(57) CLAIM

I claim the ornamental design for a winter hat with short brim, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view thereof;

FIG. 2 is a side view thereof;

FIG. 3 is a side view thereof;

FIG. 4 is a front view thereof;

FIG. 5 is a back view thereof; and,

FIG. 6 is a top view thereof.

The broken lines shown in the drawings illustrate those portions of the winter hat with short brim that form no part of the claimed design.

The crosshatched pattern, although shown intermittently, is meant to represent fabric, and is understood to be distributed uniformly over the surfaces of the claimed design.

The design consists partly of hair. Inconsistencies in how the hair appears in the different views are understood to be caused by the organic nature of the hair itself as well as to the different viewpoints from which the winter hat with short brim is shown, and not to deliberate changes in the configuration of the claimed design. The minor variations from one view to another do not show separate patentably distinct designs.
