(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a coupler for plumbing fixtures, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a plan top view of a coupler for plumbing fixtures. FIG. 2 is a plan side view of a coupler for plumbing fixtures. FIG. 3 is a perspective bottom view of a coupler for plumbing fixtures; and, FIG. 4 is a perspective top view of a coupler for plumbing fixtures.

The present invention is an ornamental design for a coupler for plumbing fixtures designed to connect polyethylene tubing of said plumbing fixtures with copper tubing while presenting a flush interface with roughed-in walls or flooring, thereby making plumbing rough-in faster and easier to accomplish.
