(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a pneumatic tire, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a pneumatic tire incorporating our new design, it being understood that the tread pattern repeats circumferentially throughout the outer circumference.

FIG. 2 is an elevational view of one end of the pneumatic tire shown in FIG. 1.

FIG. 3 is an elevational view of the opposite end of the tire.

FIG. 4 is a detail view of FIG. 2.

FIG. 5 is an elevational view of one side of the pneumatic tire; and,

FIG. 6 is an elevational view of the opposite side of the pneumatic tire.

In the drawings, the broken lines show the bead and sidewall of a pneumatic tire and form no part of the claimed design.
