(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a ring light fixture, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is an upper side perspective view of a light fixture of the present invention, with the portions of this Figure shown in phantom lines not forming a part of the claimed design;

FIG. 2 is a top plan view of a light fixture of the present invention, with the portions of this Figure shown in phantom lines not forming a part of the claimed design;

FIG. 3 is a bottom plan view of a light fixture of the present invention, with the portions of this Figure shown in phantom lines not forming a part of the claimed design;

FIG. 4 is a side elevation view of a first lateral side of the light fixture of the present invention, and of which FIG. 5 is the reverse side thereof, with the portions of this Figure shown in phantom lines not forming a part of the claimed design;

FIG. 5 is a side elevation view of a second lateral side of the light fixture of the present invention, and of which FIG. 4 is the reverse side thereof, with the portions of this Figure shown in phantom lines not forming a part of the claimed design;

FIG. 6 is a side elevation view of a third lateral side of the light fixture of the present invention, and of which FIG. 7 is the reverse side thereof, with the portions of this Figure shown in phantom lines not forming a part of the claimed design;

FIG. 7 is a side elevation view of a fourth lateral side of the light fixture of the present invention, and of which FIG. 6 is the reverse side thereof, with the portions of this Figure shown in phantom lines not forming a part of the claimed design; and,

FIG. 8 is an upper side perspective view of two of the light fixtures of the present invention with the portions of this Figure shown in phantom lines not forming a part of the claimed design, shown mounted on the front suspension fork of a motorcycle (shown in phantom), it being understood that the broken lines are for illustrative purposes only, and not forming a part of the claimed design. It is also understood that a second fixture is shown for illustrative purposes only and the claim is directed to only the single ring light fixture.
