(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a modular furniture component, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIGS. 1-7 illustrate a design for a modular furniture component according to the invention and which further shows in broken line a generally flush top surface suitable for use as a seating surface, and wherein
FIG. 1 is a perspective view thereof;
FIG. 2 is front elevational view thereof;
FIG. 3 is a rear elevational view thereof;
FIG. 4 is a right elevational view thereof;
FIG. 5 is a left elevational view thereof;
FIG. 6 is a top plan view thereof;
FIG. 7 is a bottom plan view thereof;
FIGS. 8-14 illustrate the design for the modular furniture component according to the invention and which further shows in broken line a recessed top surface suitable for use as a receptacle for objects, and wherein
FIG. 8 is a perspective view thereof;
FIG. 9 is front elevational view thereof;
FIG. 10 is a rear elevational view thereof;
FIG. 11 is a right elevational view thereof;
FIG. 12 is a left elevational view thereof;
FIG. 13 is a top plan view thereof;
FIG. 14 is a plan view thereof; and
FIGS. 15-16 illustrate the design for the modular furniture component combined with other instances of the modular furniture component for context and configured to form exemplary seating and display assemblies, and wherein
FIG. 15 is a perspective view of a first exemplary seating and display assembly; and,
FIG. 16 is a perspective view of a second exemplary seating and display assembly.
The broken lines in the figures are for the purpose of illustrating environmental structure, specifically certain features of the modular furniture component in all figures and the individual and plants in FIGS. 15 and 16, and form no part of the claimed design.
The symbolic break lines in the figures convey that the appearance of any portion of the modular furniture component between the symbolic break lines forms no part of the claimed design.
