(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a scaffold frame section with integral guardrail post, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a scaffold frame section with integral guardrail post embodying my design, with the frame locks, fasteners, insert pins, and accessory attachment holes being shown in broken lines for illustrative purposes only and forming no part of the claimed design;

FIG. 2 is a front elevation view of the scaffold frame section depicted in FIG. 1, with the rear elevation view being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 3 is a side elevation view of the scaffold frame section depicted in FIGS. 1 and 2, with the opposite side elevation view being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 4 is a top plan view of the scaffold frame section depicted in FIGS. 1–3;

FIG. 5 is a bottom plan view of the scaffold frame section depicted in FIGS. 1–4;

FIG. 6 is a perspective view of the scaffold frame section depicted in FIGS. 1–5; particularly illustrating the frame section assembled with various other scaffolding components, but with such other scaffolding components being shown in broken lines for illustrative purposes only and forming no part of the claimed design;

FIG. 7 is a perspective view of a second embodiment of a scaffold frame section with integral guardrail post embodying my design, with the angular brace, frame locks, fasteners, insert pins, and accessory attachment holes being shown in broken lines for illustrative purposes only and forming no part of the claimed design;

FIG. 8 is a front elevation view of the scaffold frame section depicted in FIG. 7, with the rear elevation view being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 9 is a side elevation view of the scaffold frame section depicted in FIGS. 7 and 8, with the opposite side elevation view being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 10 is a top plan view of the scaffold frame section depicted in FIGS. 7–9;

FIG. 11 is a bottom plan view of the scaffold frame section depicted in FIGS. 7–10; and,

FIG. 12 is a perspective view of the scaffold frame section depicted in FIGS. 7–11, particularly illustrating the frame section assembled with various other scaffolding components, but with such other scaffolding components being shown in broken lines for illustrative purposes only and forming no part of the claimed design.
