(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a remote control device, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

This disclosure, in general, relates to a remote control device and, in a particular embodiment, relates to a remote control device to control an interactive television system.

FIG. 1 shows a plan view of a remote control device; and,

FIG. 2 shows a perspective view of the remote control device.

The broken-line perimeter surrounding the buttons depicts the boundary of the claim. The other broken lines depict portions of the remote control device that form no part of the claimed design.
