(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a covering material, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front view of the covering material in a first embodiment, showing our new design;

FIG. 2 is a front view of the covering material in a second embodiment thereof;

FIG. 3 is a front view of the covering material in a third embodiment thereof;

FIG. 4 is a front view of the covering material in a fourth embodiment thereof;

FIG. 5 is a front view of the covering material in a five embodiment thereof;

FIG. 6 is a front view of the covering material in a sixth embodiment thereof;

FIG. 7 is a front view of the covering material in a seventh embodiment thereof;

FIG. 8 is a front view of the covering material in an eighth embodiment thereof;

FIG. 9 is a front view of the covering material in a ninth embodiment thereof;

FIG. 10 is a front view of the covering material in a tenth embodiment thereof;

FIG. 11 is a front view of the covering material in an eleventh embodiment thereof;

FIG. 12 is a front view of the covering material in a twelfth embodiment thereof;

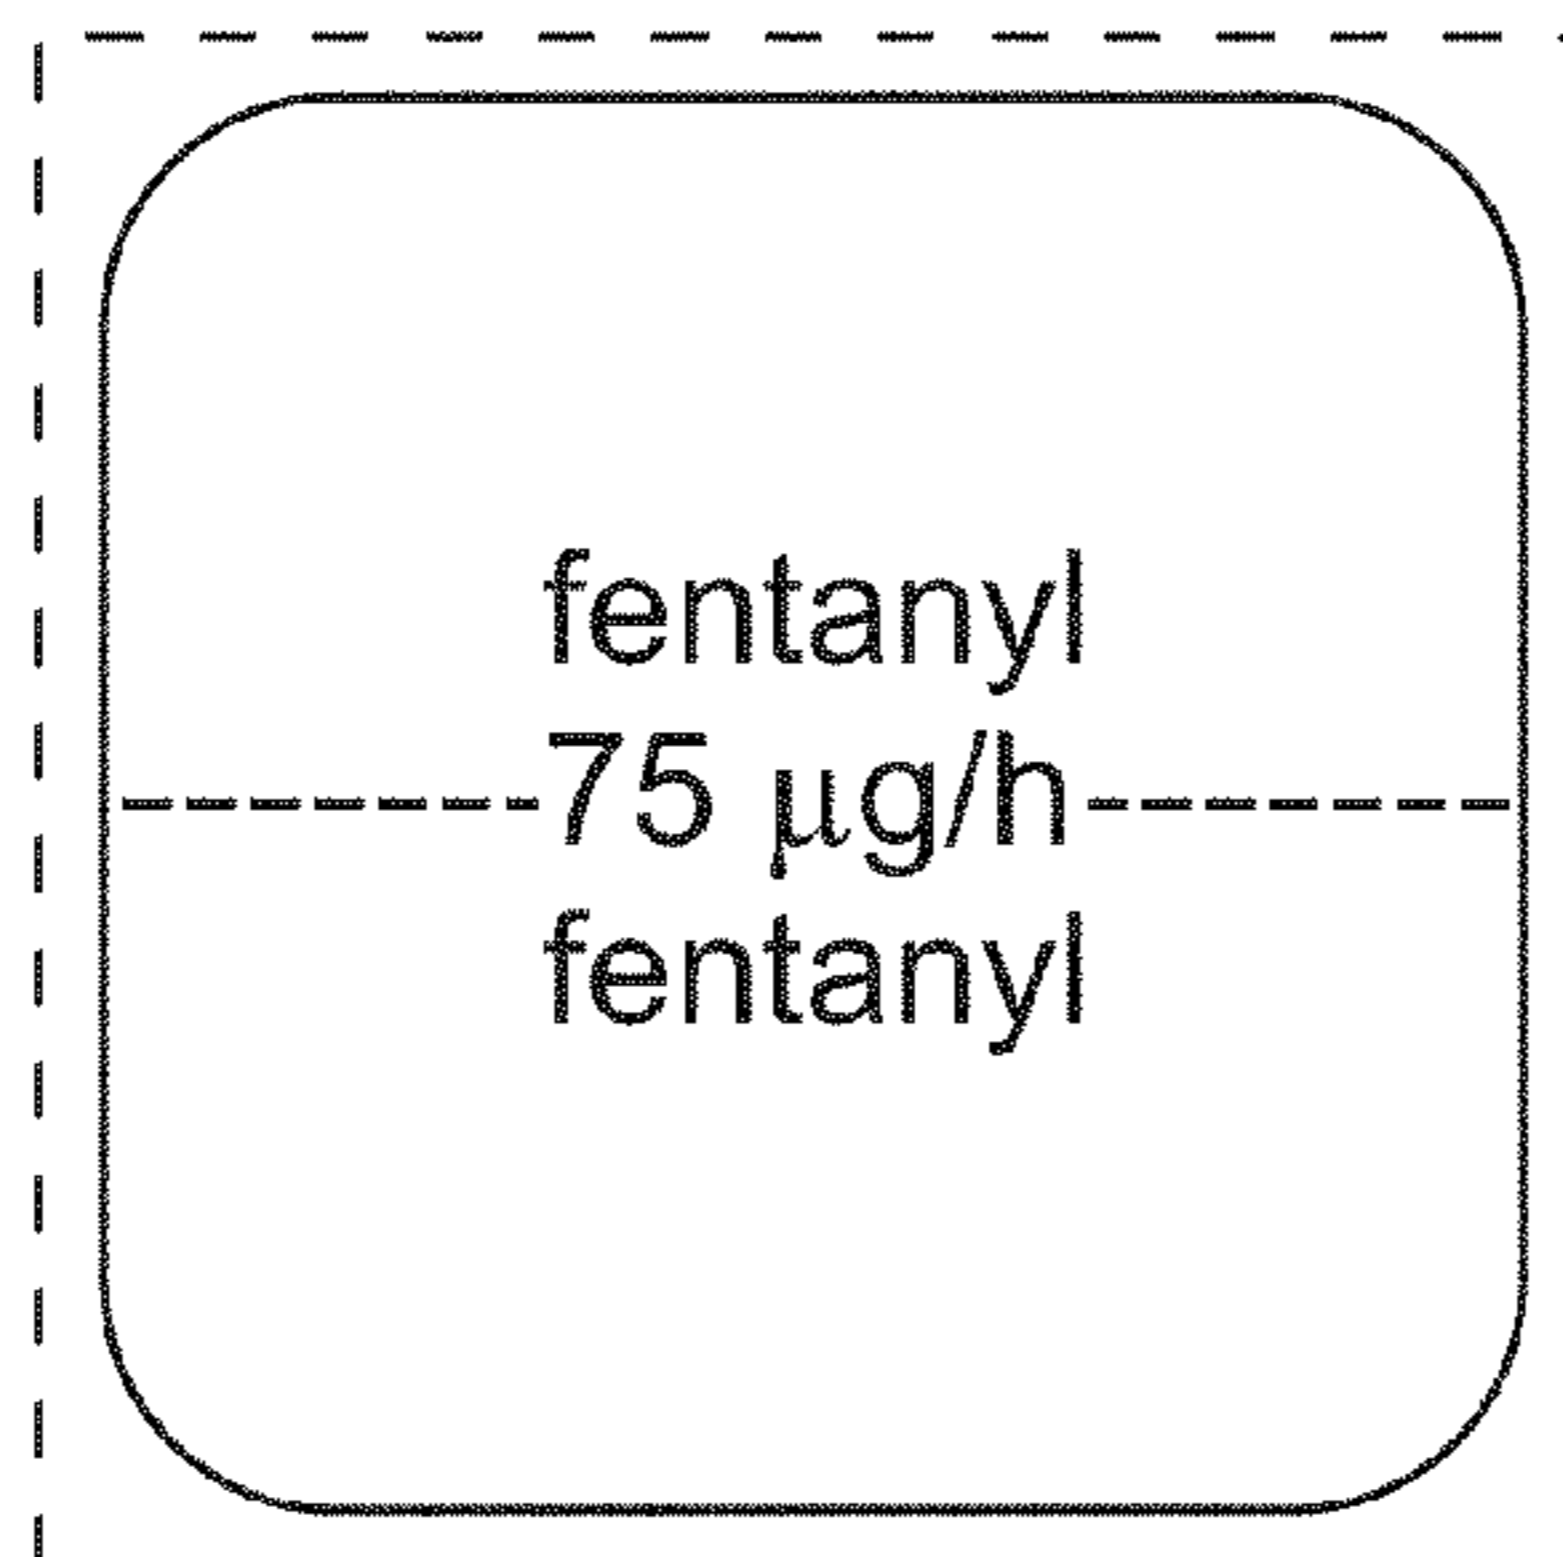

FIG. 13 is a front view of the covering material in a thirteenth embodiment thereof; and,

FIG. 14 is a front view of the covering material in a fourteenth embodiment thereof.

The broken lines shown on the covering material are included for the purpose of illustrating a cutting line or removable film and forms part of the claimed design.

The covering material can in particular embodiments be a transdermal therapeutic system (e.g. transdermal drug delivery system), comprising e.g. a face (face sheet/top layer) suitably with imprint including a line, which can be continuous or dashed, which imprint can be suitably provided e.g. by a removable film.
