(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a carton, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of an embodiment of a surface pattern for a carton showing our new design. The broken lines shown within the border of the figure form no part of the claimed design. The broken lines shown outside the border of the figure indicate that a specific length and width of the carton forms no part of the claimed design;

FIG. 4 is a right-side elevational view of the carton of FIG. 1. The broken lines shown outside the border of the figure indicate that a specific length and width of the carton forms no part of the claimed design;

FIG. 7 is a bottom planar view of the carton of FIG. 1. The broken lines indicate that a specific length and width of the carton forms no part of the claimed design;

FIG. 8 is a perspective view of an alternative embodiment of a surface pattern for a carton showing our new design. The broken lines shown within the border of the figure form no part of the claimed design. The broken lines shown outside the border of the figure indicate that a specific length and width of the carton forms no part of the claimed design;

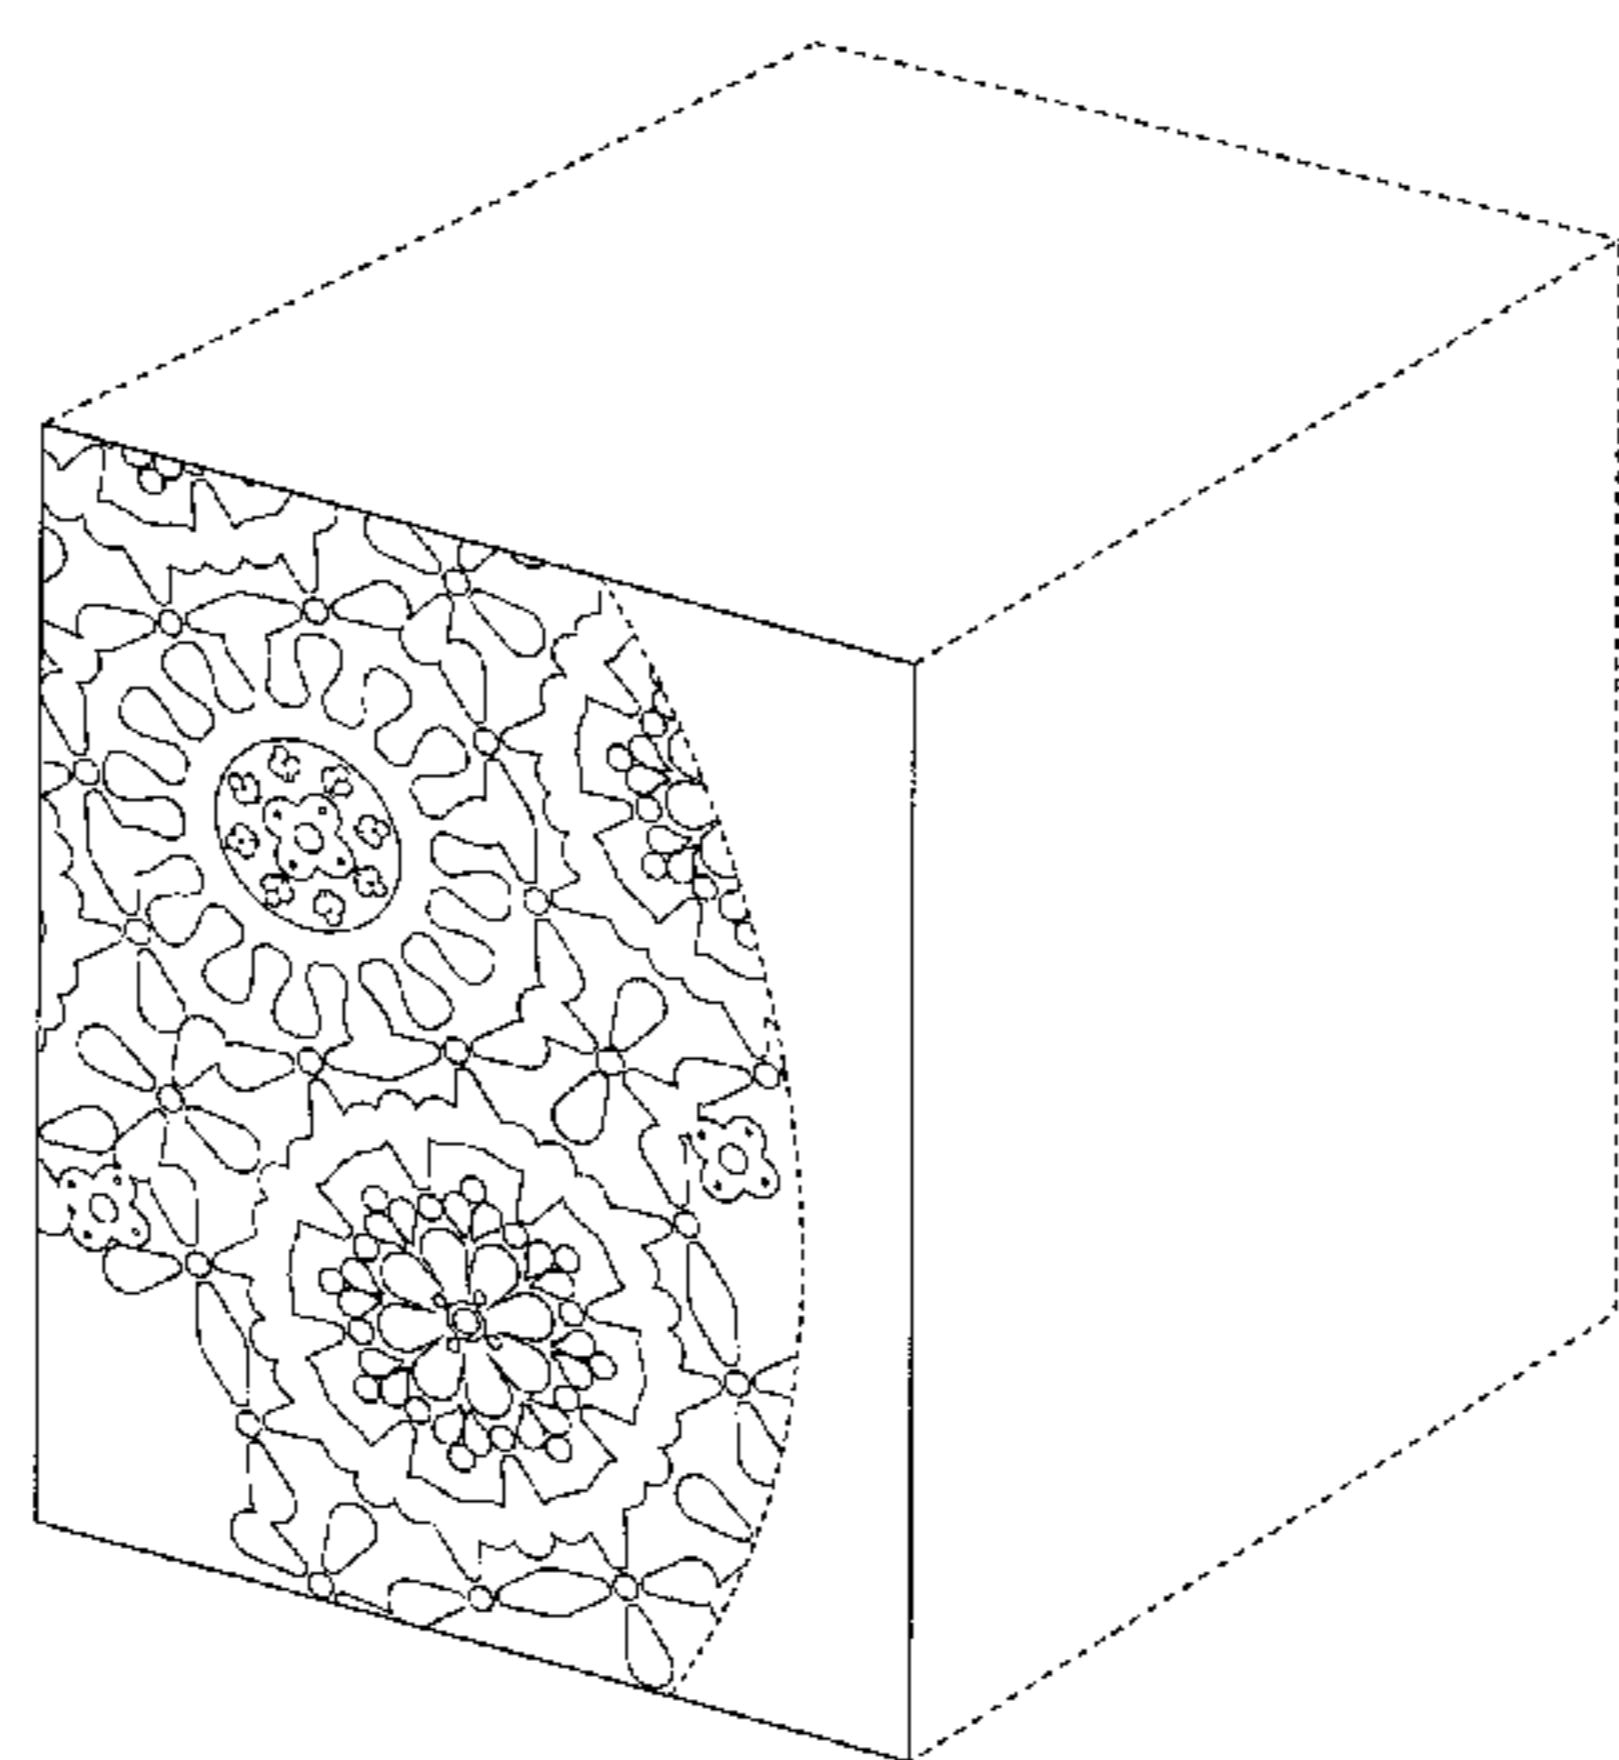

FIG. 13 is a top planar view of the carton of FIG. 8. The broken lines indicate that a specific length and width of the carton forms no part of the claimed design; FIG. 14 is a bottom planar view of the carton of FIG. 8. The broken lines indicate that a specific length and width of the carton forms no part of the claimed design; FIG. 15 is a perspective view of yet another alternative embodiment of a surface pattern for a carton showing our new design. The broken lines shown within the border of the figure form no part of the claimed design. The broken lines shown outside the border of the figure indicate that a specific length and width of the carton forms no part of the claimed design; FIG. 16 is a front elevational view of the carton of FIG. 15. The broken lines shown within the border of the figure form no part of the claimed design; FIG. 17 is a left-side elevational view of the carton of FIG. 15. The broken lines shown outside the border of the figure indicate that a specific length and width of the carton forms no part of the claimed design;
