(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a combination greeting card and coin holder, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front and top perspective view of the combination greeting card and coin holder, embodying the new design in which the image on the coin is integral to the greeting message, the broken lines showing written and pictorial matter on the combination greeting card in this view, and in other views herein, not being part of the design sought to be patented, and being merely exemplary of any lettering and pictures which could be applied to the combination greeting card.

FIG. 2 is a front and top perspective view of the combination greeting card and coin holder, embodying the new design, similar to the view shown in FIG. 1, but with the front panel slightly open.

FIG. 3 is a rear elevation perspective view thereof.

FIG. 4 is an elevation perspective view thereof showing a reflective message on the inner right hand side.

FIG. 5 shows a top plan perspective view thereof; and,

FIG. 6 shows a bottom plan perspective view thereof.

The nature and intended use of the article in which the design claimed herein is embodied is a combination greeting card and coin holder. The nature and embodiment of the design may be understood from the attached figures.
