(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for an inflation device display screen with graphical user interface, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front view of an inflation device display screen with graphical user interface at a first pressure reading during an inflation routine; and,

FIG. 2 is a front view of an inflation device display screen with graphical user interface at a second pressure reading during an inflation routine.

The broken lines in the drawings represent portions of an inflation device display screen, icons, and alphanumeric text illustrate environmental subject matter that forms no part of the claimed design.
