(57) CLAIM

I claim, the ornamental design for a capture nock for a crossbow arrow, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a bottom perspective view of a capture nock for a crossbow arrow showing the new design. FIG. 2 is a top perspective view thereof; FIG. 3 is a left side view thereof; FIG. 4 is a right side view thereof; FIG. 5 is a front view thereof; FIG. 6 is a back view thereof; FIG. 7 is a top view thereof; and, FIG. 8 is a bottom view thereof.

The broken lines showing of portions of the capture nock for a crossbow in FIGS. 1-8 are included for purpose of illustrating environment and form no part of the claimed design. The claimed capture nock for a crossbow arrow is used for proper alignment of a crossbow arrow and to reduce the likelihood of dry-firing the cocked crossbow.
