Follow the Clues...Messages from the Angels

We are all children walking on the golden pathway to the sunlight. This is an educational game for all to teach and share the true meaning of life. As you walk on the golden pathway you will experience positive actions and deeds. When we switch our thinking, actions and deeds to that of fear and negativity our energy has the potential to slip and slide backwards. We tend to remain there until we learn our lessons.

The game board "Follow the Clues ...Messages from the Angels" is done in circles. There is no beginning and no end. For each one to reach our highest level we must go to the next dimension. We continue on our journey till we reach complete joy, inner peace and bliss. There are no winners or losers in the game. When the first player reaches his goal, he is obligated to go back and help another player on the board with his support and encouragement to reach his or her goal.

The game maybe played by 2-6 players. Recommended for children age 10 and up.

Step 1

The game begins as you walk the pathway to Inner Peace and step onto the space "Set the Intention for your Life's Flow." Before you move the spinner, you are to set your intention for your life and then begin on the journey with spinning the wheel. The object of the game is to reach the Sunlight.

Step 2

Spin the wheel and move your piece to the space indicated. If you land on an Angel space you must pick an angel card from the deck and read it out loud. Each card will identify a specific angel and its power and give you clues that will help you on your pathway through life. All of the 27 angels within the deck of cards have a unique mission assigned by the Mighty Universal Source. If you land on an action word you will follow the instructions in the "Words Description and Clues" pamphlet. Remember to always ask the angel to help you on your journey. They are always here to guide you, however, you must ask for their assistance.
PLEASE NOTE: It is your responsibility to remember the function of these angels, follow the clues and recall them when needed throughout the game.

Step 3

If you land on the ladder, you are granted the blessing of climbing to the next level. If you land on a slide, you must go down the slide and begin to grow again from the point where you landed. You can, however, redeem yourself if you can make a positive affirmation to the angel who represents this attribute. If you cannot recall the angel by name, you can ask for help from one of your teammates. Like is a journey where we are continually asking for help along the way. If, however, no one on the board can recall the name, then you must stay at the space you slid down to and continue from that point. Throughout this game as throughout your life, it will benefit you to remember to ask for help in having the courage and strength to continue on your pathway.

Step 4

The game is over when all players reach the sunlight. If one player is successful in reaching the sunlight, he or she must become the helper for another on the board (you choose who you wish to help). Through positive reinforcement and encouragement, all the players will eventually reach the sunlight. To step into the sunlight, the player must land on the exact number on the spinner. The first player to reach the sunlight must stand and recite the poem that is on the sunlight card.

Sandalphon guides us through our life as we identify our fears and all that which prevents us from discovering our personal power...that is self-empowerment. Ask Angel Sandalphon to teach you how to let life flow smoothly...like a beautiful river. Don't force it...simply let it flow and all will come to you in its course.

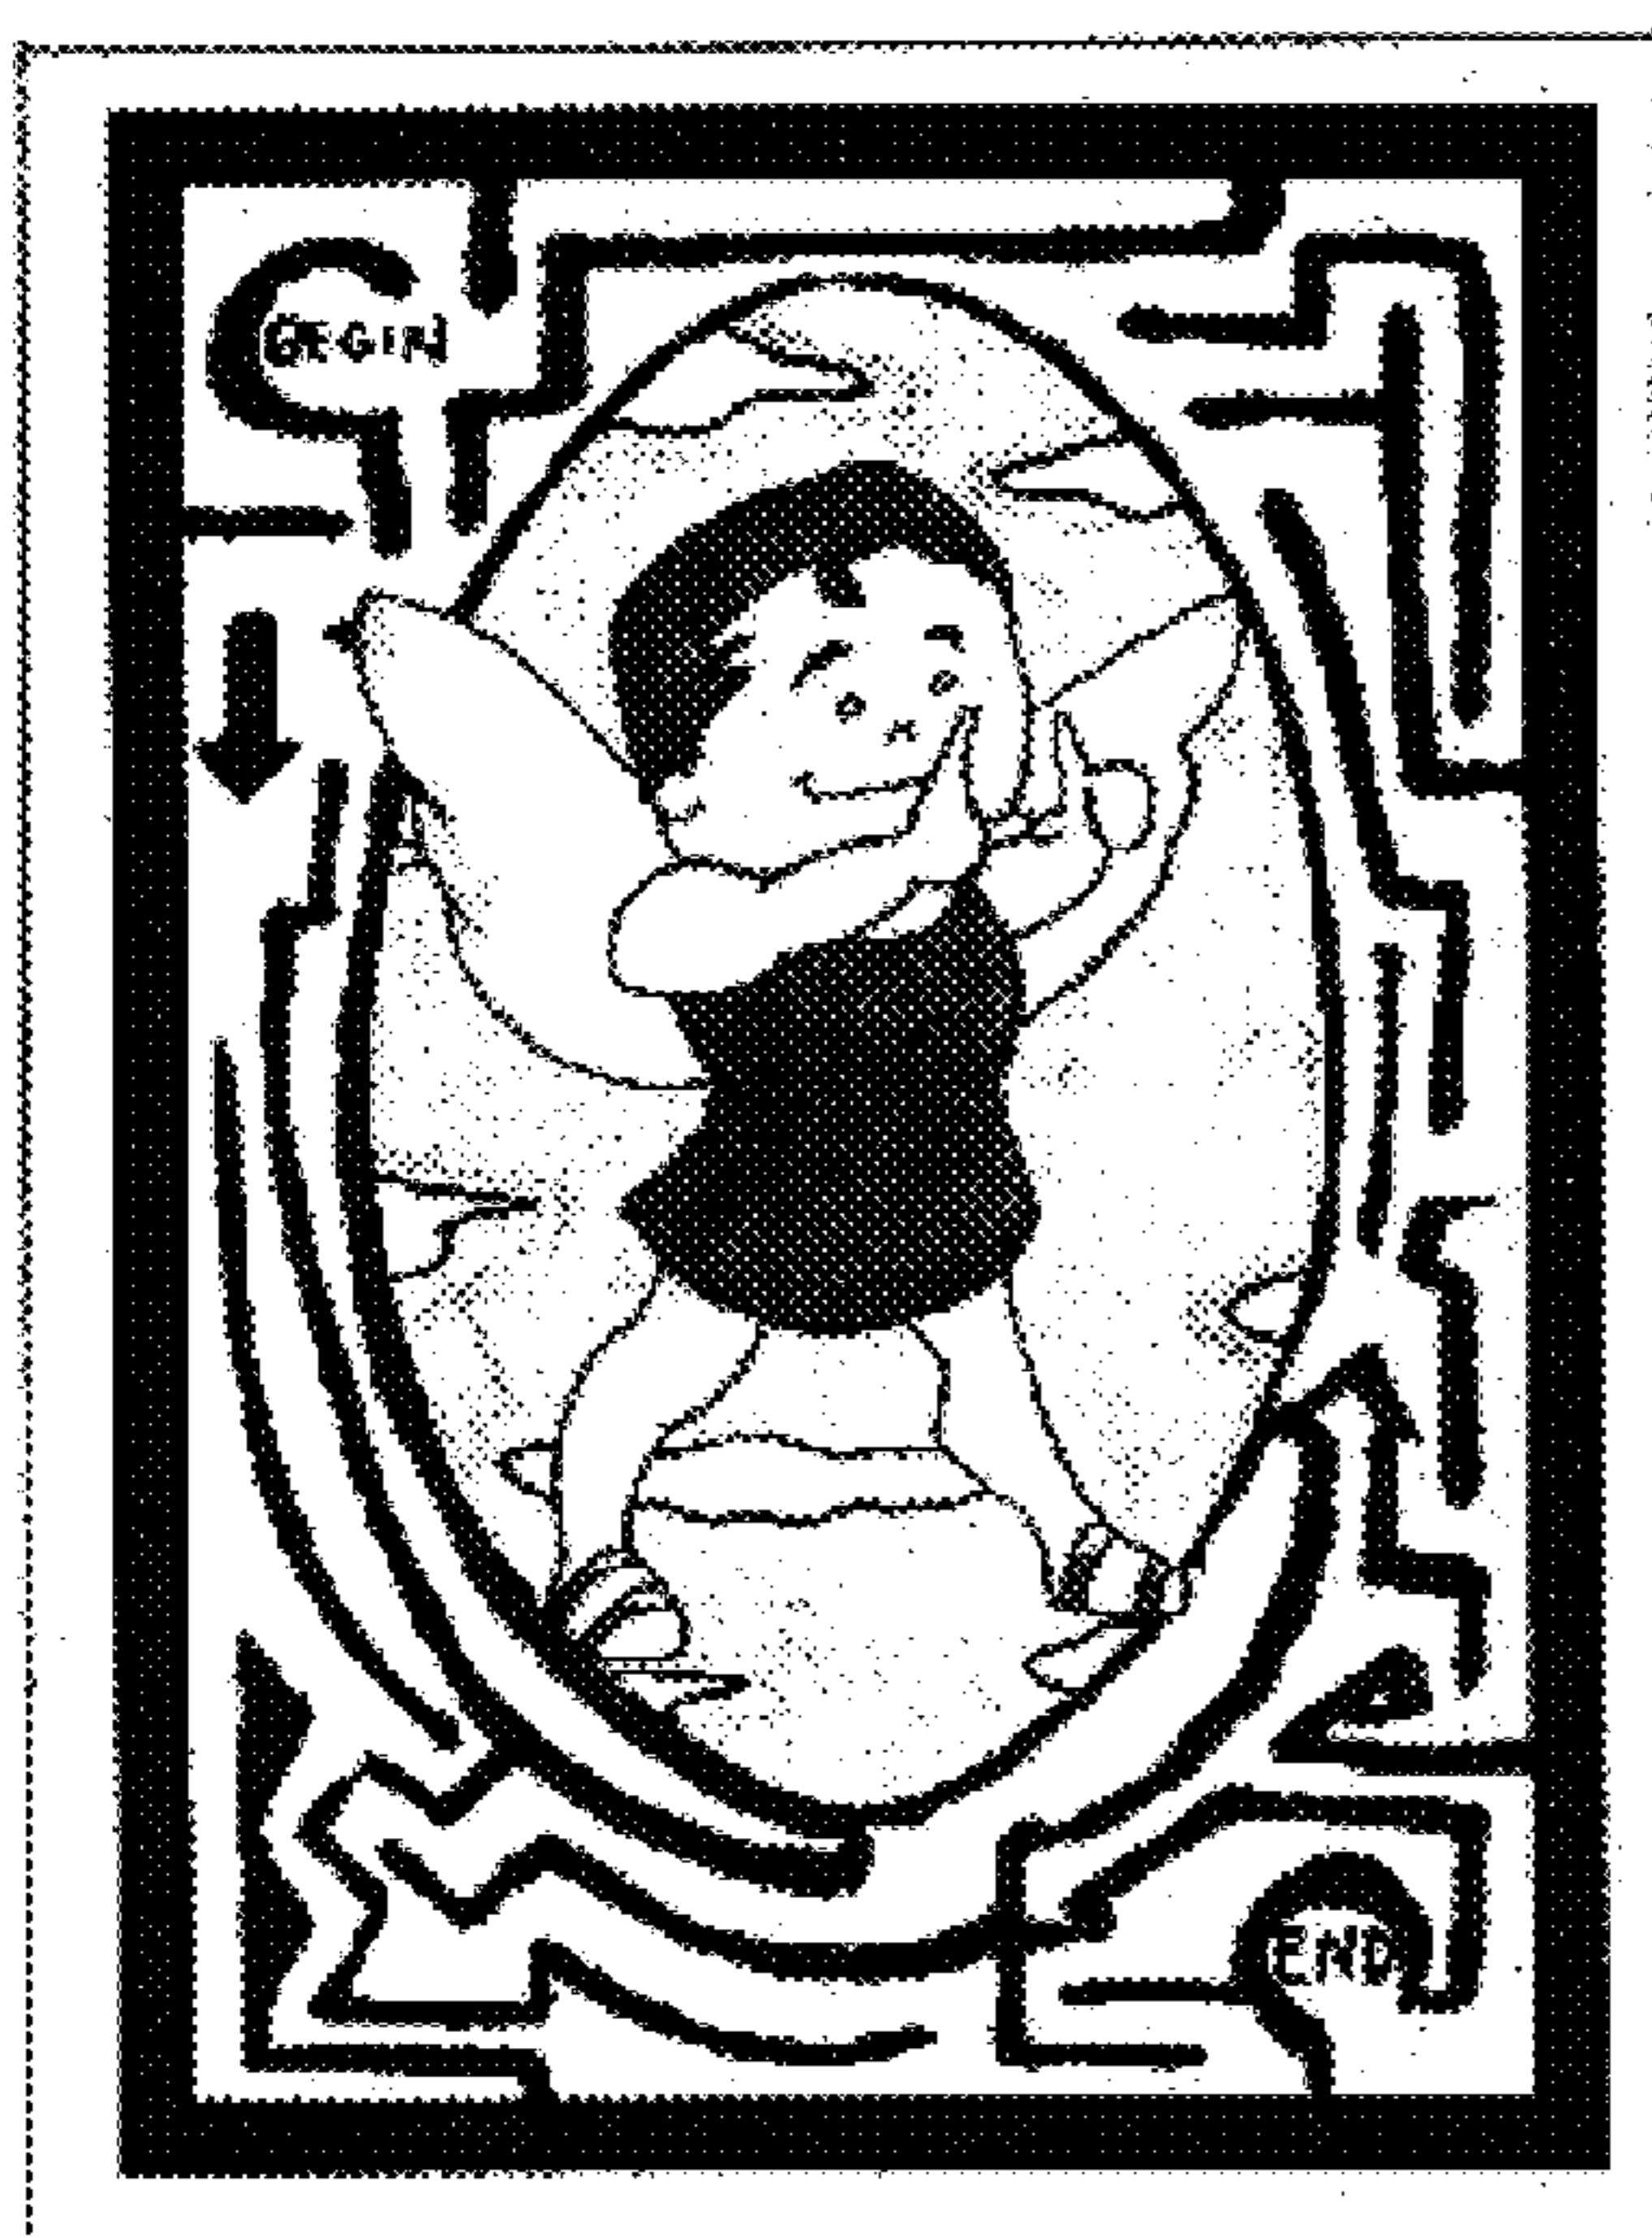

Figure 16

Angel Hadroniel

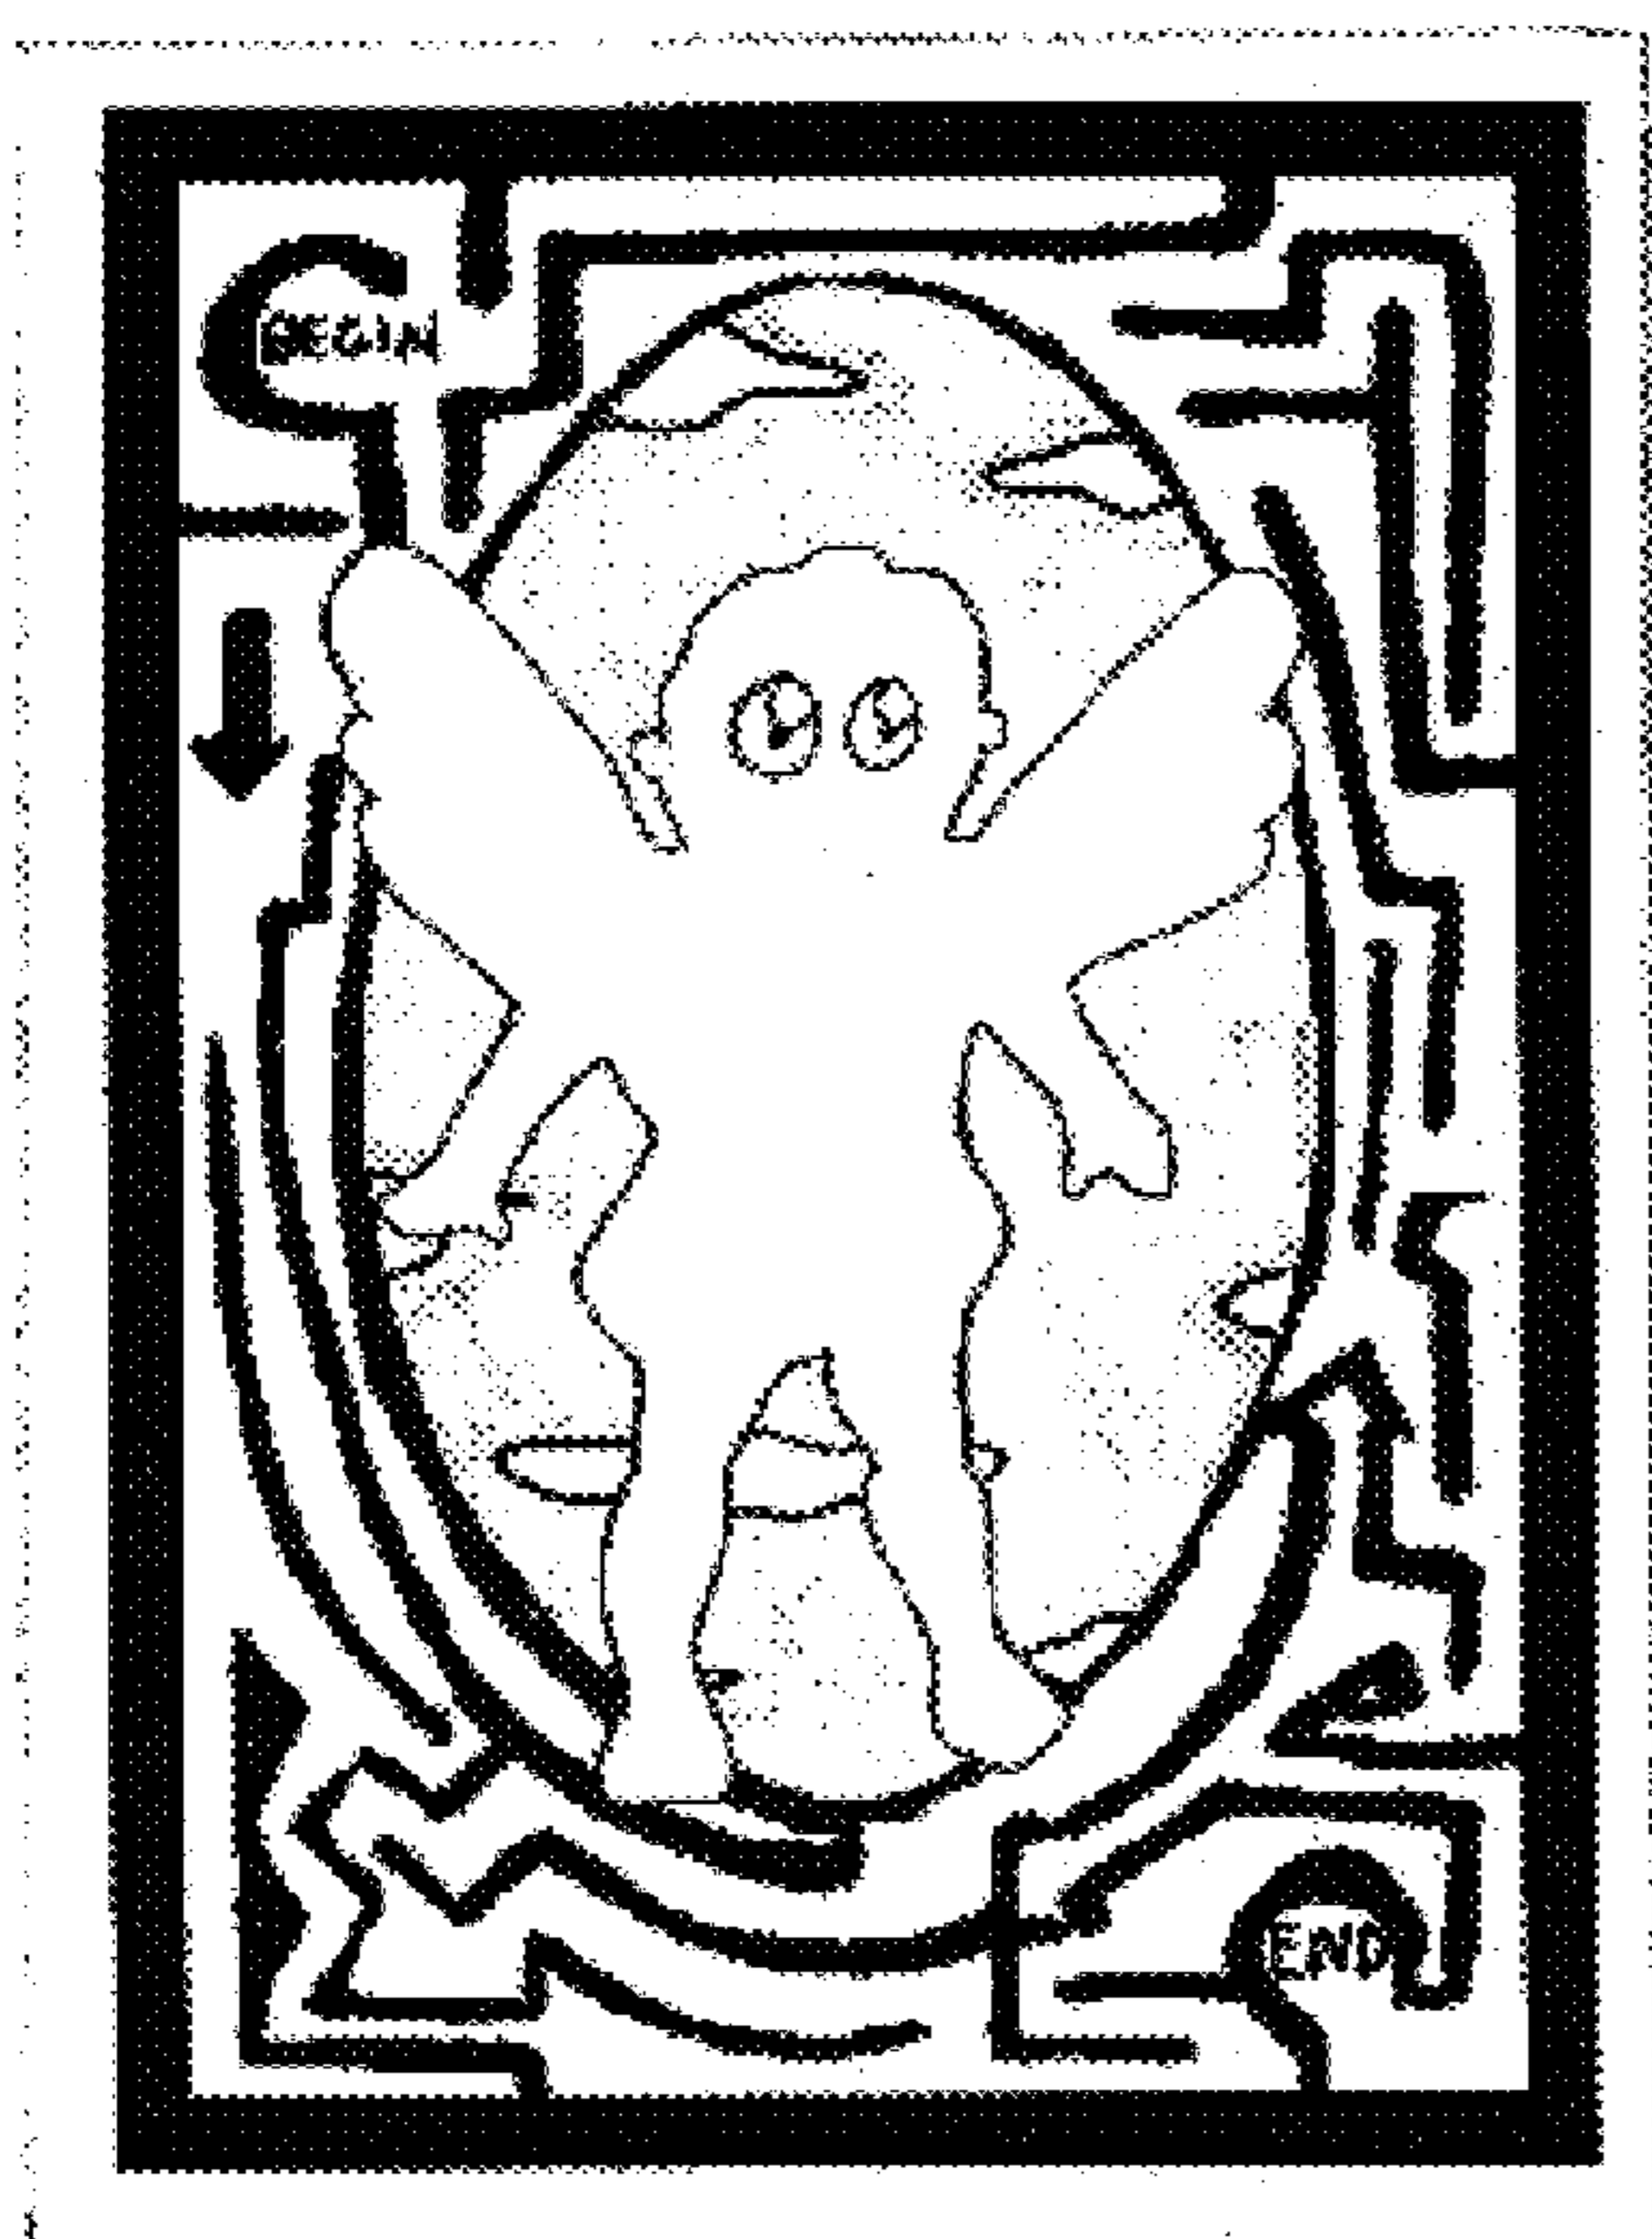

Figure 17

Angel Galgaliel
the Angel of vibration

Galgaliel has the ability of assisting when we feel blocked by emotions or negative feelings. Galgaliel helps us remove the barriers of extreme anger and entrapment. We are all energy and vibrations. Through our feelings we emit the vibration that we desire to be felt by those in our energy field. When we feel the freedom of our feelings, our energy flows like a beautiful river and this release is expressed with a burst of powerful energy and joy. When we constrict our feelings, we cause our energy to become blocked and subject to feelings of victim hood and martyrdom.

Temper these emotions with laughter and humor. Anger and rage are trapped emotions released in an unexpected way and time. Learn to acknowledge these emotions and bless them with love and gratitude. Once you acknowledge and address them, you will have the opportunity of releasing their negative energy and be filled with gratitude and love...the most powerful energy in the Universe. The heavenly angels sing in great unison when you choose divine mercy and compassion. Extremes of any kind are unhealthy. Ask Remiel for help.

Angel Amitiel

Have you ever felt as though your beliefs, thoughts or ideas were absolutely true... without a shadow of a doubt? Possibly it was Amitiel sending you signals of confirmation through your positive feelings and intense vibrational energies. When your heart feels open and good, accept this as a positive affirmation that what you are experiencing is good. If you get a check in your spirit, a growing feeling that causes you to question the vibration you are experiencing, then know that this is not for your highest and best good. As you accept and honor your true feelings, light and love will shine through and you will experience great joy and resolve.

Shekinak as guardian of the light helps us raise our consciousness to know and accept that we are fragments of the whole, the Mighty Universal Source and that the life force within us is the light. When we feel and acknowledge this light force within us we are experiencing serenity.

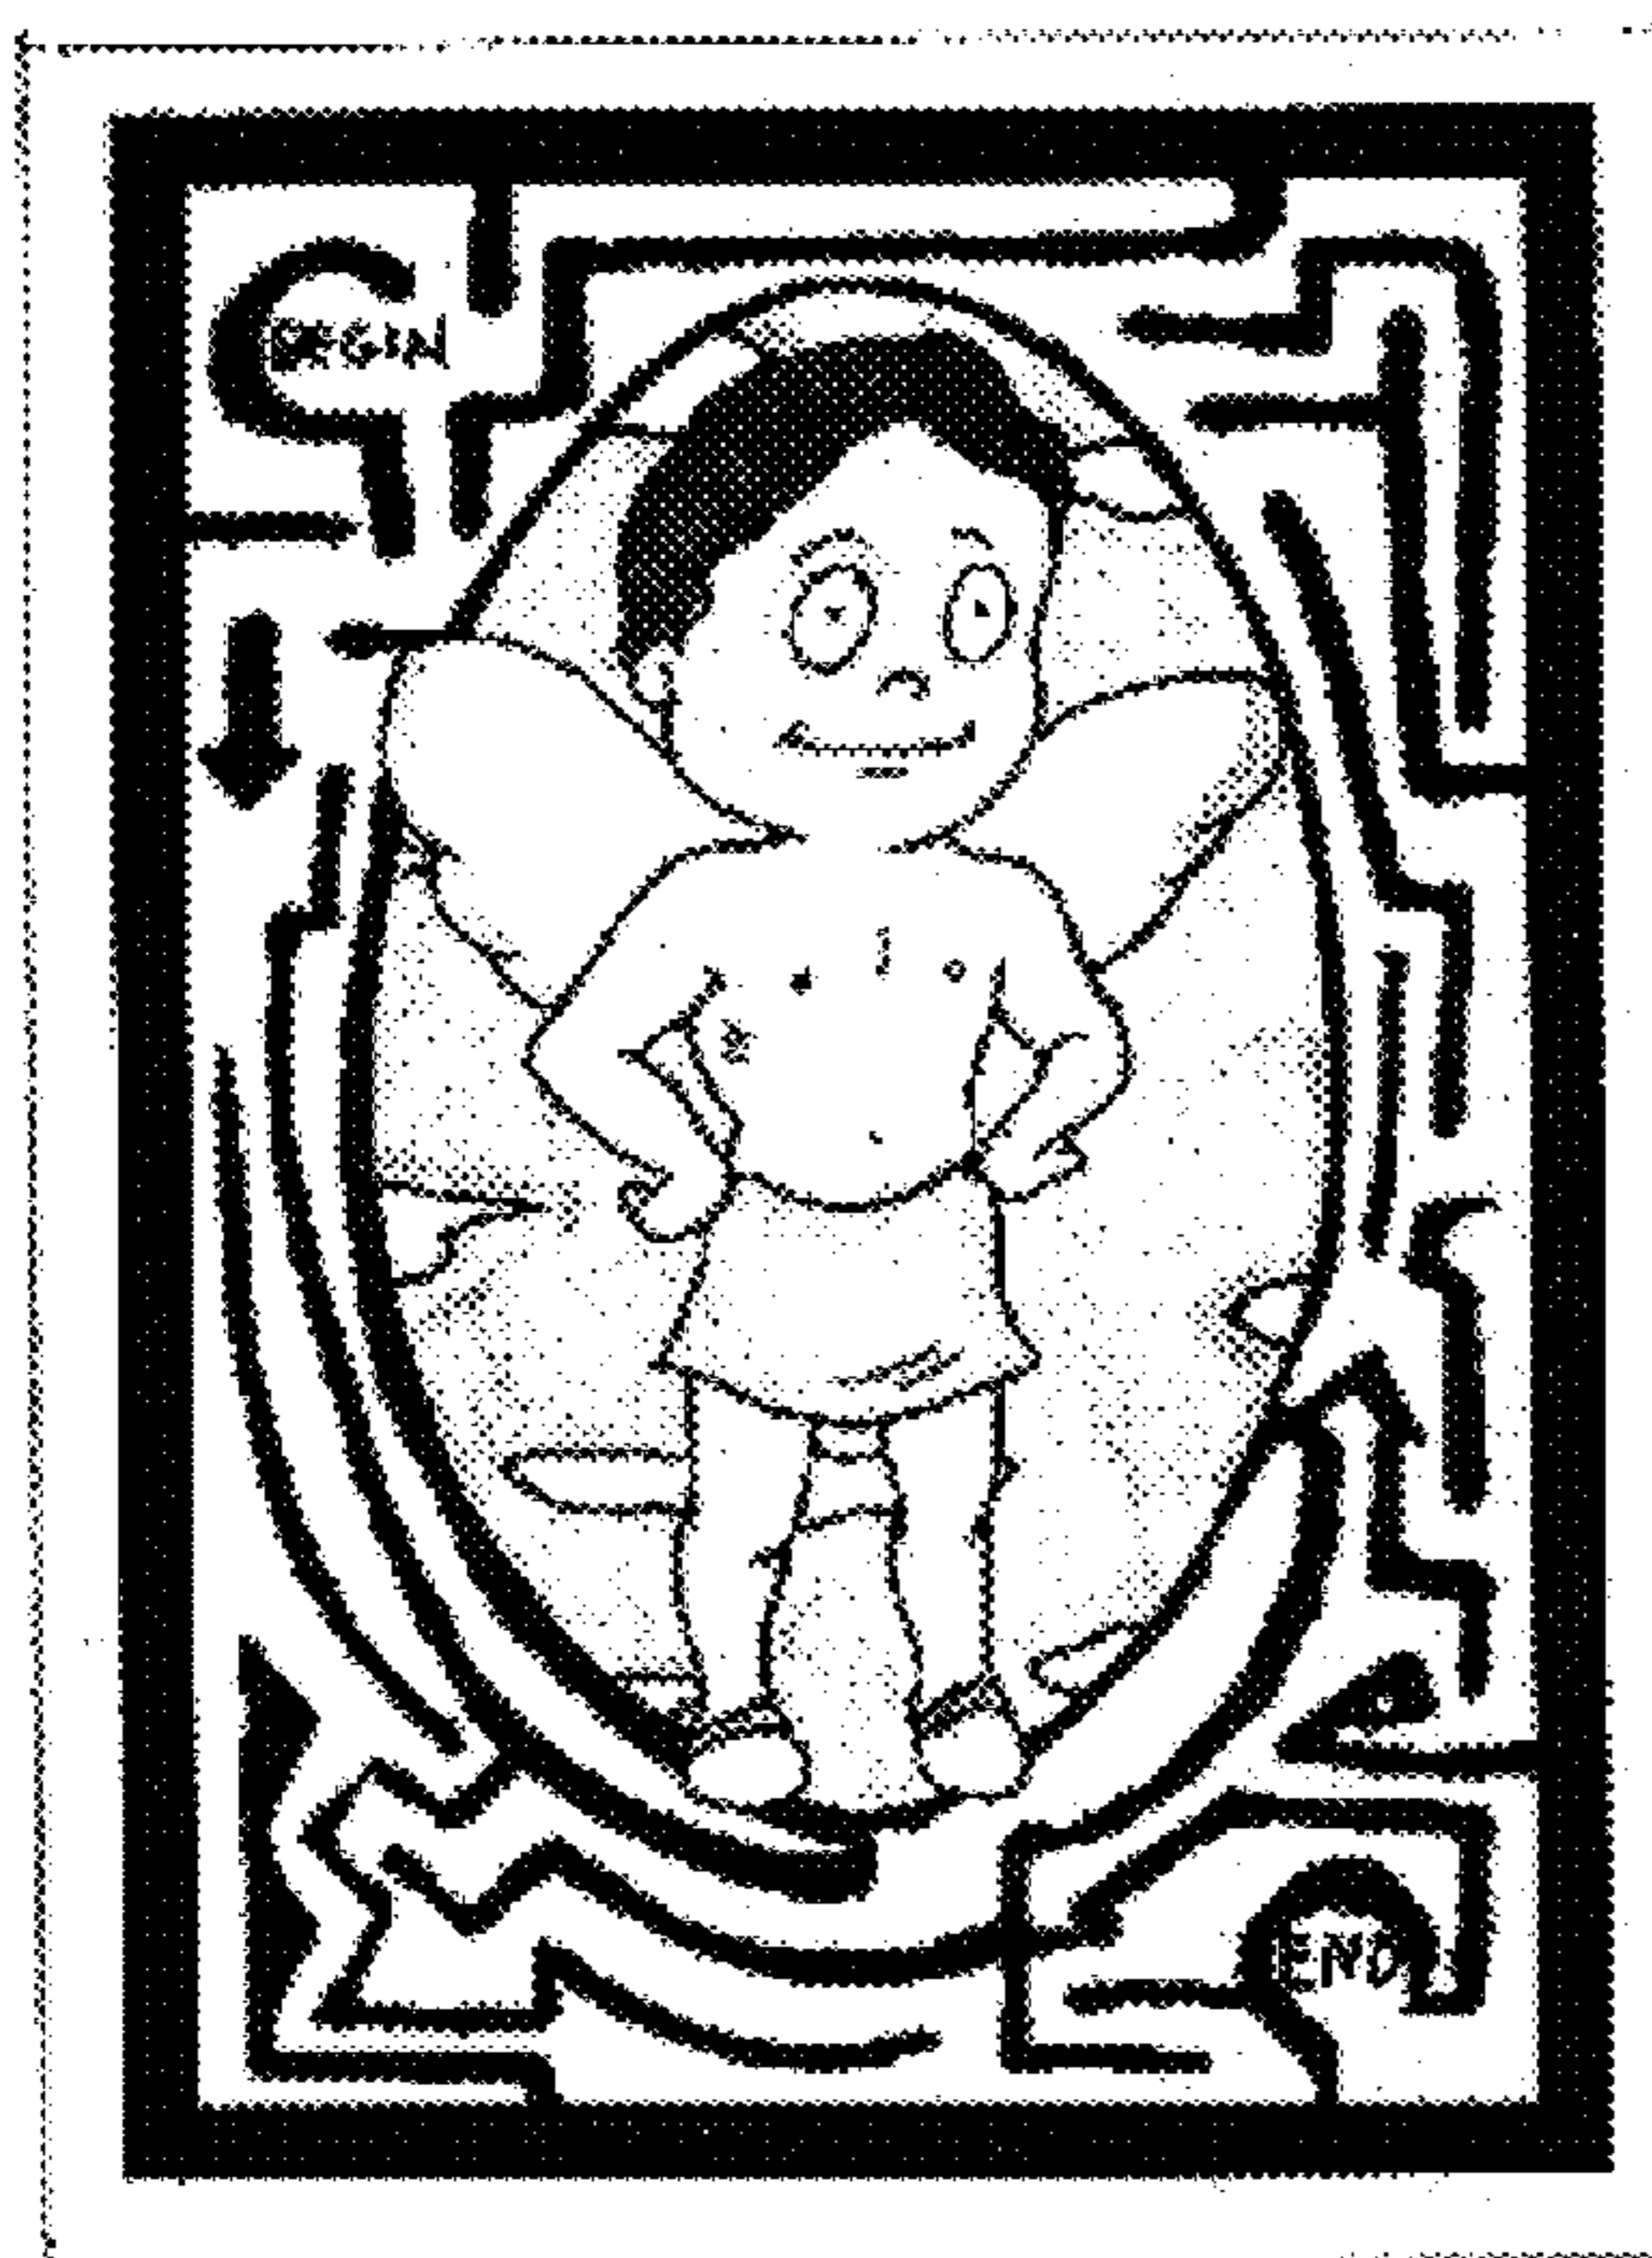

Figure 29

Angel Jamaerah (Ja May-Raw)
the Angel of manifestation

Jamaerah is responsible for helping us achieve our heart's desires by opening the space for our visions to manifest. Limiting thoughts and beliefs will sabotage your ability to manifest and attract that which you desire. You have the power to succeed within you and this power is doubly energized when you invoke Jamaerah and ask him to work with you in creating the life that you imagined.

Figure 30

Angel Iofiel (Eye-O-Fee-Ei)
the Angel of beauty

The beauty of God lies hidden within the form of our material world. Iofiel's mission is to help us look with new eyes, hear with new ears and feel with an open heart so that we can experience a new depth of beauty. When we look at others, look beyond the surface and connect to their eternal soul. By doing this we will start to create a new world order where we accept and acknowledge all creatures as beautiful and precious. To accomplish this mission, Iofiel is helping us look at ourselves first. Examine your physical appearance and see its beauty...examine your home, your car, your personal possessions, your family, your environment and begin to see the rich beauty that is your birthright. Enjoy it, respect and honor it.
