(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a shock absorbing wheel housing with visible spring, and wheel for carry cases such as computer cases, luggage and the like, as shown and described.

(73) Assignee: United States Luggage Company, LLC, Hauppauge, NY (US)

DESCRIPTION

() Term: 14 Years

FIG. 1 is a front, top and left outside perspective view of a shock absorbing wheel housing and wheel for carry cases such as computer cases, luggage and the like incorporating a visible spring according to our new design, the spring including stippling to indicate a possible use of color, a portion of the carry case being shown in dash lines for environmental purposes;

(21) Appl. No.: 29/288,853

The shock absorbing wheel housing for carry cases shown in FIG. 1 is intended for attachment to a corner of a carry case. The shock absorbing wheel housing for carry cases intended for mounting to the opposite corner of the carry case (not shown) is identical to that shown in FIG. 1, except it is substantially a mirror image thereof.
