(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a flexible cutting line for rotary trimmers, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

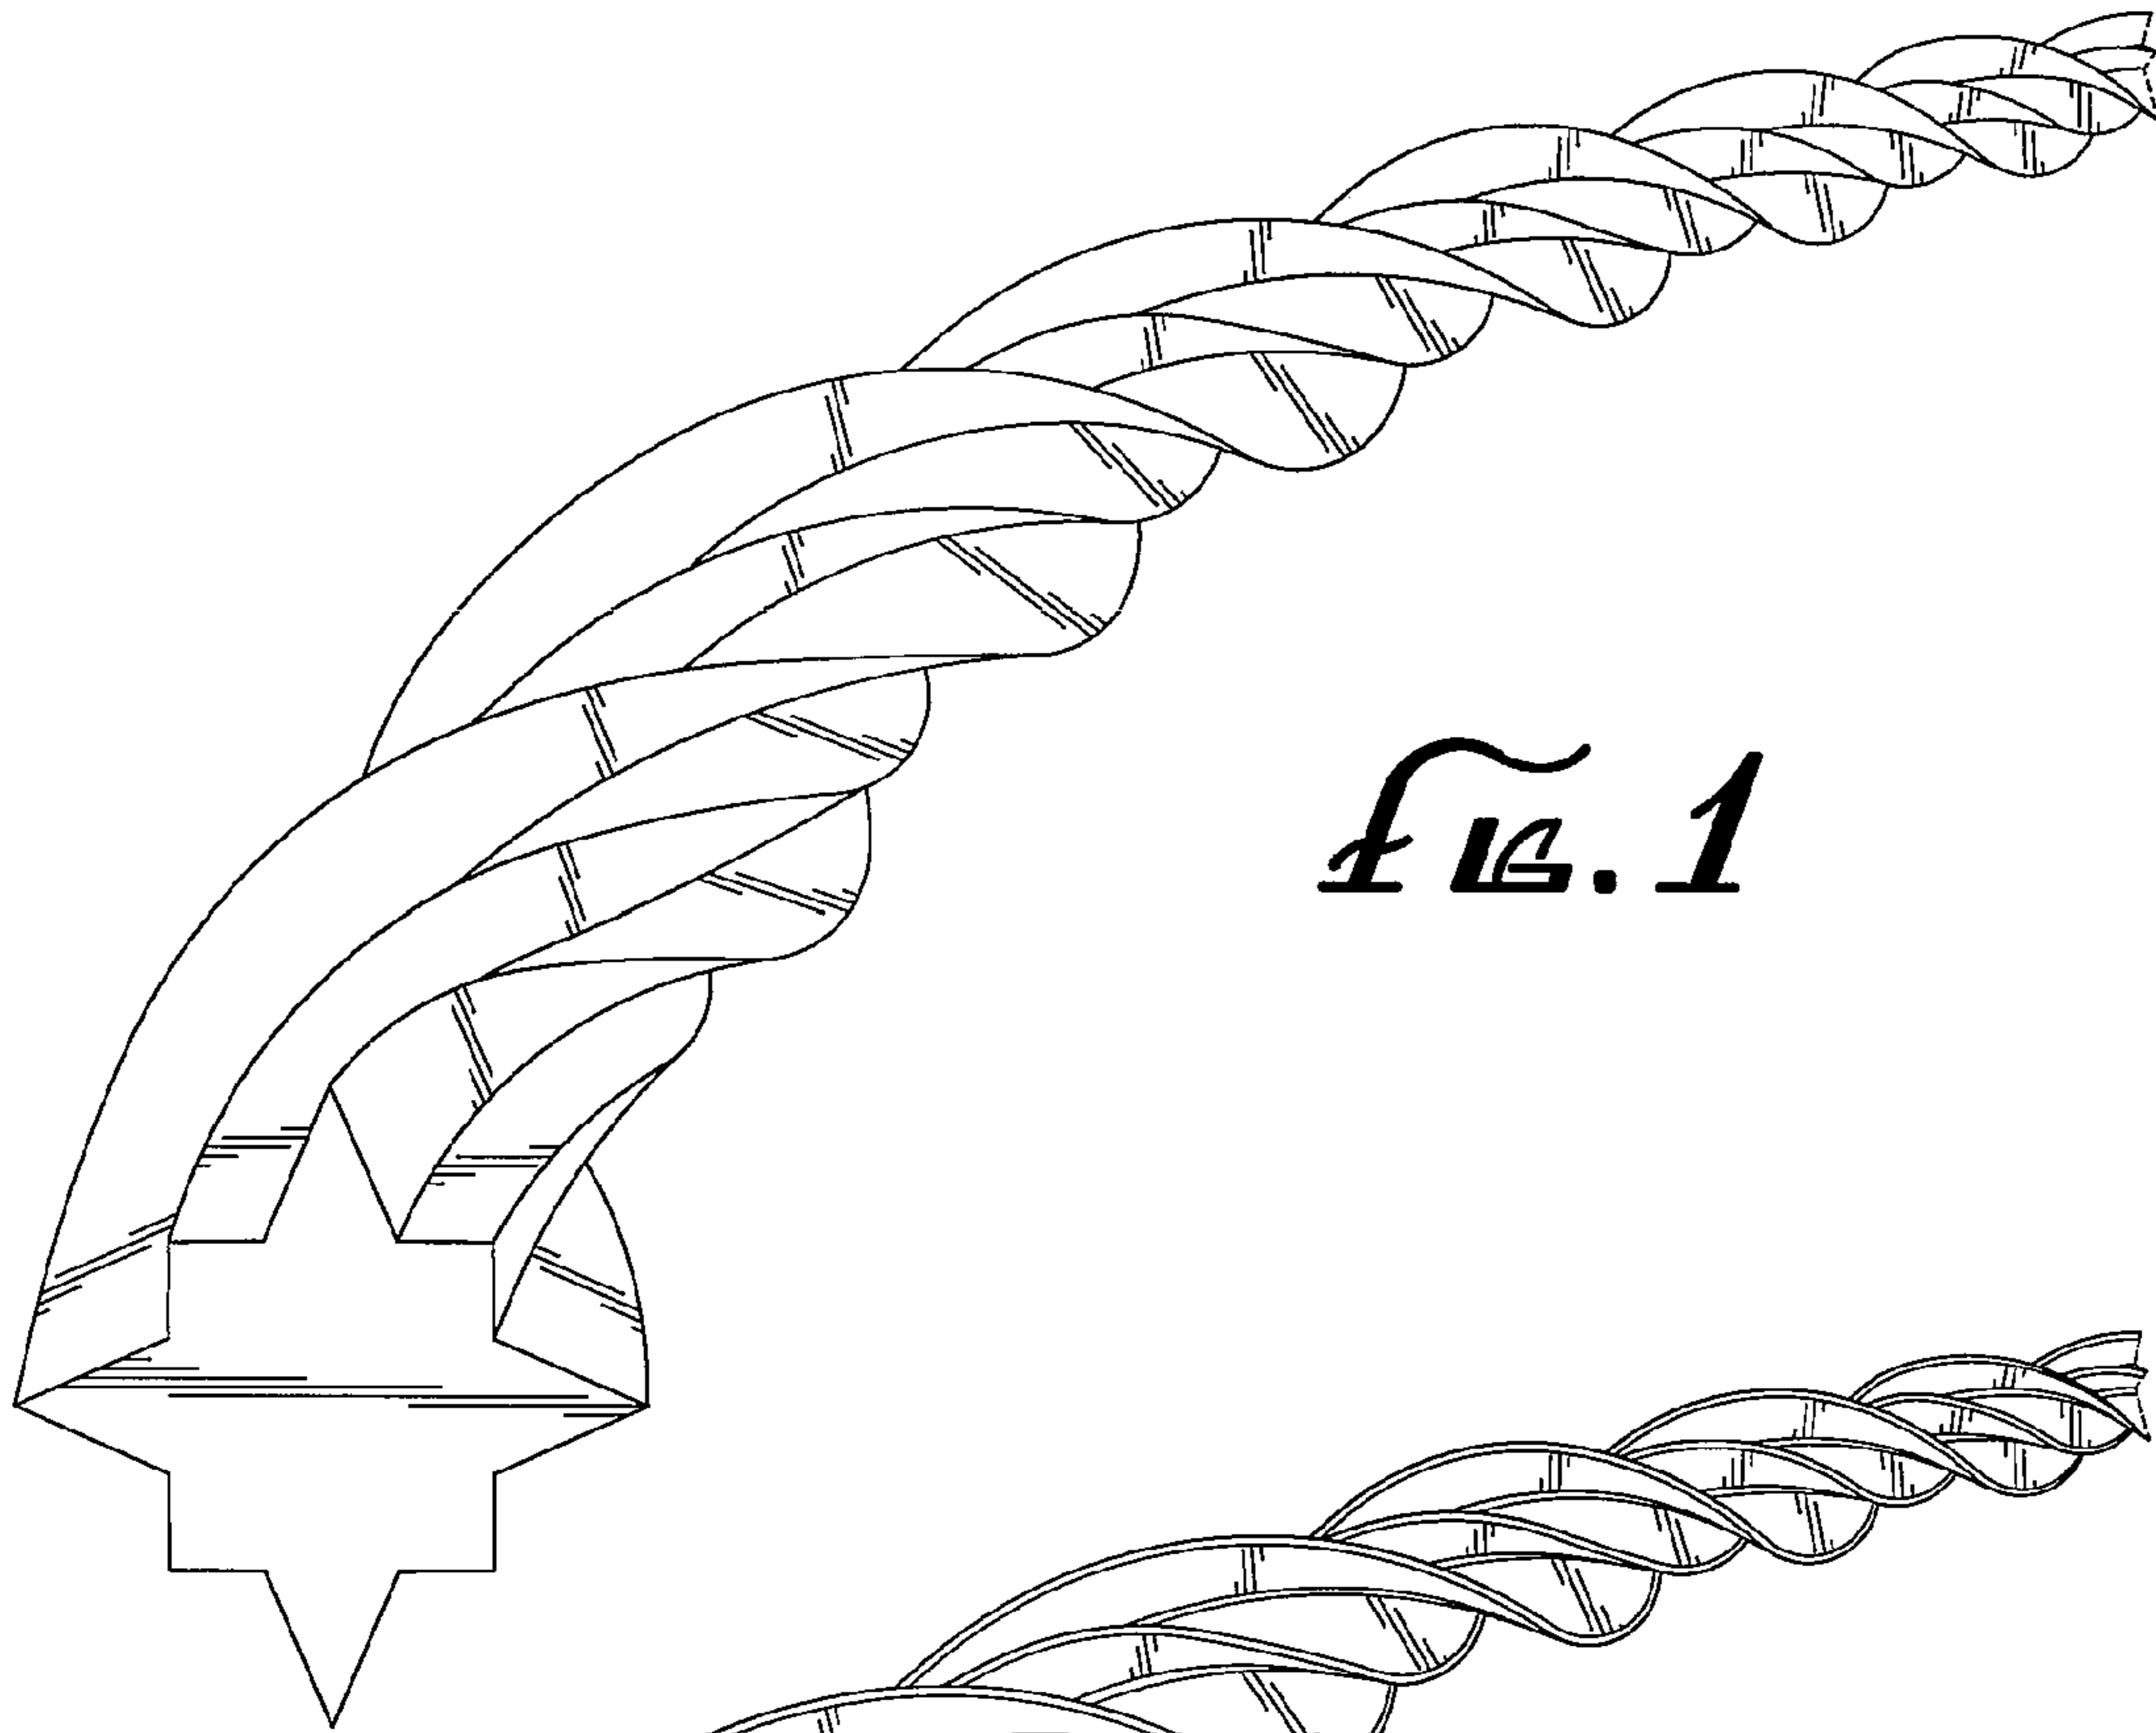

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of the first embodiment of a flexible cutting line for rotary trimmers showing my new design, the line being of uniform cross-section along its length; and,

FIG. 2 is a perspective view of a second embodiment thereof, the line being of uniform cross-section along its length.

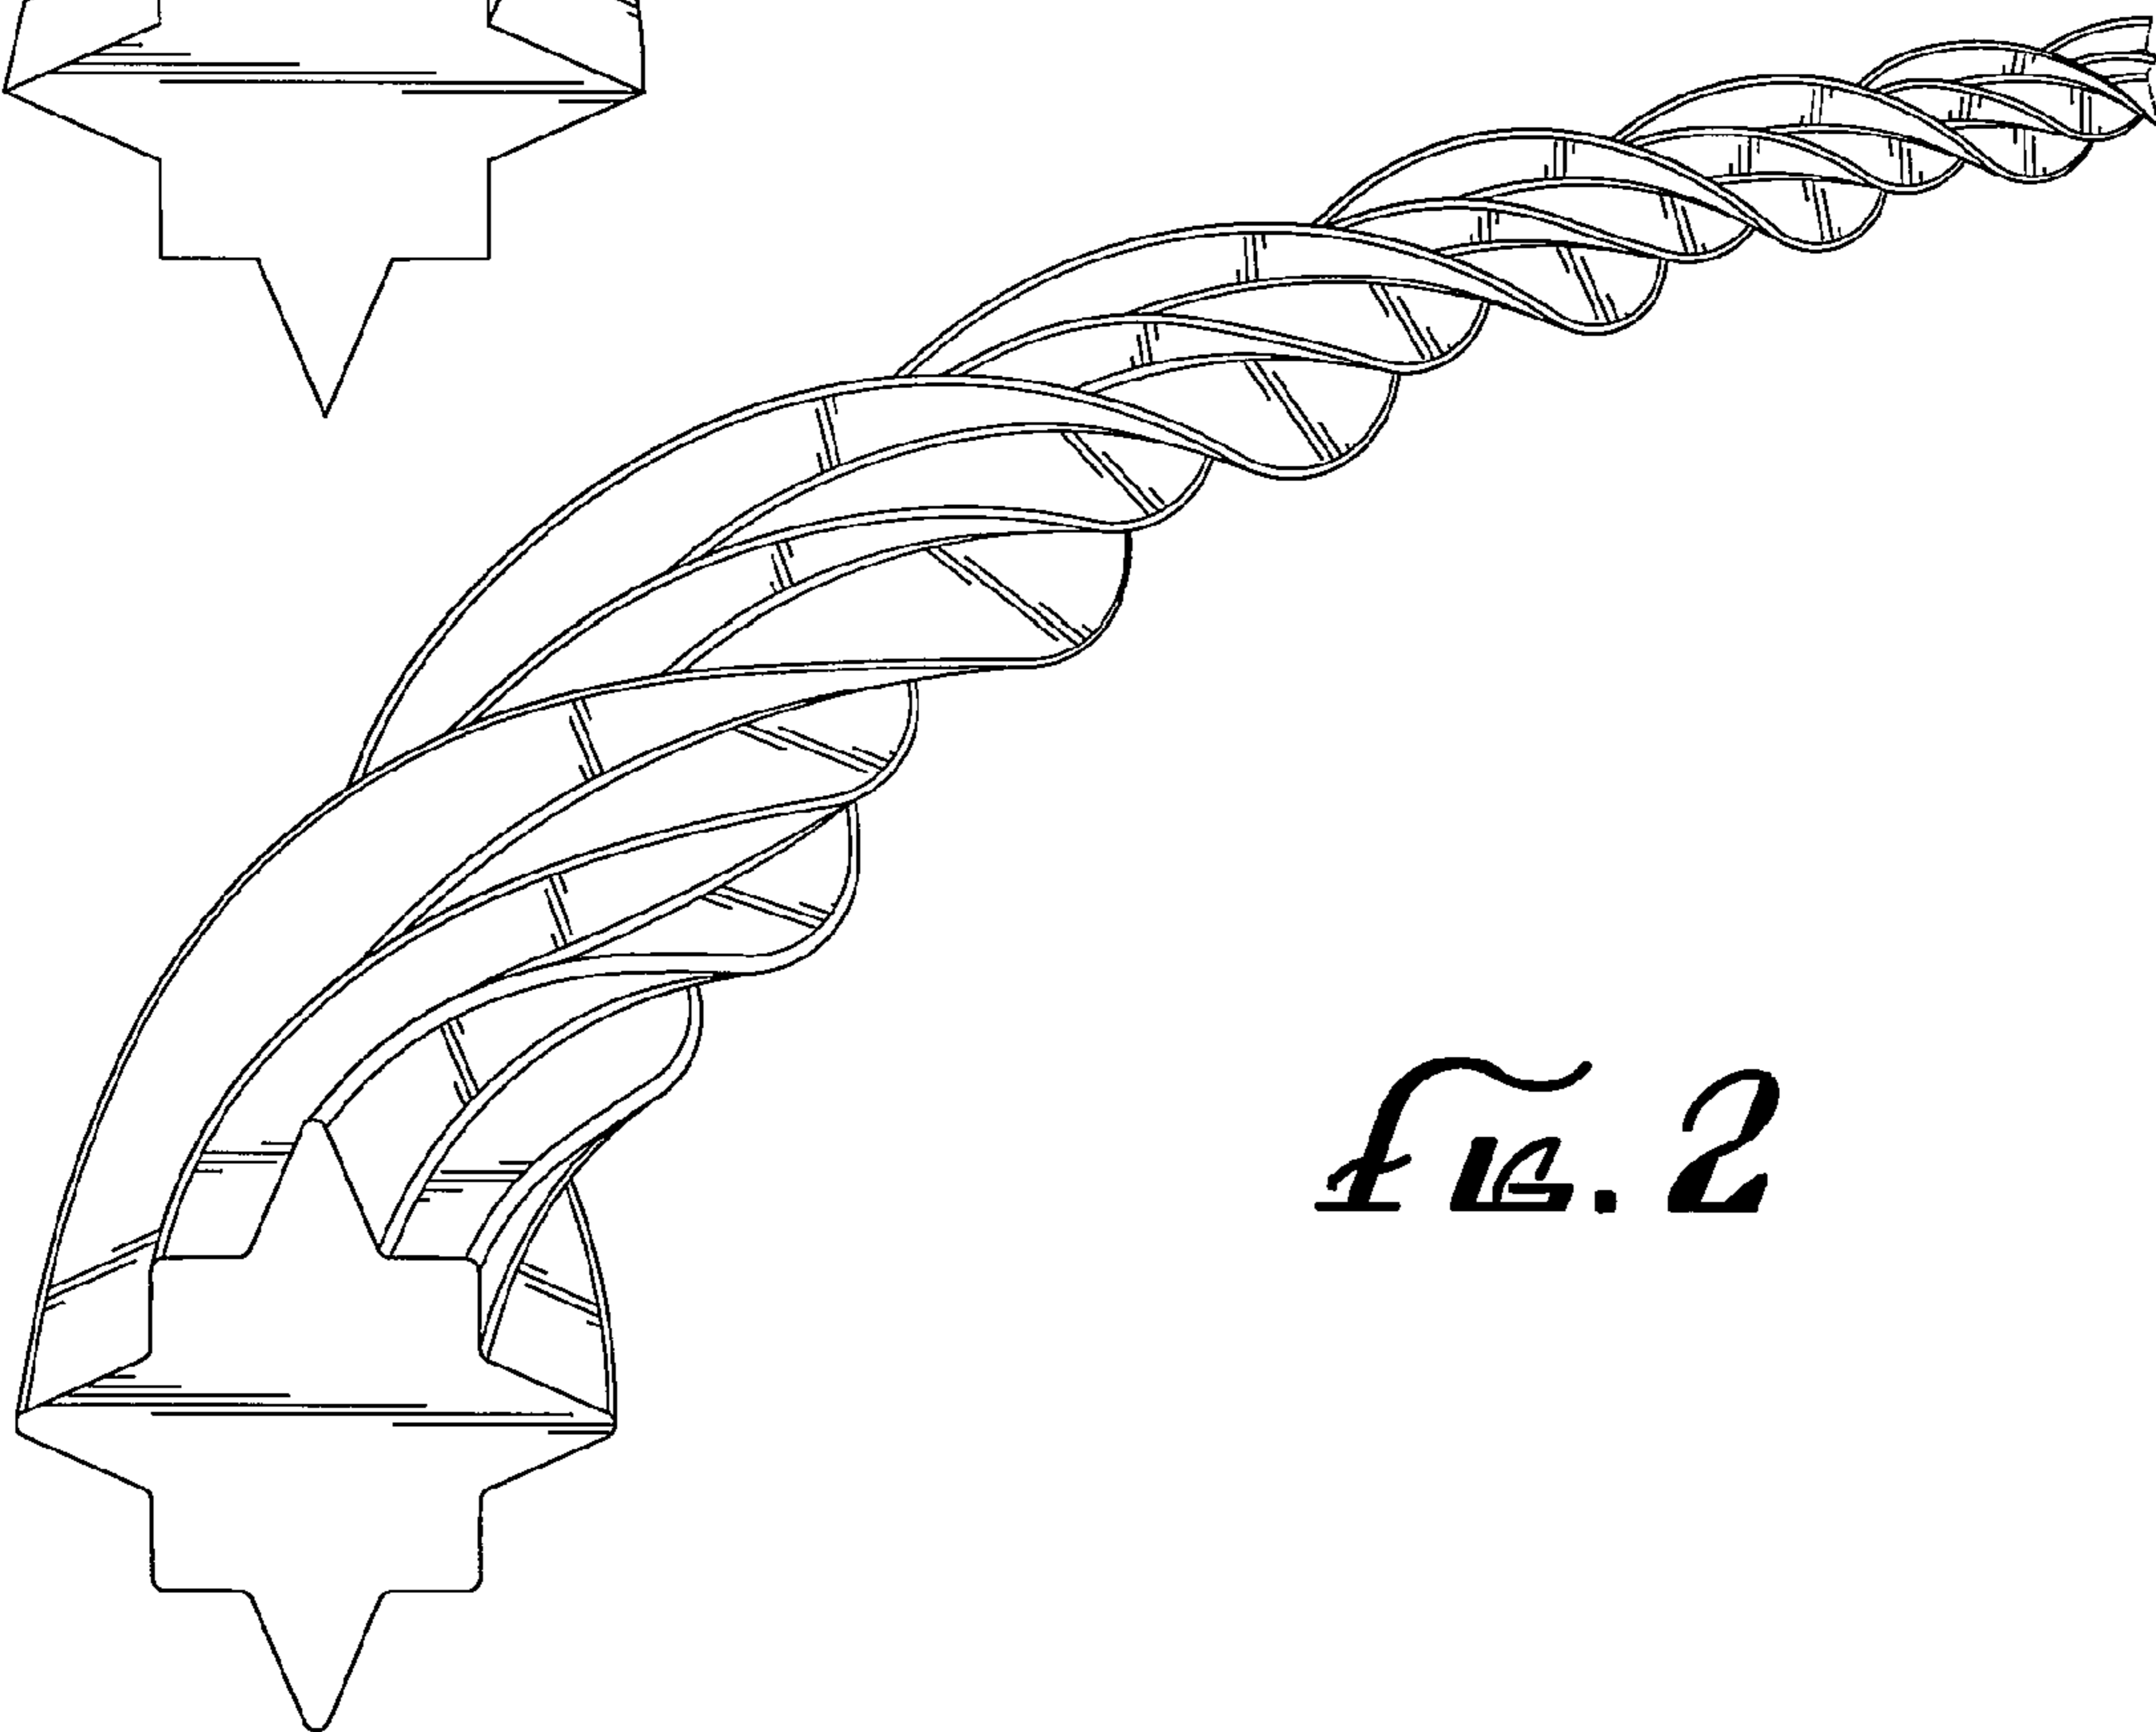

The lines are shown broken-away at the far end to indicate indeterminate length.
