(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for an apparatus for stimulating exercise, as shown.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front perspective view of an apparatus for stimulating exercise showing my new design;

FIG. 2 is a front perspective view with the light array box, the mounting swing arms, and the table in an alternative position;

FIG. 3 is an enlarged front perspective view of the light array box and mounting swing arms with the table, chairs, monitor and the support member removed for ease of illustration;

FIG. 4 is an enlarged underside rear perspective view of the light array box thereof;

FIG. 5 is a left rear perspective view of an apparatus for stimulating exercise with the table and the stimulator screen with one chair and the support member removed for ease of illustration;

FIG. 6 is a right front perspective view with the stimulator screen slightly rotated, showing a key board with the support member removed for ease of illustration;

FIG. 7 is a left perspective view of the apparatus for stimulating exercise, with the keyboard folded up near the screen; and,

FIG. 8 is an enlarged perspective view thereof, with the keyboard folded up with the light array box, mounting swing arms, table, one chair, the patient stimulator screen, and the support member removed for ease of illustration.

The broken line showing of: the connection between base and table in FIGS. 1, 2, 5 & 6; protrusions on the hinge joining the lamp box swing arms in FIGS. 1, 3, & 5; protrusions on the lamp box in FIGS. 3-6; the sound amplifier in FIG. 7; and the headphones in FIG. 8, is for the purpose of illustrating environmental structure, and forms no part of the claimed design.
