(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a strainer assembly, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a side perspective view of a strainer assembly of the present invention.

FIG. 2 is a side view of a strainer assembly depicted in FIG. 1.

FIG. 3 is an alternate side view of a strainer assembly depicted in FIGS. 1 through 2, rotated about a substantially horizontal axis from the view depicted in FIG. 2.

FIG. 4 is a front view of a strainer assembly depicted in FIGS. 1 through 3.

FIG. 5 is a rear view of a strainer assembly depicted in FIGS. 1 through 4.

FIG. 6 is an overhead view of a strainer assembly depicted in FIGS. 1 through 5.

FIG. 7 is a bottom view of a strainer assembly depicted in FIGS. 1 through 6.

FIG. 8 is an exploded side perspective view of a strainer assembly removed from a container depicted in FIGS. 1 through 7; and,

FIG. 9 is an exploded side perspective view of the container and lid depicted in FIGS. 1-8, shown separately for clarity of illustration.

The present invention is a strainer assembly used in cooking and food preparation including, without limitation, for straining grease, or other liquids, from food into a container and then pouring the remaining strained food into a separate vessel.
