The ornamental design for a letter holder and key rack, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top, front, and right side perspective view of a letter holder and key rack showing a first embodiment of our new design;

FIG. 2 is a top plan view thereof;

FIG. 3 is a front elevational view thereof;

FIG. 4 is a right side elevational view thereof;

FIG. 5 is a rear elevational view thereof;

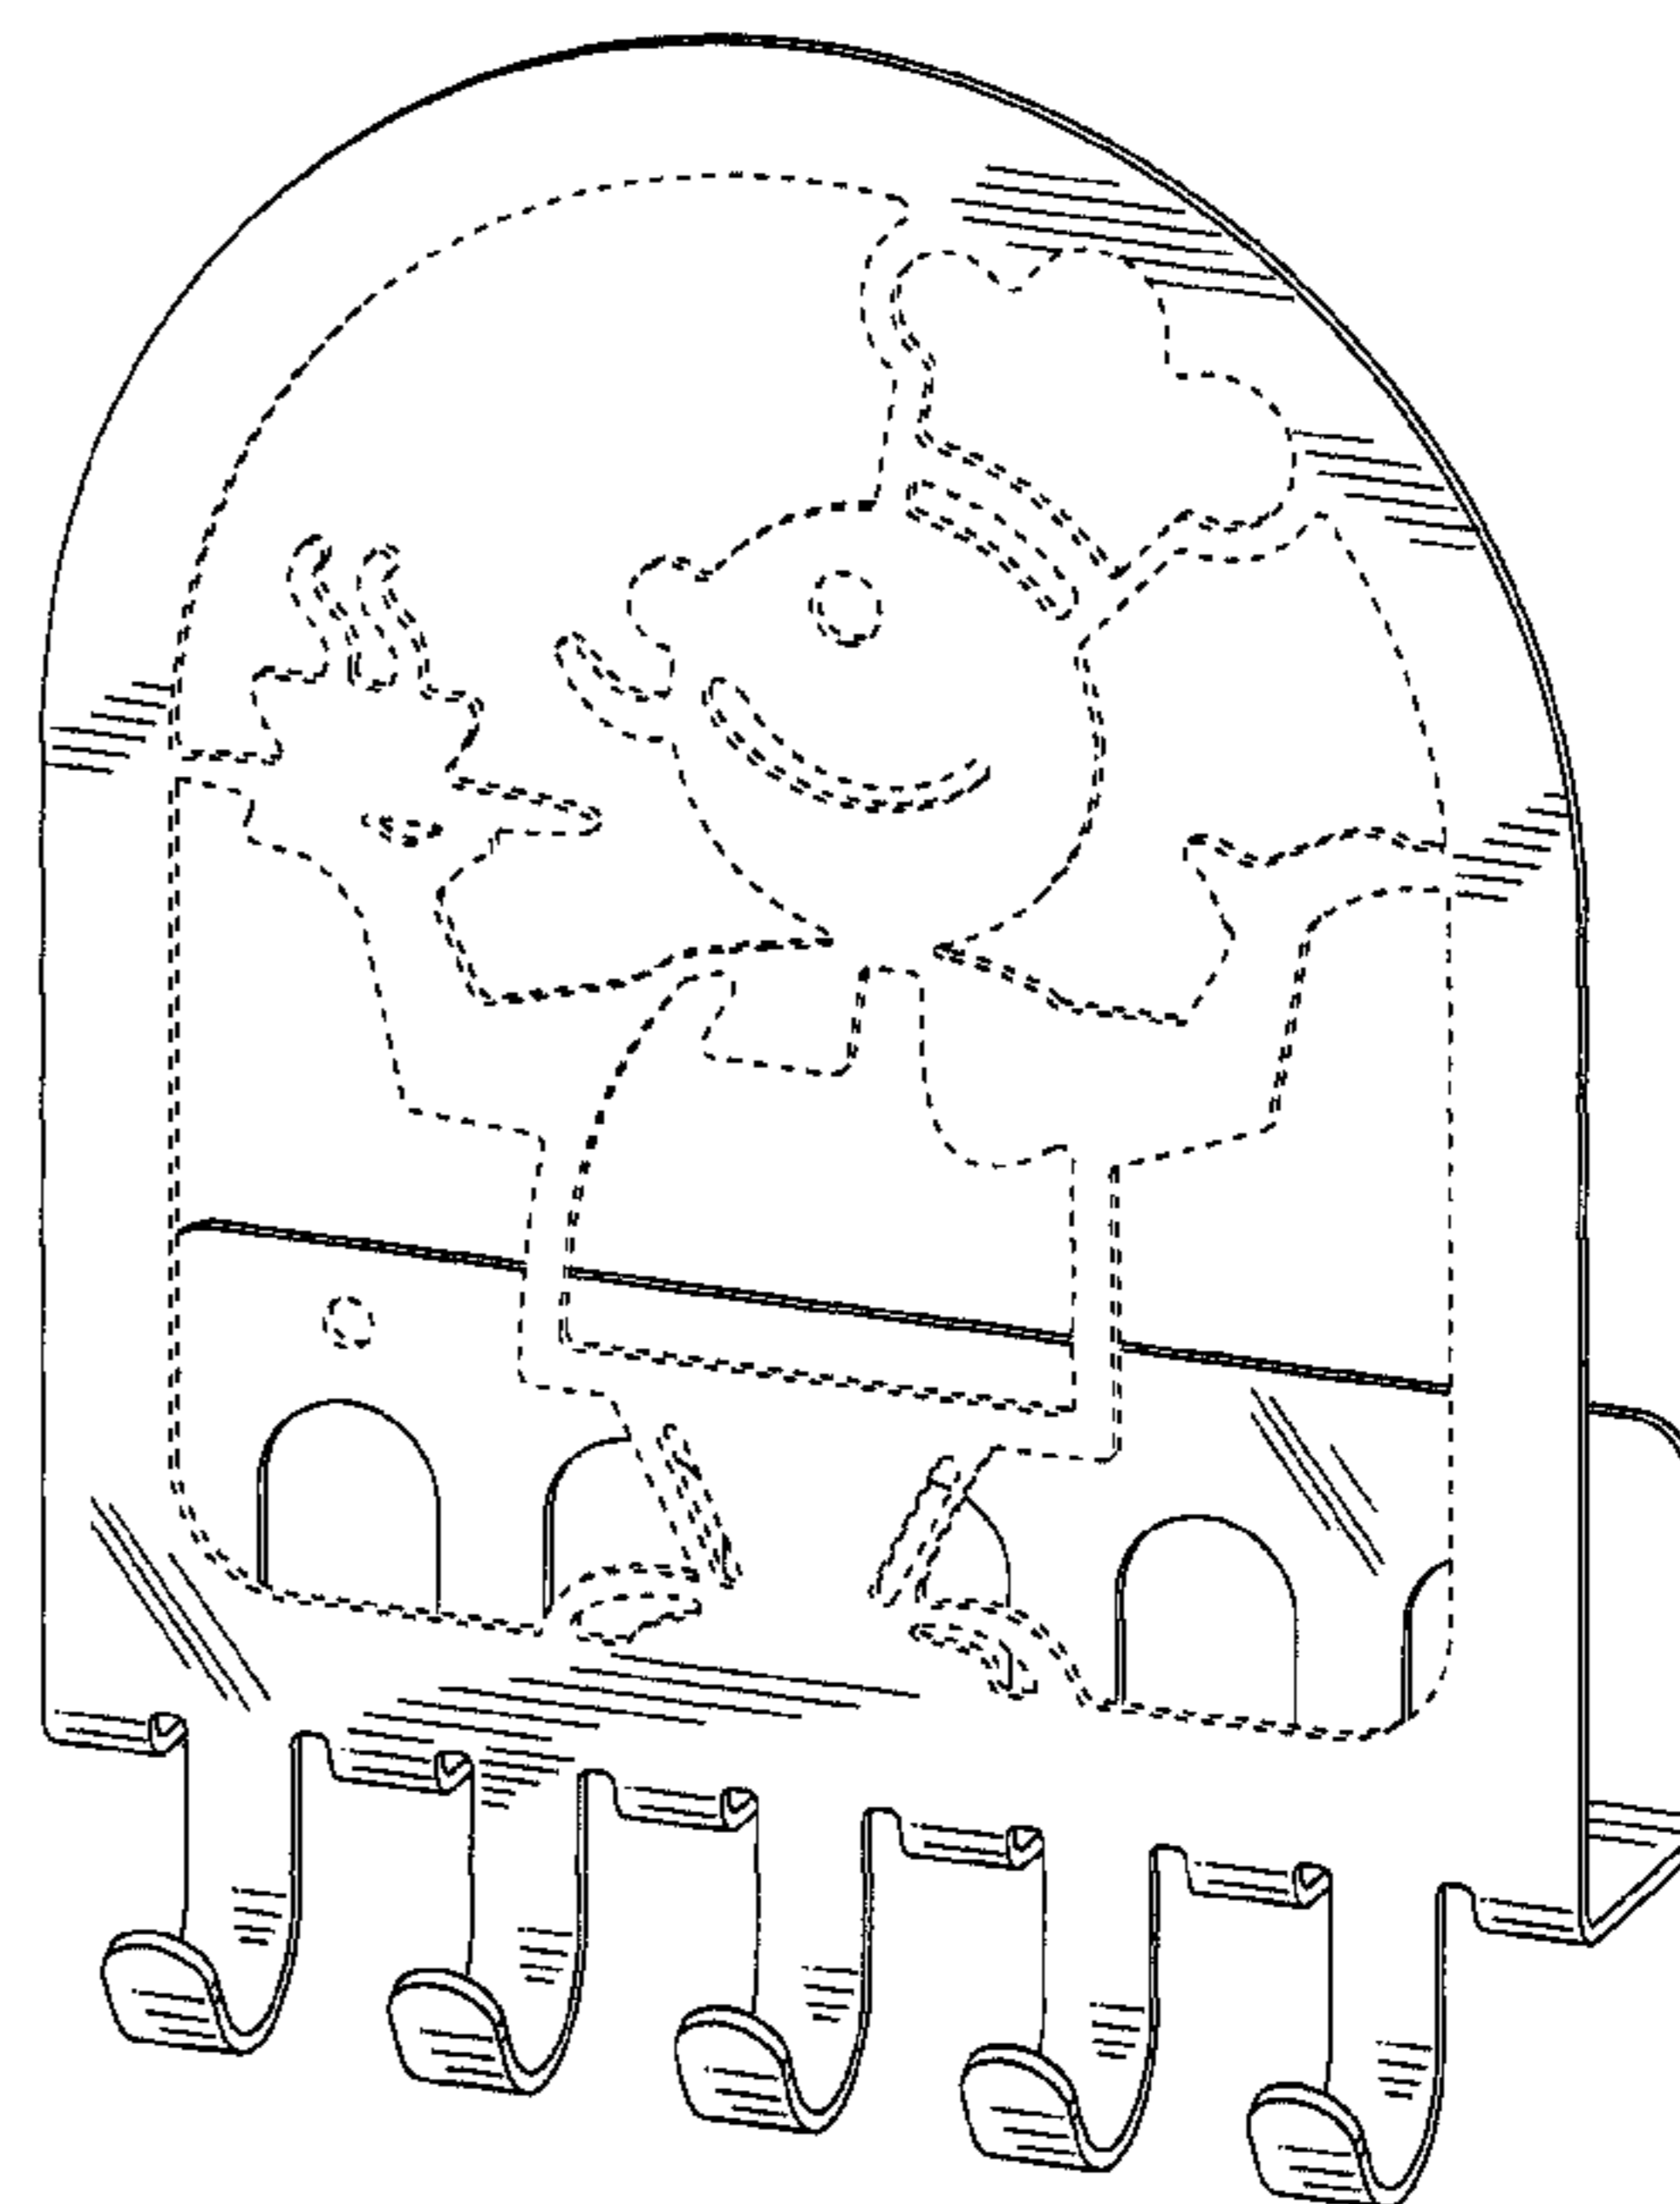

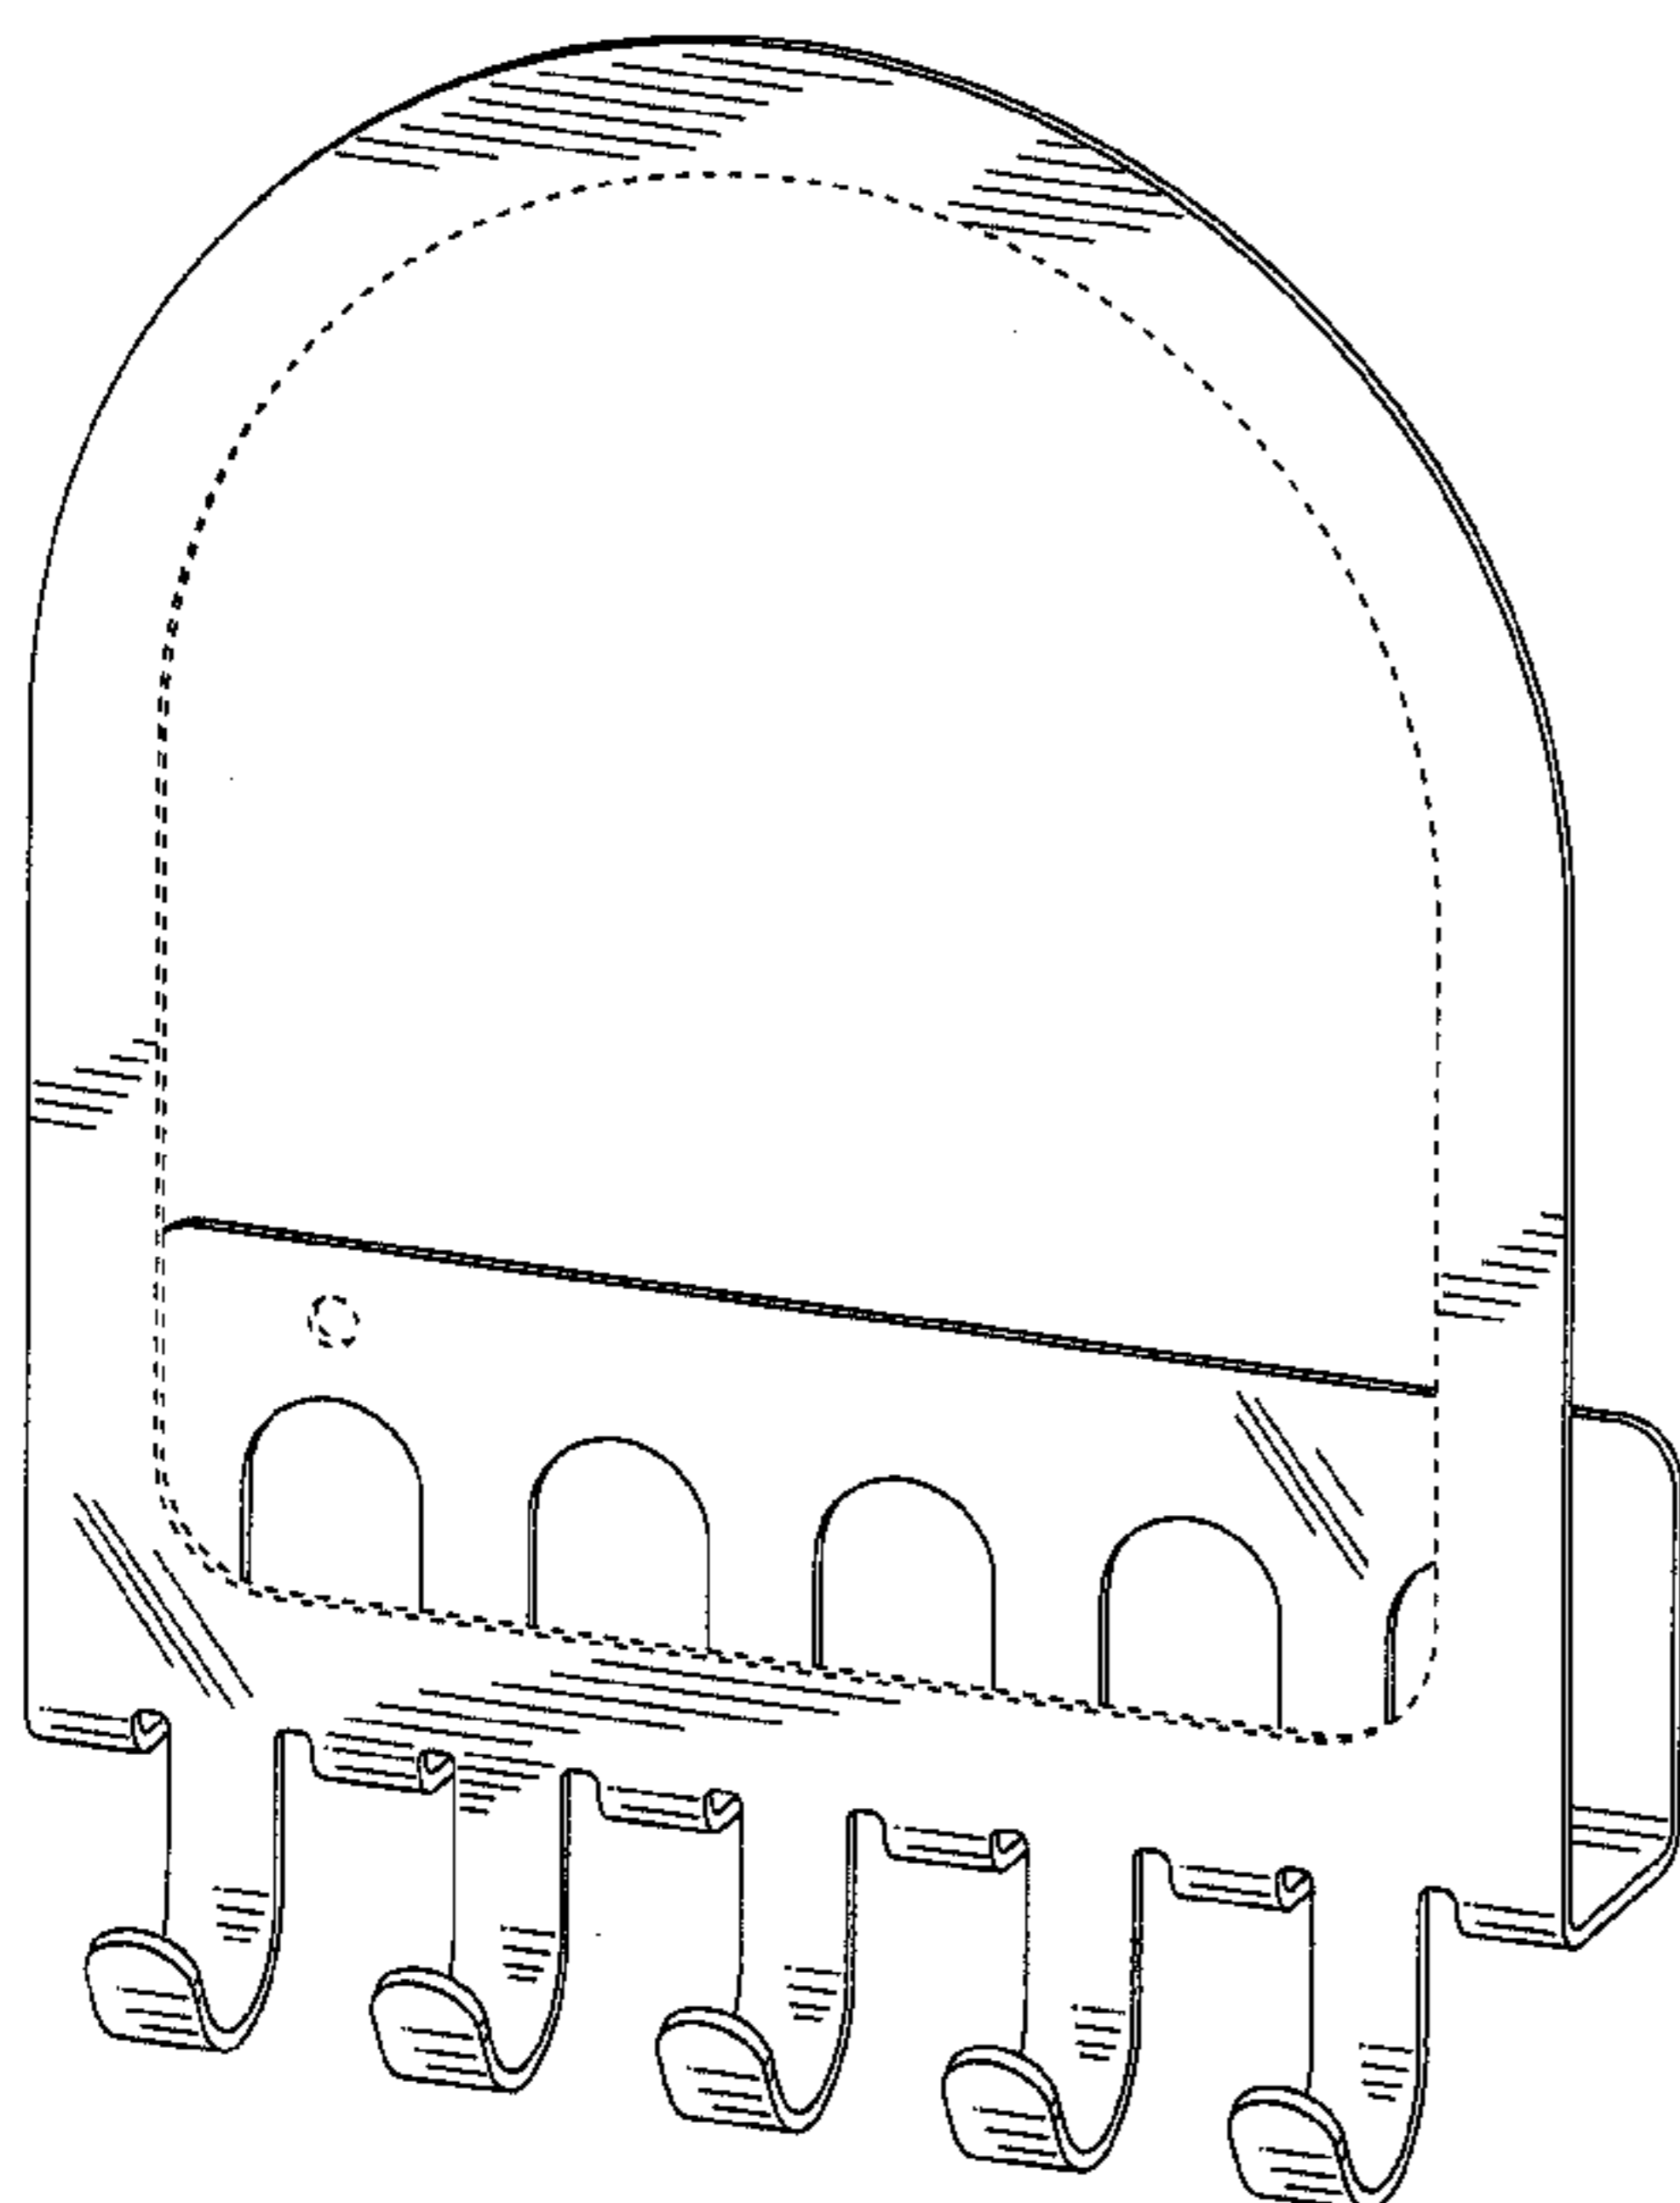

FIG. 6 is a bottom plan view thereof;

FIG. 7 is a top, front, and right side perspective view of a letter holder and key rack showing a second embodiment of our new design; and,

FIG. 8 is a top, front, and right side perspective view of a letter holder and key rack showing a third embodiment of our new design.

The broken-line disclosure in the views is understood to form an unclaimed boundary along the claimed surface. Where a claimed surface abuts an unclaimed surface, the edge of the surface shading is understood to define that boundary between claimed and unclaimed surfaces.
