(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for the article rack, as shown and described.

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of the article rack embodying the new design with a set number of repetitions;

FIG. 2 is a right elevational view thereof, the left elevational view being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 3 is a top plan view thereof;

FIG. 4 is a front elevational view thereof, the rear elevational view being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 5 is a perspective view of the article rack with a separation line to show indeterminate length and number of repetitions;

FIG. 6 is a right elevational view of the article rack in FIG. 5, the left elevational view being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 7 is a top plan view of the article rack in FIG. 5;

FIG. 8 is a front elevational view of the article rack in FIG. 5, the rear elevational view being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 9 is a perspective view of the article rack with a separation line to show indeterminate height and number of repetitions;

FIG. 10 is a right elevational view of the article rack in FIG. 9, the left elevational view being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 11 is a top plan view of the article rack in FIG. 9; and,

FIG. 12 is a front elevational view of the article rack in FIG. 9, the rear elevational view being a mirror image thereof.

The Figures show various support structures or attachment features of the article rack in phantom lines (illustrated in the Figures as dotted lines due to the small size of these features). These features are shown for environmental purposes and do not form any part of the claimed design.
