(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a binocular housing and user interface, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 2 is a plan view of the binocular housing and user interface illustrating the left barrel, right barrel, and bridge in broken line and the claimed design of a housing and user interface in solid line;

FIG. 4 is a rear view of the binocular housing and user interface illustrating the left barrel, right barrel, and bridge in broken line and the claimed design of a housing and user interface in solid line; and,

The broken lines are included for the purpose of illustration and form no part of the claimed design.
