(57) CLAIM

We claim the ornamental design for a camouflage pattern applied to material, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

The sole FIGURE is a top plan view of a camouflage pattern applied to material, showing our new design.

The broken lines at the outer perimeter depict the material to which the camouflage pattern is applied, as well as one repeating unit of the camouflage pattern, and form no part of the claimed design. The camouflage pattern continues indefinitely in one or more directions.
