(57) CLAIM

What is claimed is the ornamental design for a book that includes soil from predetermined places, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a first embodiment while in an open position for a book that includes soil from predetermined places showing my new design.

FIG. 2 is a front elevational view thereof while in an open position.

FIG. 3 is a front elevational view thereof while in a closed position, without ornamentation, for the purpose of identifying cross sectional lines 4-4 and 5-5 thereof.

FIG. 4 is a cross sectional view thereof taken on line 4-4 of FIG. 3.

FIG. 5 is a cross sectional view thereof taken on line 5-5 of FIG. 3.

FIG. 6 is a perspective view of a second embodiment while in an open position.

FIG. 7 is a front elevational view thereof while in an open position. The front elevational view thereof while in closed position is the same as FIG. 3.

The cross sectional view thereof taken on line 4-4 is the same as FIG. 4. The cross sectional view thereof taken on line 5-5 is the same as FIG. 5.

FIG. 8 is a perspective view of a third embodiment while in an open position; and,

FIG. 9 is a front elevational view thereof while in an open position. The front elevational view thereof while in a closed position is the same as FIG. 3.

The cross sectional view thereof taken on line 4-4 is the same as FIG. 4. The cross sectional view thereof taken on line 5-5 is the same as FIG. 5.

The back elevational view, the left elevational view, the right elevational view, the top plan view and the bottom plan view while in the open position of Embodiments 1, 2, and 3, contain no ornamentality and are therefore omitted.

The book that includes soil from predetermined places is characterized by a compartment in which the soil is displayed. The soil compartment is covered by a transparent cover showing the soil inside.
