The ornamental design for an umbrella, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front view of an umbrella embodying my new design in a first condition wherein a communication unit is exposed to be visible;

FIG. 2 is a left side view of the umbrella of FIG. 1 in the first condition; the right side view being a mirror image of FIG. 2; FIG. 3 is a top view of the umbrella of FIG. 1 in the first condition;

FIG. 4 is a bottom view of the umbrella of FIG. 1 in the first condition;

FIG. 5 is a left perspective view of the umbrella of FIG. 1 in the first condition; a right perspective view of the umbrella of FIG. 1 in the first condition being a mirror image of FIG. 5;

FIG. 6 is an enlarged front view of portions of the umbrella shown in FIG. 1 in the first condition;

FIG. 7 is an enlarged left side view of portions of the umbrella shown in FIG. 2 in the first condition; an enlarged right side view of portions of the umbrella shown in FIG. 2 in the first condition being a mirror image of FIG. 7;

FIG. 8 is an enlarged left perspective view of portions of the umbrella shown in FIG. 5 in the first condition; an enlarged right perspective view of portions of the umbrella shown in FIG. 5 in the first condition being a mirror image of FIG. 8;

FIG. 9 is another front view of the umbrella of FIG. 1 in a second condition wherein the communication unit is hidden from view, wherein the umbrella shown in FIG. 9 in the second condition has a top view and a bottom view identical to FIGS. 3 and 4, respectively, and the appearance of the umbrella shown in the first condition shown in FIGS. 2, 5, 7 and 8 represents the umbrella in the second condition but that the communication unit is hidden from view; and,

FIG. 10 is an enlarged front view of portions of the umbrella similar to FIG. 6, but showing the enlarged front view of the portions of the umbrella in the second condition wherein the communication unit is hidden from view.
