(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a computing device display screen with a computer-generated calendar interface, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front view of a computing device display screen with a computer-generated calendar interface with an icon bar with a day view feature and a first calendar select feature for toggling to a first calendar, under an embodiment.

The broken lines shown in the drawings are for the purpose of illustrating a display screen of a computing device, text, and other images, and form no part of the claimed design.
