(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a bottle, as shown.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top, front, right side perspective view of a bottle showing my new design;

FIG. 2 is a front elevation view thereof;

FIG. 3 is a rear elevation view thereof;

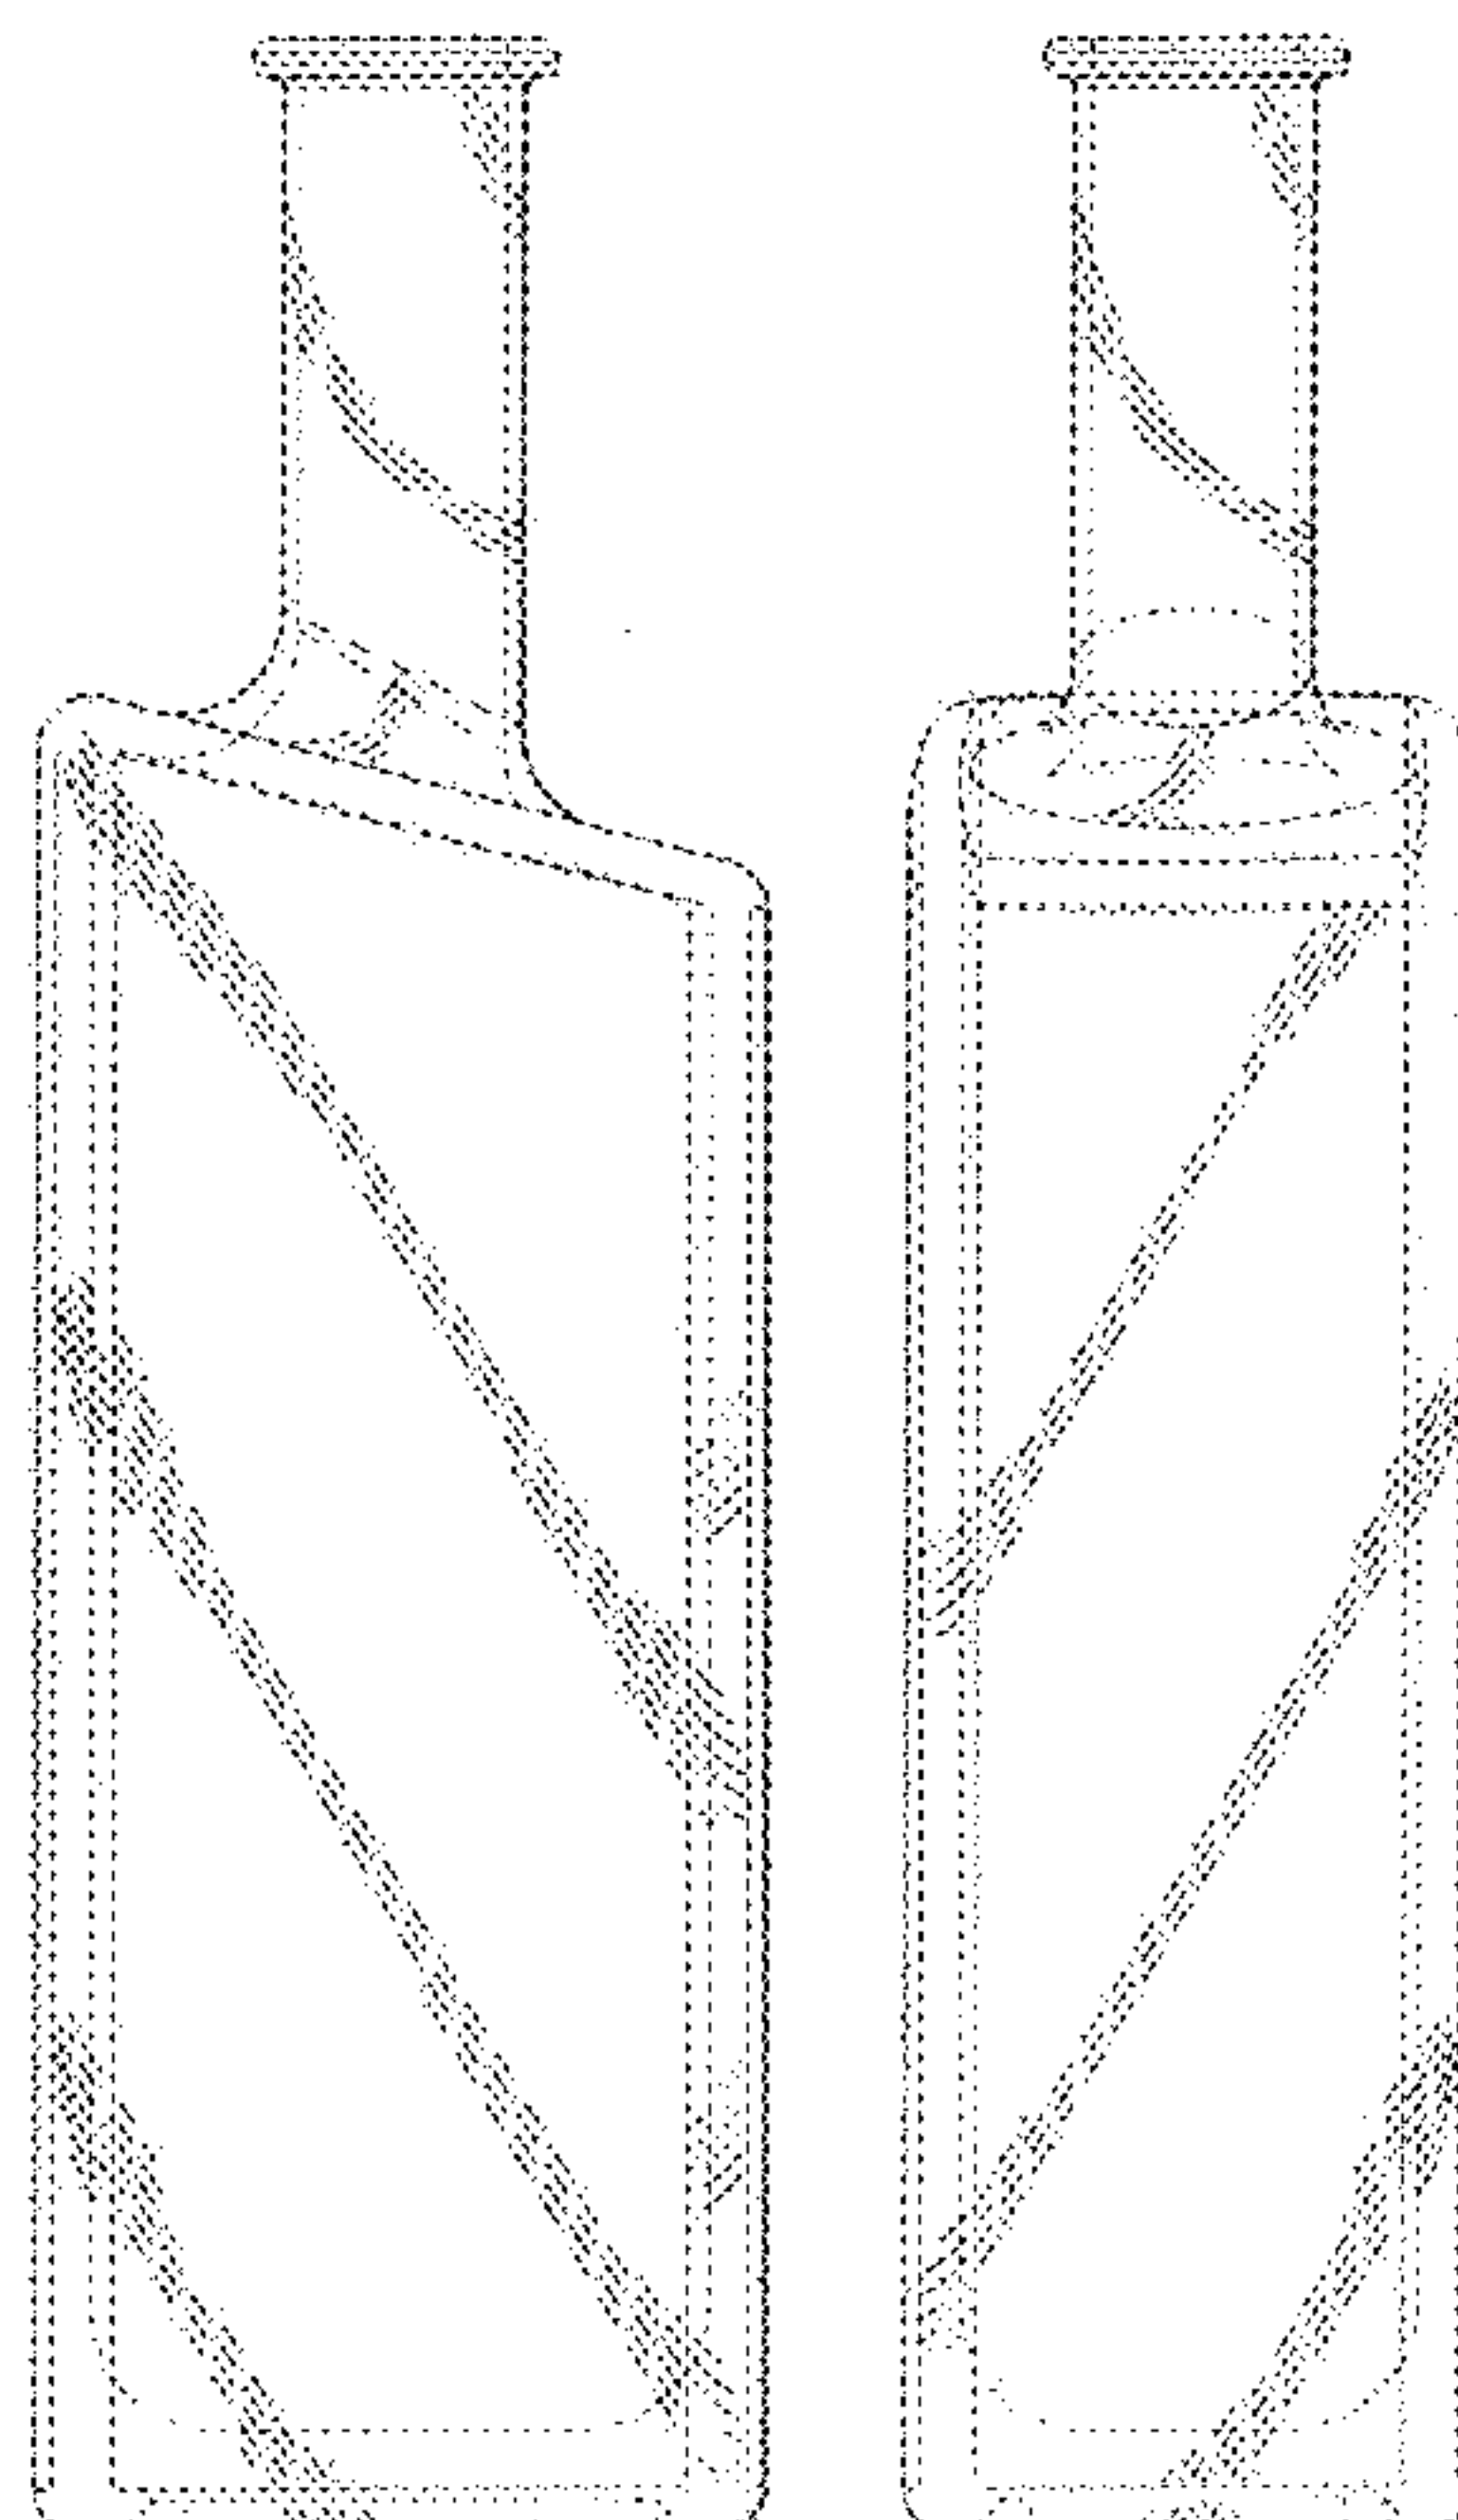

FIG. 4 is a right side elevation view thereof;

FIG. 5 is a left side elevation view thereof; and,

FIG. 6 is a bottom plan view thereof, the inside and opposing side details seen through the transparent material omitted for ease of understanding.

The bottle illustrated in FIGS. 1-6, for example, has an elongate body portion with a neck portion at an upper end thereof. The neck portion connects the body portion to a top opening portion. The body portion has a generally rectangular cross-section. The body portion has a bottom that is generally planar with an indented portion formed therein. The edges of the body portion are rounded. The upper end of the body portion has is generally planar and slopes (when viewed from the side). The neck portion is generally cylindrical. The top opening portion has a rounded, annular lip formed about an opening.
