(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a display screen with animated graphical user interface, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front view of a first image for a display screen with animated graphical user interface showing our new design, which appears first in the first sequence; FIG. 2 is a front view of a second image for a display screen with animated graphical user interface showing our new design, which appears second in the first sequence; FIG. 3 is a front view of the first image, which appears first in a second sequence; FIG. 4 is a front view of a third image for a display screen with animated graphical user interface showing our new design, which appears second in the second sequence; FIG. 5 is a front view of the first image, which appears first in a third sequence; and, FIG. 6 is a front view of a fourth image for a display screen with animated graphical user interface showing our new design, which appears second in the third sequence. The broken-line disclosure represents portions of the display screen which form no part of the claimed design. All text depicted in the drawings are in broken lines.

The appearance of the graphical user interface transitions sequentially in a first sequence among the images shown in FIGS. 1 to 2. The appearance of the graphical user interface transitions sequentially in a second sequence among the images shown in FIGS. 3 to 4. The appearance of the graphical user interface transitions sequentially in a third sequence between the images shown in and FIGS. 5 to 6. The process or period in which one image transitions to another image forms no part of the claimed design.
