FIG. 1 is a front view of a display screen having a transitional graphical user interface in a first state;
FIG. 2 is a front view of a display screen having a transitional graphical user interface in a second state;
FIG. 3 is a front view of a display screen having a transitional graphical user interface in a third state;
FIG. 4 is a front view of a display screen having a transitional graphical user interface in a fourth state;
FIG. 5 is a front view of a display screen having a transitional graphical user interface in a fifth state;
FIG. 6 is a front view of a display screen having a transitional graphical user interface in a sixth state; and,
FIG. 7 is a front view of a display screen having a transitional graphical user interface in a seventh state.

The broken lines representing features of the display screen having a graphical user interface or portion thereof and the dot-dashed lines showing portions of the display screen form no part of the claimed design.

The appearance of the graphical user interface sequentially transitions between the images shown in FIG. 1-7. The process or period in which one image transitions to another image forms no part of the claimed design.
