(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for an attachment for headgear, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of the design;
 FIG. 2 is a front elevational view of the design;
 FIG. 3 is a rear elevational view of the design;
 FIG. 4 is a left side elevational view of the design, with the two arms of the design being illustrated in a vertically offset arrangement to simultaneously depict the two arms;
 FIG. 5 is a right side elevational view of the design, with the two arms of the design being illustrated in a vertically offset arrangement to simultaneously depict the two arms;
 FIG. 6 is a top plan view of the design;
 FIG. 7 is a bottom plan view of the design; and,
 FIG. 8 is a perspective view of the design in combination with environmental structure in the form of a helmet.
 The broken lines shown in FIG. 8 shows unclaimed environment and forms no part of the claimed design.
 The attachment for headgear as shown in the accompanying figures comprises a pair of arms that are movable between: (i) a resting position in which both arms are operatively substantially horizontal and directed slightly toward each other; (ii) a second position in which an arm pivots outward to signal a “4” in the game of cricket; and (iii) a third position in which both arms are pivoted vertically to signal a “6” in the game of cricket.
