(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a greeting card with die-cut window, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front and bottom exterior perspective view of the greeting card with die-cut window;

FIG. 2 is an interior perspective view of the greeting card with die-cut window;

FIG. 3 is a perspective view of the greeting card with die-cut window;

FIG. 4 is the front view of the greeting card shown fully unfolded;

FIG. 5 is a rear view of the greeting card in an unfolded condition wherein the shaded area at the center bottom and to the right of the die-cut window indicates the position of an adhesive to secure the pocket;

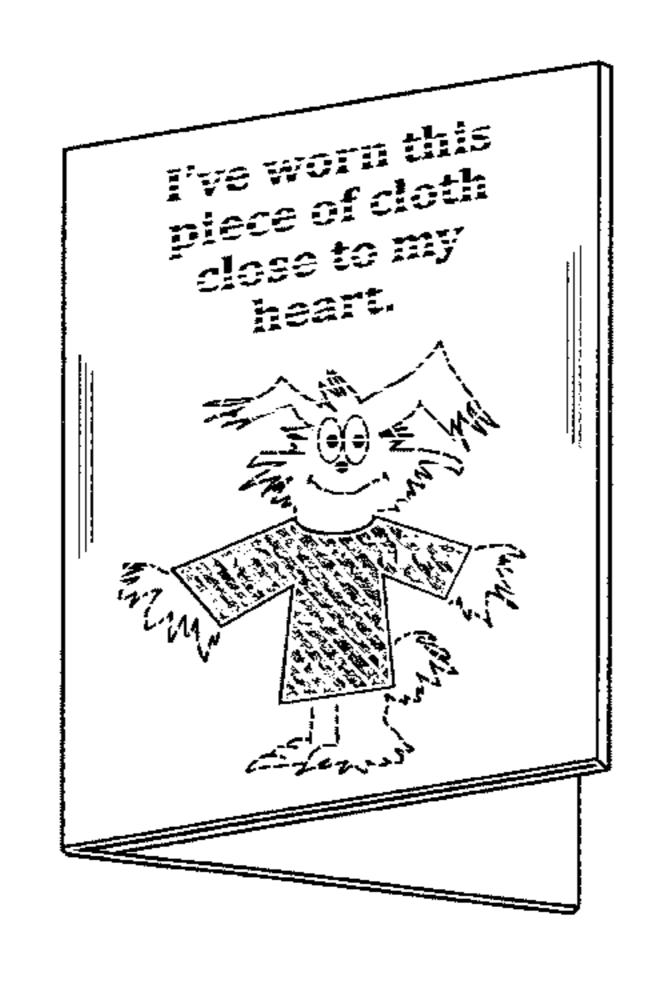

FIG. 6 is a top plan view of the greeting card in a partially folded position; and,

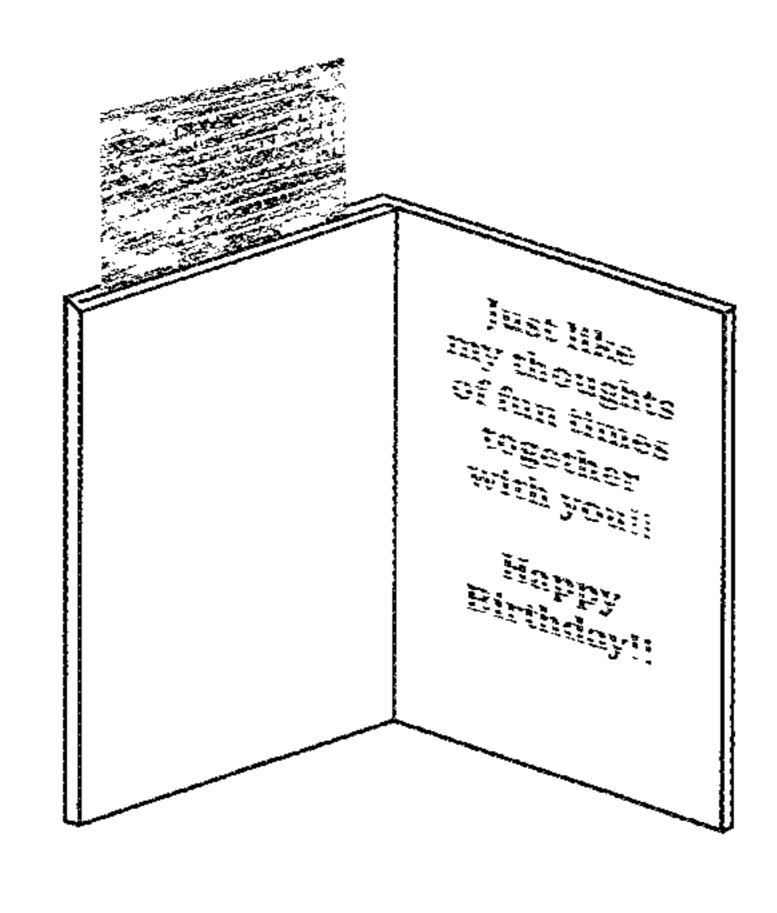

FIG. 7 is a top plan view of the greeting card in a fully folded position.

In FIGS. 1-3 the broken line showing text and human cartoon is included for the purpose of illustrating environmental structure and forms no part of the claimed design. In FIGS. 4 and 5 the broken line represents fold line and adhesive and forms no part of the claimed design.

The nature and intended use of the article in which the design claimed herein is embodied is a greeting card with a die-cut, open area window in the shape of an article of clothing to allow viewing of a textile which may be placed within the area of a pocket formed by folding of the card stock. The nature and embodiment of the design may be understood from the attached figures.
