claimed design, in embodiment 2, at FIG. 26, in their entirety, represent certain non claimed floor lamp features and, therefore, are for illustrative purposes only. The closed broken line, within the claimed design, in embodiment 2, at FIGS. 14-15 and 22-25, as situated on the lamp head of the floor lamp, and within the context of embodiment 1, that depicts an elongated rectangular shape, with rounded corners, nested within, and laying adjacent to, an outer and larger similarly-shaped element with solid lines, indicates a non claimed frame with non claimed width bounding the translucent or transparent feature of the claimed design, as is represented by the surface shading depicted in embodiment 1. The closed broken line, within the claimed design, in embodiment 2, at FIGS. 14-15 and 22-25, which depicts an elongated rectangular shape with rounded corners, therefore, omits surface shading within the bounds of said elongated rectangular shape as required by law or regulation.
