FIG. 2 is a side view of the tennis ball shaped beverage container of the new design, in which the lid is shown in the open position (it is separated from the main body of the container), the handle is shown in an angled orientation, and the lid removal tab is in the closed position and is thus not shown (as it is not visible from the side of the container when in the closed position).

The broken line showing a base for the tennis ball shaped beverage container is included for the purpose of illustrating environmental structure and forms no part of the claimed design.
