(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a paper product with surface pattern, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top plan view of a first embodiment of a paper product with surface pattern showing my/our new ornamental design;

FIG. 2 is a top plan view of a second embodiment of a paper product with surface pattern.

FIG. 3 is a top plan view of a third embodiment of a paper product with surface pattern showing my/our new ornamental design. The outer perimeter of broken lines indicates that a specific length and width of the paper product with surface pattern forms no part of the claimed design; and,

FIG. 4 is a top plan view of a fourth embodiment of a paper product with surface pattern showing my/our new ornamental design it being understood that the inner perimeter of broken lines defines one repeat unit of the claimed design, which repeats uniformly throughout the length and width of paper product with surface pattern. The outer perimeter of broken lines indicates that a specific length and width of the paper product with surface pattern forms no part of the claimed design. This second embodiment is directed to the area within the inner dash-dot-dot-dash broken line perimeter. The area outside the inner perimeter and within the outer dash-dot-dot-dash broken line perimeter represents portions of the paper product with surface pattern that are not claimed.

The broken lines surrounding the figures depict the boundaries of the claim and form no part thereof.

The surfaces or portions not shown in the drawings or described in the specification form no part of the claimed design.
