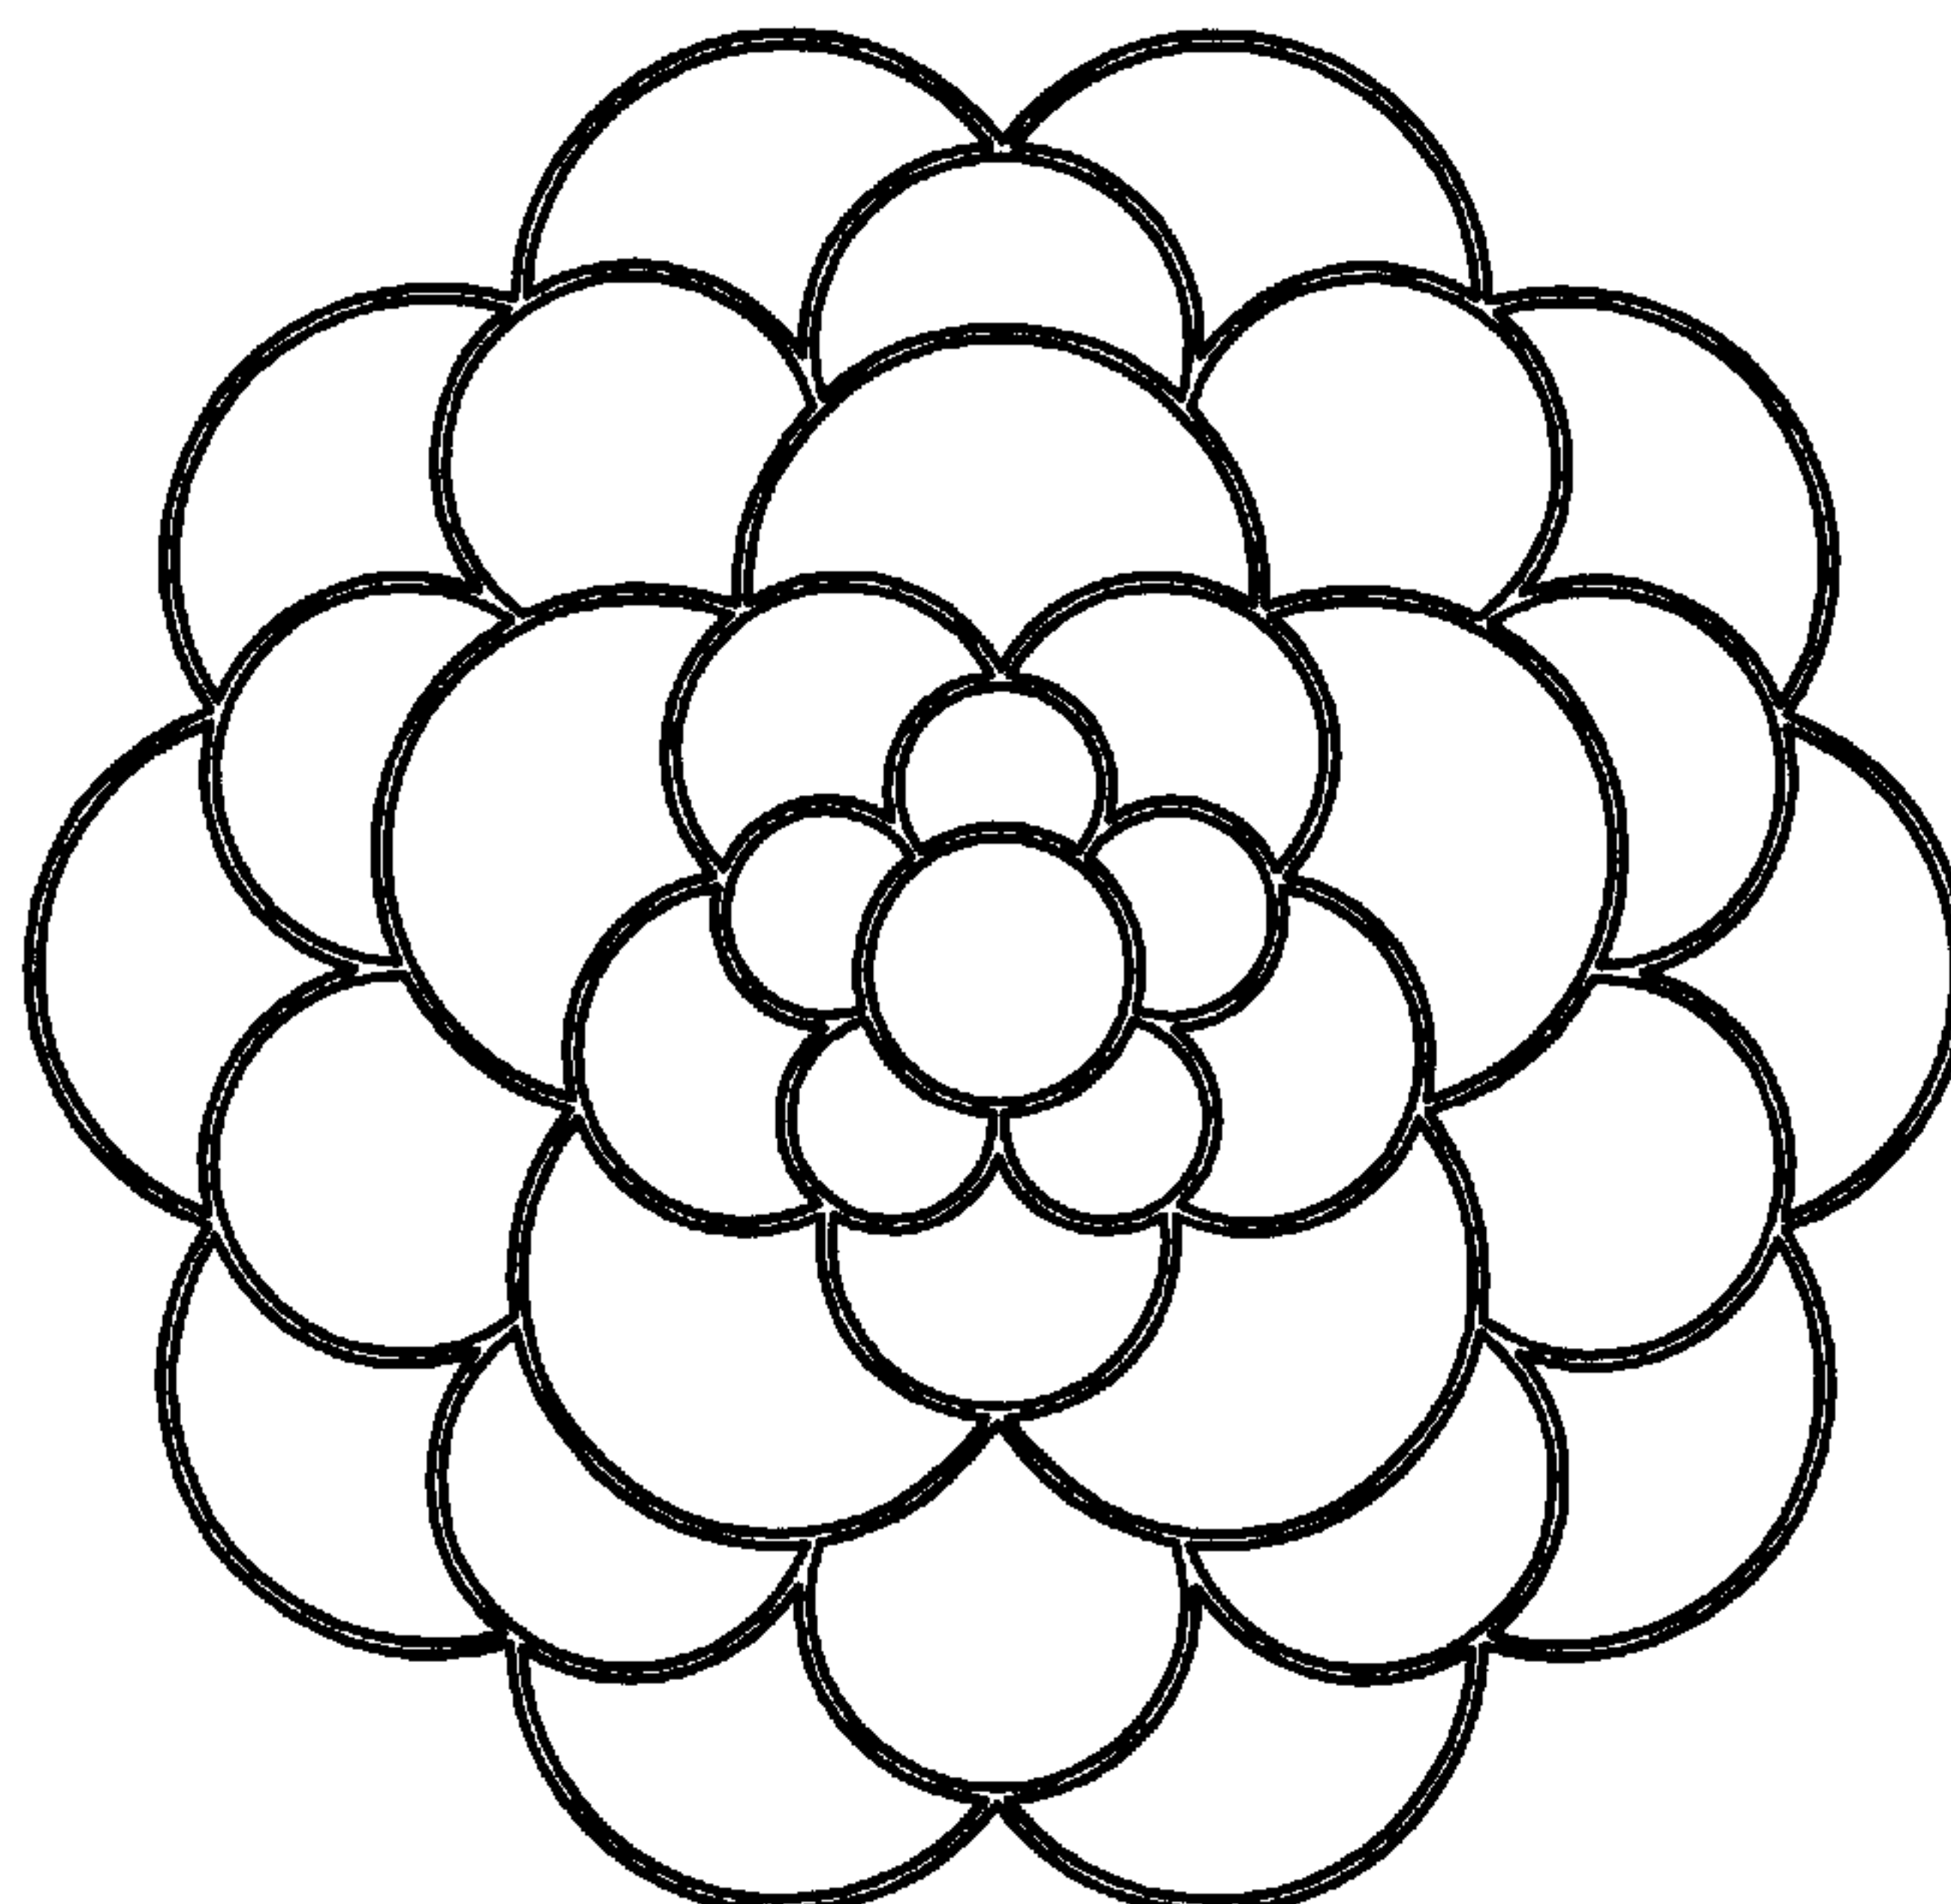

The design is for an ornamental arrangement holder. The holder may be placed on the top of a vase or other container. It has spaces through which flower, or other plant stems (natural or artificial) or other items may be disposed and to construct an arrangement of such flower or items with respect to the vase or other container. The holder may alternatively be placed on the vase or container alone, without flowers or other items. The holder may also be displayed alone, without a vase or container.
