(57) CLAIM

I claim the ornamental design for a modular mounting system for a wall hung device, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a modular mounting system embodying aspects of the invention.

FIG. 2 is a front view of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 1.

FIG. 3 is a side view of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 1.

FIG. 4 is a top view of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 1.

FIG. 5 is a front view of a modular mounting system embodying the aspects of the invention.

FIG. 6 is a second component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 1;

FIG. 7 is a rear view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 6.

FIG. 8 is a side view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 6.

FIG. 9 is a third component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 1;

FIG. 10 is a rear view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 9.

FIG. 11 is a side view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 9.

FIG. 12 is a fourth component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 1;

FIG. 13 is a rear view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 12.

FIG. 14 is a side view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 12.

FIG. 15 is a fifth component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 1;

FIG. 16 is a rear view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 15.

FIG. 17 is a side view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 15.

FIG. 18 is a sixth component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 1;

FIG. 19 is a rear view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 18.

FIG. 20 is a side view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 18.

FIG. 21 is a seventh component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 1; and,

FIG. 22 is a side view of the component of the modular mounting system shown in FIG. 21.

The elements of the claimed design are shown separate for ease and clarity of illustration.
