FIG. 1 is a front planform view of the 1st card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.

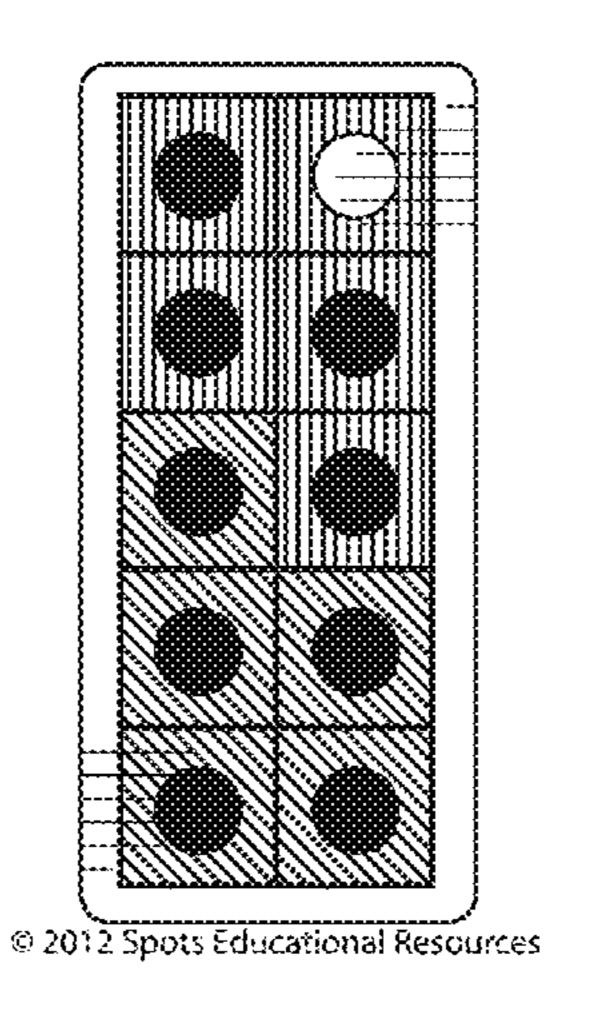

FIG. 2 is a front planform view of the 2nd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.

FIG. 3 is a front planform view of the 3rd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.

FIG. 4 is a front planform view of the 4th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.

FIG, 5 is a front planform view of the 5th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.

FIG. 6 is a front planform view of the 6th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.

- FIG. 7 is a front planform view of the 7th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 8 is a front planform view of the 8th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 9 is a front planform view of the 9th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 10 is a front planform view of the 10th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 11 is a front planform view of the 11th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 12 is a front planform view of the 12th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 13 is a front planform view of the 13th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 14 is a front planform view of the 14th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 15 is a front planform view of the 15th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 16 is a front planform view of the 16th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 17 is a front planform view of the 17th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 18 is a front planform view of the 18th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 19 is a front planform view of the 19th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 20 is a front planform view of the 20th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 21 is a front planform view of the 21st card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 22 is a front planform view of the 22nd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 23 is a front planform view of the 23rd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 24 is a front planform view of the 24th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 25 is a front planform view of the 25th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 26 is a front planform view of the 26th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 27 is a front planform view of the 27th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.

- FIG. 28 is a front planform view of the 28th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 29 is a front planform view of the 29th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 30 is a front planform view of the 30th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 31 is a front planform view of the 31st card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 32 is a front planform view of the 32nd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 33 is a front planform view of the 33rd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 34 is a front planform view of the 34th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 35 is a front planform view of the 35th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 36 is a front planform view of the 36th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 37 is a front planform view of the 37th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 38 is a front planform view of the 38th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 39 is a front planform view of the 39th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 40 is a front planform view of the 40th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 41 is a front planform view of the 41st card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 42 is a front planform view of the 42nd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 43 is a front planform view of the 43rd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 44 is a front planform view of the 44th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 45 is a front planform view of the 45th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 46 is a front planform view of the 46th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 47 is a front planform view of the 47th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 48 is a front planform view of the 48th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.

- FIG. 49 is a front planform view of the 49th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 50 is a front planform view of the 50th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 51 is a front planform view of the 51st card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 52 is a front planform view of the 52nd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 53 is a front planform view of the 53rd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 54 is a front planform view of the 54th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 55 is a front planform view of the 55th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 56 is a front planform view of the 56th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 57 is a front planform view of the 57th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 58 is a front planform view of the 58th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 59 is a front planform view of the 59th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 60 is a front planform view of the 60th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 61 is a front planform view of the 61st card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 62 is a front planform view of the 62nd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 63 is a front planform view of the 63rd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 64 is a front planform view of the 64th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 65 is a front planform view of the 65th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 66 is a front planform view of the 66th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 67 is a front planform view of the 67th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 68 is a front planform view of the 68th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 69 is a front planform view of the 69th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.

- FIG. 70 is a front planform view of the 70th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 71 is a front planform view of the 71st card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 72 is a front planform view of the 72nd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 73 is a front planform view of the 73rd card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 74 is a front planform view of the 74th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 75 is a front planform view of the 75th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 76 is a front planform view of the 76th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
- FIG. 77 is a front planform view of the 77th card of the educational set of cards for addition and subtraction of the present invention.
