(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in a first appearance state;

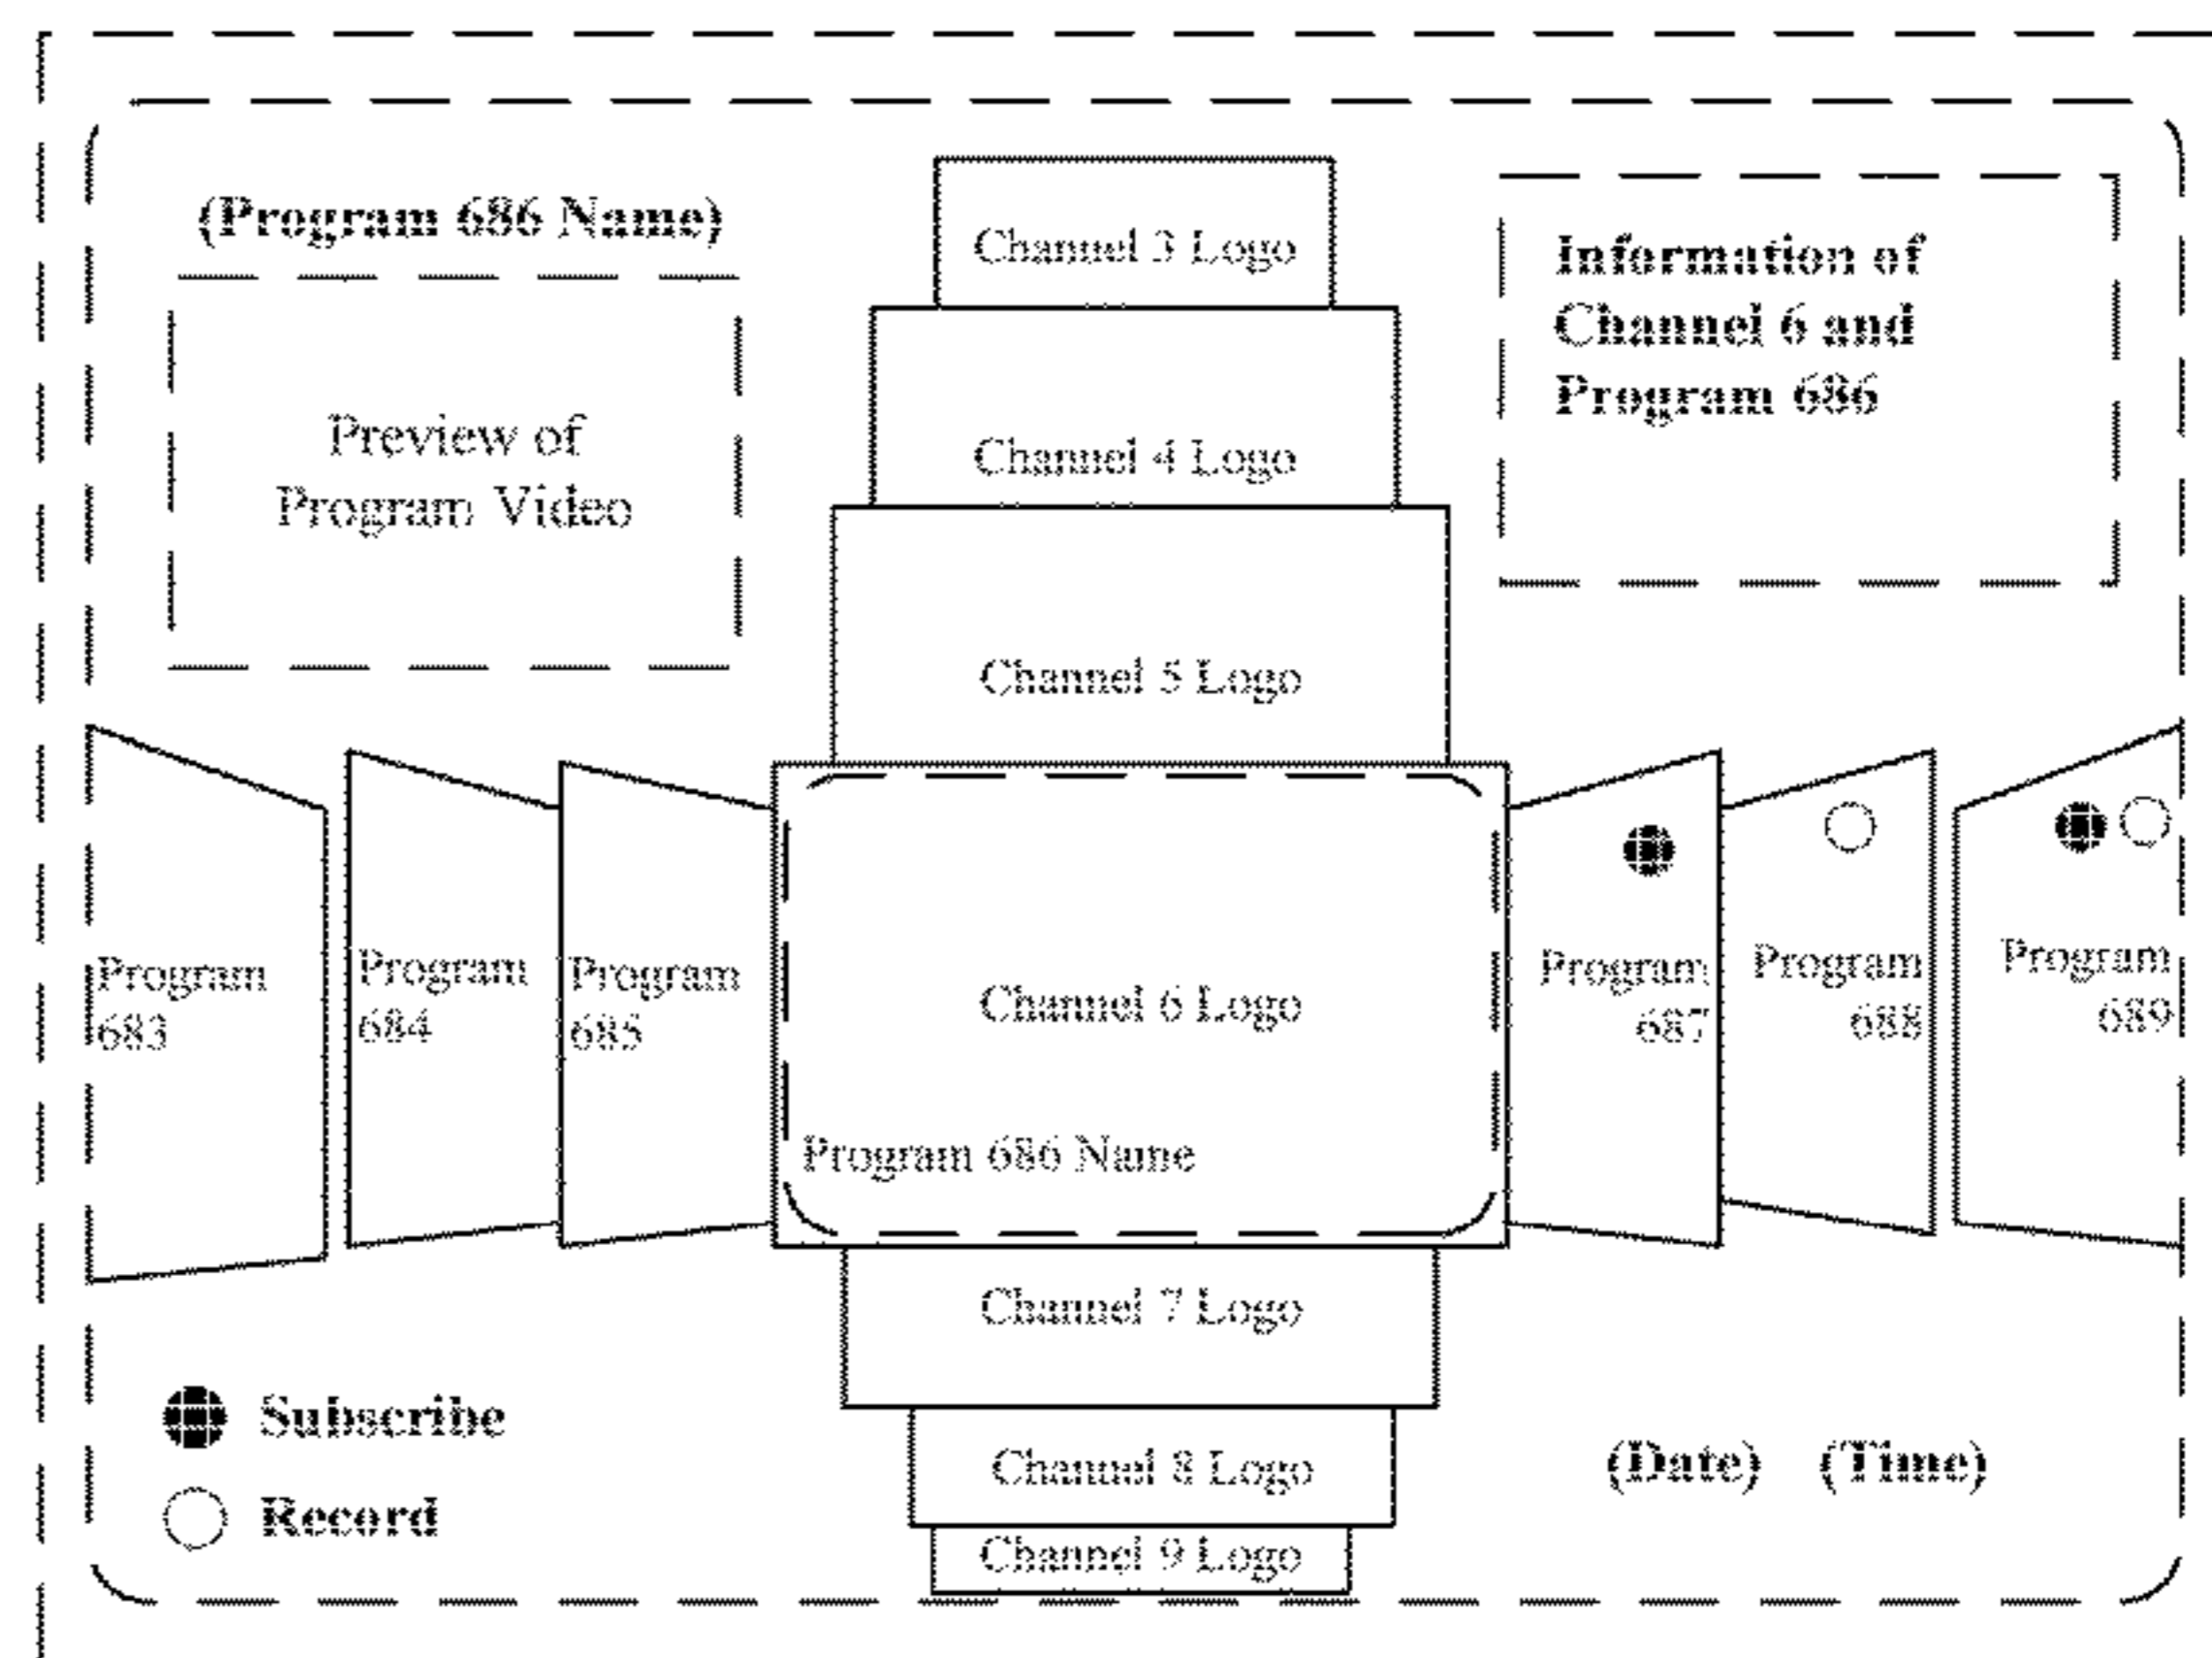

- FIG. 2 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in a second appearance state;
- FIG. 3 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in a third appearance state;
- FIG. 4 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in a fourth appearance state;
- FIG. 5 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in a fifth appearance state;
- FIG. 6 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in a sixth appearance state;
- FIG. 7 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in a seventh appearance state;
- FIG. 8 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in an eighth appearance state;
- FIG. 9 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in a ninth appearance state;
- FIG. 10 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in a tenth appearance state; and,
- FIG. 11 is a front view of the display screen with graphical user interface of an electronic program guide in an eleventh appearance state.

The appearance of the transitional image sequentially transitions between the images shown in FIGS. 1-11. The process or period in which one image transitions to another image forms no part of the claimed design.

The dashed lines in FIGS. 1-11 showing portions of the graphical user interface and the display screen represent portions that form no part of the claimed design.

The white criss-cross lines in FIGS. 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 on the text and symbols indicate those features are environmental subject matter and form no part of the claimed design.
