FIG. 1 is a front view of a computer with transitional graphical user interface concerning app updates showing a first image in a sequence according to our design; FIG. 2 is a front view showing a second image in the sequence; and,

FIG. 3 is a front view of a third image in the sequence. The elongated lines, broken in part, which extend along the lower margin of the card-like feature in each view, illustrate the illusion of a shadow, and form part of the claimed design. The process or period in which an image transitions to another image forms no part of the claimed design.
