DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view showing a new design for a cabinet frame, with the broken-line disclosure of portions of a mirror suitable for forming the front of a recessed medicine cabinet understood to form a part of the article in which the claimed design is embodied, but not part of the claimed design;

FIG. 2 is a front elevational view of the first embodiment, the rear elevational view not being visible when the mirror is in use and not forming a part of the claimed design;

FIG. 3 is a right side elevational view of the first embodiment, the left side being a mirror image of the right side;

FIG. 4 is a bottom plan view of the first embodiment, the top plan view not being visible when the mirror is in use and not forming a part of the claimed design; and,

FIG. 5 is a fragmentary horizontal cross-sectional view of the first embodiment, taken along line 5—5 of FIG. 2.
