(57) CLAIM

We claim the ornamental design for shelf components, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of shelf components in accordance with our new design;

FIG. 2 is a front elevation view of the shelf components of FIG. 1;

FIG. 3 is a rear elevation view of the shelf components of FIGS. 1-2;

FIG. 5 is a left side elevation view of the shelf components of FIGS. 1-4;

FIG. 6 is a top view of the shelf components of FIGS. 1-5;

FIG. 7 is a perspective view of the shelf components of FIGS. 1-6 in an open, or extended position in accordance with our new design;

FIG. 8 is a perspective view of shelf components in accordance with another embodiment of our new design;

FIG. 9 is a front elevation of the shelf components of FIG. 8;

FIG. 10 is a rear view of the shelf components of FIGS. 8-9;

FIG. 11 is a left side view of the shelf components of FIGS. 8-10;

FIG. 12 is a right side view of the shelf components of FIGS. 8-11;

FIG. 13 is a top view of the shelf components of FIGS. 8-12; and,

FIG. 14 is a perspective view of the shelf components of FIGS. 8-13 in an open, or extended position in accordance with another embodiment of our new design.

Portions of the shelf components are shown in broken line to illustrate unclaimed environmental subject matter that forms no part of the claimed design, including, for example, the paddles and the vertical shelf-support uprights. A break line that bisects the width of the shelf components indicates that the overall width, or the ratio between the width and the depth of the shelf is not a part of the design. Similarly, unshaded portions that appear between broken lines or beyond boundary or break lines in the figures or without stippling form no part of the claimed design and indicate that a specific width, height and/or length forms no part of the claimed design.
