We claim the ornamental design for a hockey glove, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top, side, front perspective view of the hockey glove according to the present design;

FIG. 2 is a top, side perspective view of the hockey glove of
FIG. 1;

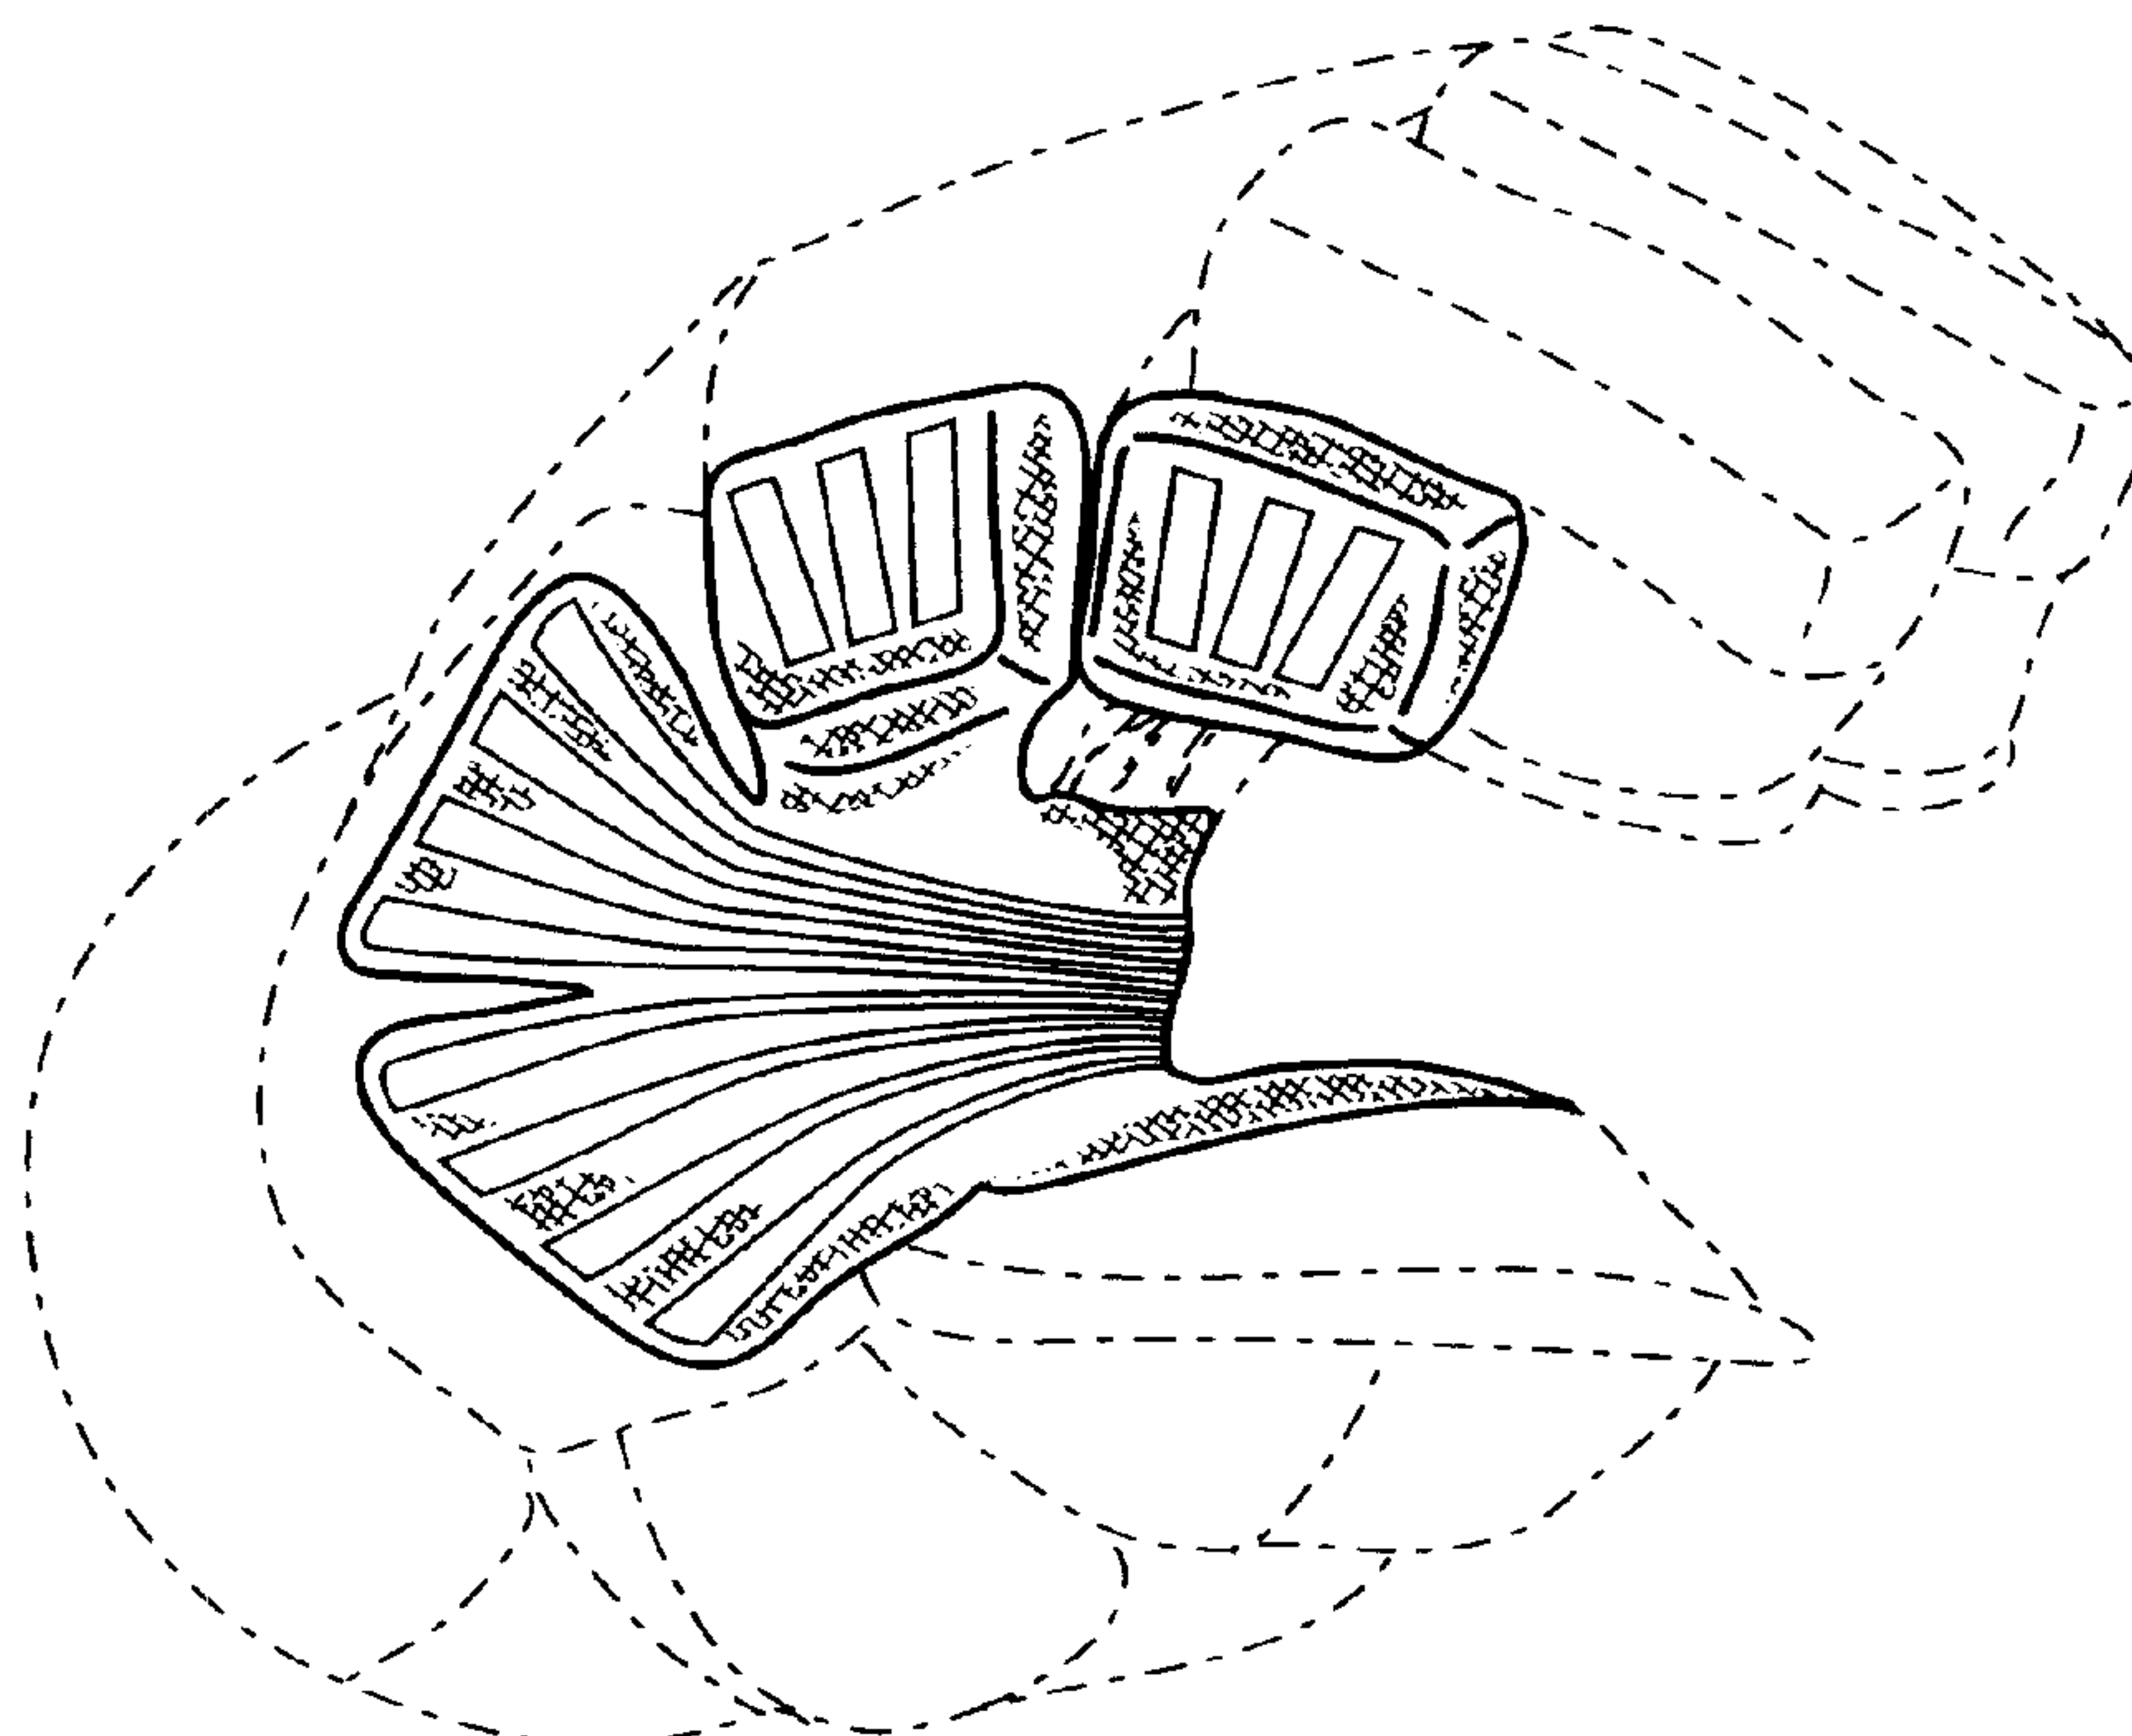

FIG. 3 is bottom perspective view of the hockey glove of
FIG. 1;

FIG. 4 is a side perspective view of the hockey glove of FIG.
1; and,

FIG. 5 is front perspective view of the hockey glove of FIG.
1.

The design consists of a hockey glove having a palm portion covering the palm and extending over a portion of the glove side at the junction between the index finger and the thumb and over the first side pads of the index finger. The edge of the palm portion follows a V at the junction between the index finger and the thumb. The hockey glove further shows an overlay covering the second side pads of the index finger, this overlay showing three rectangular indents. The palm portion also shows a plurality of longitudinal indents extending transversely over the palm portion and three rectangular indents on its part extending over the first side pads of the index finger. The broken lines form no part of the design and are for illustrative purposes only. In addition, shading are provided for illustrative purposes only, and do not form any
