The sole FIGURE is a front view of the United States all military services flag of the present invention.

The broken line in the drawing represents a fold line.
