DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a rear perspective view of the device for dispensing volatile liquids according to invention principles;

FIG. 2 is a front perspective view of the device for dispensing volatile liquids according to invention principles;

FIG. 3 is a front view of the device for dispensing volatile liquids according to invention principles;

FIG. 4 is a back view of the device for dispensing volatile liquids according to invention principles;

FIG. 5 is a right side view of the device for dispensing volatile liquids according to invention principles;

FIG. 6 is a left side view of the device for dispensing volatile liquids according to invention principles;

FIG. 7 is a top view of the device for dispensing volatile liquids according to invention principles; and,

FIG. 8 is a bottom view of the device for dispensing volatile liquids according to invention principles.
