(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for an electrode patch substrate, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

The sole FIGURE is a front view of the electrode patch substrate, with the rear view being a mirror image thereof and the sides being of no substantial thickness.

The side are of no substantial thickness, and the corresponding views are therefore omitted.

The broken lines included in the FIGURE are for the purpose of illustrating a portion of the electrode patch substrate that forms no part of the claimed design.
