(57) CLAIM

We claim the ornamental design for holster, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a right side view of the holster of FIG. 1.
 FIG. 2 is a front elevation view of the holster of FIG. 1; and,

FIG. 3 is a left side view of the holster of FIG. 1.

The bottom appearance of the holster is not shown in the drawing and forms no part of the claimed design.

The top appearance of the holster is not shown in the drawing and forms no part of the claimed design.

The rear appearance of the holster is not shown in the drawing and forms no part of the claimed design.

The inventors do not consider the holster as illustrated to be the only embodiment of the invention. Applicants consider that the external features of the holster may be claimed without any of the structure and/or features within the interior of the holster. Such external individual features may be claimed in isolation or in any combination. The outline of the holster from any of the disclosed views may be considered embodiments, with or without individual features and any combination of such features. Thus, upon this filing, the inventors have possession of and consider that all of the above described variations to be embodiments of the invention.

Broken lines shown in the drawings form no part of the claimed design. The broken lines having alternating short and long dash lengths in the drawings depict boundaries between claimed and non-claimed subject matter. The boundaries themselves form no part of the claimed design. The broken lines having equal dash lengths in the drawings illustrate structure and/or features that form no part of the claimed design.
