(57) CLAIM
I claim the ornamental design for a flag, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a first view of the flag of the present invention; FIG. 2 is the opposite side view, thereof; and, FIG. 3 is the design of FIG. 1 in an alternate position of use showing the relationship of the two sides.
The broken lines in the drawing represent unclaimed environmental subject matter.
The characteristic feature of the design resides in a flag having a first side bearing the American flag and a second side bearing the Bill of Rights combined in an inventive arrangement.

FIG. 1

Bill of Rights

Amendment I

CONGRESS SHALL MAKE no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press: or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Amendment II

A WELL REGULATED Militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

Amendment III

NO SOLDIER SHALL, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the Owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner prescribed by law.

Amendment IV

THE RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the person or things to be seized.

Amendment V

NO PERSON SHALL BE HELD to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment by a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life and limb; nor shall any be compelled in any Criminal Case to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, limb, or property; without due process of law, nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

Amendment VI

IN ALL CRIMINAL PROSECUTION, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation, to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining Witnesses in his favor, and to have the Assistance of Counsel for his defense.

Amendment VII

IN SUITS AT COMMON LAW, where the value in controversy shall not exceed twenty dollars, the right of a trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise reexamined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

Amendment VIII

EXCESSIVE BAIL SHALL NOT BE REQUIRED, nor excessive fines be imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted..

Amendment IX

THE ENUMERATION IN THE CONSTITUTION, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

Amendment X

THE POWERS NOT DELEGATED TO THE UNITED STATES BY THE CONSTITUTION, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.
