(57) CLAIM

I claim the ornamental design for a display panel of a programmed computer system with a graphical user interface, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front view of a first view of a first embodiment of a display panel of a programmed computer system with a graphical user interface.

FIG. 2 is a front view of a second view of the first embodiment of a display panel of a programmed computer system with a graphical user interface.

FIG. 3 is a front view of a third view of the first embodiment of a display panel of a programmed computer system with a graphical user interface.

FIG. 4 is a front view of a fourth view of the first embodiment of a display panel of a programmed computer system with a graphical user interface.

FIG. 5 is a front view of a first view of a second embodiment of a display panel of a programmed computer system with a graphical user interface.

FIG. 6 is a front view of a second view of the second embodiment of a display panel of a programmed computer system with a graphical user interface.

FIG. 7 is a front view of a third view of the second embodiment of a display panel of a programmed computer system with a graphical user interface; and,

FIG. 8 is a front view of a fourth view of the second embodiment of a display panel of a programmed computer system with a graphical user interface.

The broken line showing of a display panel is included for the purpose of illustrating environmental structure; the broken lines form no part of the claimed design.

The appearance of the transitional image sequentially transitions between the images shown in FIGS. 1-4 and FIGS. 5-8. The process or period in which one image transitions to another image forms no part of the claimed design.
