(57) CLAIM

We claim the ornamental design for a laptop dock, as shown and described.

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of the laptop dock, as viewed from the front, side, and top thereof, in the open configuration.

FIG. 2 is the same perspective view of the laptop dock as in FIG. 1, but in the closed configuration.

FIG. 3 is a top view of the laptop dock in the open configuration.

FIG. 4 is a top view of the laptop dock in the closed configuration.

FIG. 5 is a bottom view of the laptop dock in the open configuration.

FIG. 6 is a top view of the laptop dock in the closed configuration.

FIG. 7 is a front view of the laptop dock in the open configuration.

FIG. 8 is a front view of the laptop dock in the closed configuration.

FIG. 9 is a back view of the laptop dock in the open configuration.

FIG. 10 is a back view of the laptop dock in the closed configuration.

FIG. 11 is a right side view of the laptop dock in the open configuration.

FIG. 12 is a right side view of the laptop dock in the closed configuration.

FIG. 13 is a left side view of the laptop dock in the open configuration.

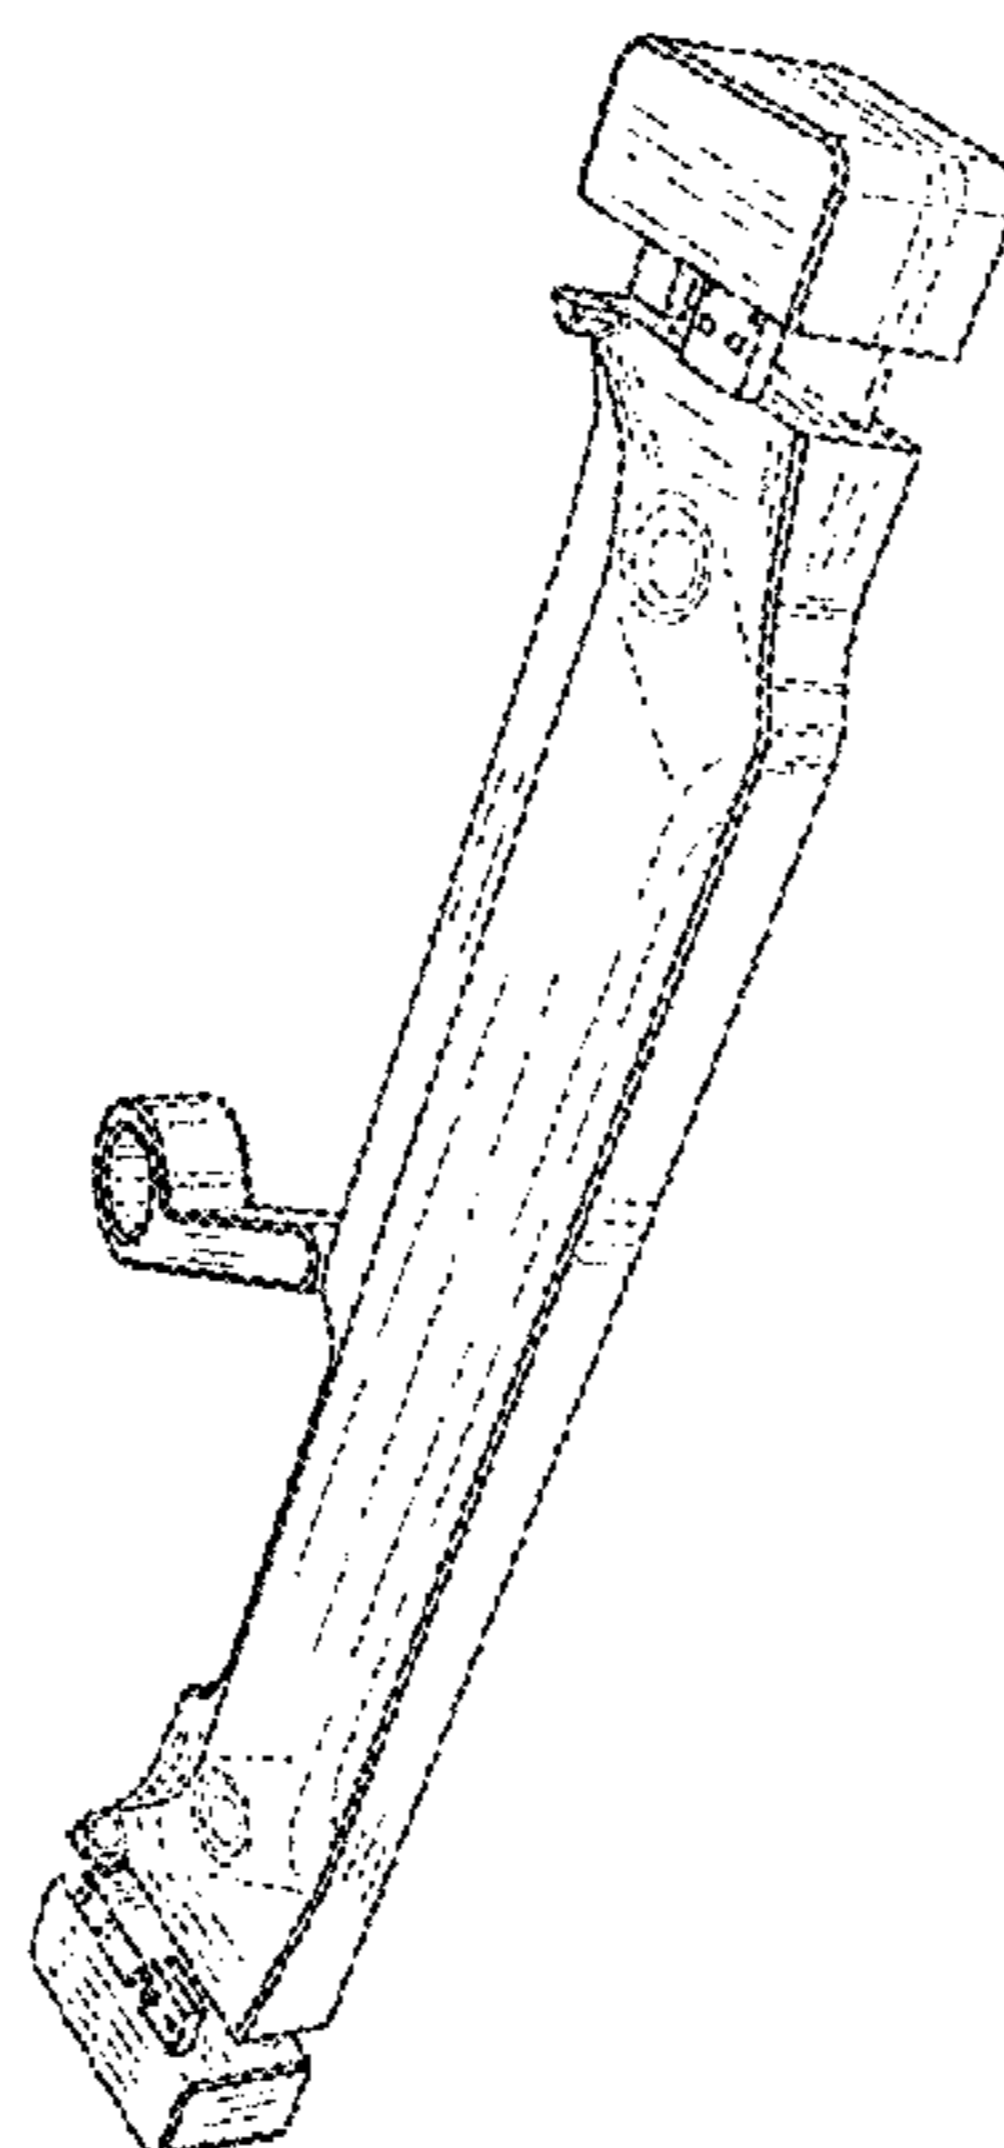

FIG. 14 is a left side view of the laptop dock in the closed configuration.

FIG. 15 is a perspective view of the laptop dock, as viewed from the back, side, and top thereof, in the closed configuration and securing a laptop computer with the laptop lid closed; and,

FIG. 16 is the same perspective view of the laptop dock in the closed configuration securing the laptop computer, as in FIG. 15, but with the laptop lid raised.

The purpose of broken lines in the drawings is to show environmental structure and features that form no part of the design to be patented. The laptop dock includes an open configuration for receiving a laptop computer and a closed configuration for securing the laptop computer. Both configurations are illustrated.
