(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a gel pad, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front view of a first embodiment of a gel pad according to my invention having a right side end channel, a left side end channel, a center channel without a break and a center channel with a break.

FIG. 2 is a top view thereof.

FIG. 3 is a back view thereof.

FIG. 4 is a right side view thereof with the left side view being a mirror image of the right side view.

FIG. 5 is a bottom view thereof.

FIG. 6 is a back view of a second embodiment of a gel pad according to my invention having a right side end channel, a left side end channel, a center channel without a break and a center channel with a break. The front view is the same as FIG. 1.

FIG. 7 is a top view thereof.

FIG. 8 is a right side view thereof with the left side view being a mirror image of the right side view.

FIG. 9 is a bottom view thereof.

FIG. 10 is a front view of a third embodiment, wherein the end channels have different widths compared to the first embodiment depicted in FIG. 1, wherein the top, back and bottom views are similar to FIGS. 2, 3 and 5, respectively, except for the width of the end channels, and wherein the right side view is identical to FIG. 4 and the left side view is a mirror image thereof; and,

FIG. 11 is a front view of a fourth embodiment, wherein the end channels have different widths compared to the embodiment depicted in FIG. 1, wherein the top, back and bottom views are similar to FIGS. 2, 3 and 5, respectively, except for the width of the end channels, and wherein the right side view is identical to FIG. 4 and the left side view is a mirror image thereof.

The speckled shading illustrates light transmitting, e.g., semi-transparent, internal gel material. The flash lines illustrate light transmitting, e.g., transparent or semi-transparent solid material.

The circular dotted lines are intended to indicate structure within the gel shown for illustrative purposes only and forming no part of the claimed design.

The broken away symbols in the drawings indicate that any portion of the article beyond what is shown forms no part of the claimed design.
